- ✚ We belong to Christ. Christ is our comfort. God is our strength. We have a hope that does not disappoint. - Michael Youssef
 - ✚ Dream big. Believe big. Because you have a big God. Don't hold back. God is faithful and ready to reveal Himself in surprising ways. - TD Jakes
 - ✚ Worship is our response to who God is and what He does. - Charles Stanley
 - ✚ The cradle of Christmas means that God loves you. The cross of Christmas means that God forgives you. The crown of Christmas means that Jesus Christ is coming back! - Robert Jeffress
 - ✚ For it is in giving that we receive. - St. Francis of Assisi
 - ✚ You are already beloved by God and He is offering you His forgiveness. You have hope for this life and eternity because Jesus died for you. - Philip Kwiatkowski
 - ✚ If the cradle is the beginning of the Christmas story, then the cross is the main body and the crown is the victorious end. - Robert Jeffress
 - ✚ Tune into God and the principles of His Word. He speaks only what is right. - Charles Stanley
 - ✚ God wants to hear from you. - Pacific Garden Mission
 - ✚ Trust that God hears your prayers and knows your heart. - Pacific Garden Mission
 - ✚ Oh come let us adore Him Christ the Lord! - Brother Dave
 - ✚ "But God"... Those may be two of the most important words in Scripture. In most cases, they are usually preceded by something painful. - TD Jakes
 - ✚ Continue to trust in the Lord. You are so important to Him. You're the reason He came. - Brother Dave

- ✚ Open up to God about everything, for he already knows every thought that goes through your head. – Crosswalk
- ✚ The Bible tells us that long before the world began, God had a plan to bring redemption through Christ to all those who would choose to believe and follow Him (1 Peter 1:19-20). - Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ God knew we would need a Savior. He knew we would need to be set free. And He made a way, by sending His One and Only Son, so that we could receive forgiveness and find new life and hope through Him (John 3:16). - Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ Peace is only possible through a divine Person - the Price of Peace Himself. - David Jeremiah
- ✚ When problems arise, seek God first and listen carefully with an open heart. – Crosswalk
- ✚ Trust God's promise instead of giving in to doubt. - James Merritt
- ✚ Ask for faith from God. John 14:13 says, "You can ask anything in my name, and I will do it, so that the Son can bring glory to the Father." – Crosswalk
- ✚ Trust God's protection when you are in distress. - James Merritt
- ✚ Have a personal relationship with Jesus. This is most important above anything else. – Crosswalk
- ✚ From Billy Graham: "Jesus didn't come just to be born; He came to die. His death was planned before the foundation of the world. This was the message of the first Christmas night: 'You shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins.' " (Matthew 1:21)
- ✚ There may be times when it seems that there is no rhyme or reason to the in the events in your life. All your plans may be upended, but if you belong to Christ, God is working everything in your life according to His plan. - James Merritt
- ✚ And if you really trust Him, you will be so glad that He messed up your plans because His way is always better. - James Merritt
- ✚ God wants you to need him and depend on him. In return, he wants to know you and have an intimate, personal relationship with you. – Crosswalk
- ✚ If you aren't sure where you stand before God, you can be sure. God calls you to turn away from sin and to receive Jesus Christ by faith as your Lord and Savior. You can do that right now, wherever you are. - Billy Graham
- ✚ Trust God's plan even when you don't understand it. - James Merritt
- ✚ When Jesus says not to worry, know that it is within your grasp to follow His instruction. - Tony Evans
- ✚ This word is in a stir. No one has the answers except Jesus. He is the answer! - Aquilla Nash

- ✚ If we have a firm grip on God's sovereignty and providence, we'll not give up. God created us to be victors, not to be losers. - David Jeremiah
- ✚ The Lord would say, "Be not discouraged. Rise up in faith. Put on the whole armor of God. One prayer is all it takes for you to defeat a host of the enemy." - Aquilla Nash
- ✚ The Lord would say, "Fear is the devil's tactic. Refuse to allow him to trouble your mind or steal your peace. Command him to move his forces back and he has to obey. Shake the Word of the Lord in his face & watch him flee. You have more authority than you know." - Aquilla Nash
- ✚ God is always on time. - Kenneth Hagin
- ✚ God will meet you where you are and change your life! - Kenneth Hagin
- ✚ If you're struggling, He lends a helping hand. If you're hurting, He extends a healing touch. If you are in lack, He gives abundant provision. If you're bound, He grants the hand of deliverance. - Kenneth Hagin
- ✚ If you feel alone, He reaches out a kind hand for you to hold on to during the dark days. If you are lost without a Savior, He gives you His hand of salvation. - Kenneth Hagin
- ✚ It doesn't matter what the name of your circumstance or problem is. Jesus' Name is higher than it! - Craig Hagin
- ✚ Despite what circumstances look like, rejoicing and being thankful is important because God is in the midst of your praises. As believers, when we praise and thank God, our focus is lifted from our surroundings to the heavenly realm. - Marilyn Hickey
- ✚ When we keep your eyes and thoughts on Jesus, the joy of the Lord becomes the strength that carries us to victory. - Craig Hagin
- ✚ Jesus Christ, born a king, came to be our Savior. We celebrate His coming with thankfulness and joy! - Franklin Graham
- ✚ Whether you face challenges or are enjoying blessings, acknowledge God's work in your life. Give Him glory for what He is doing and has done. - Marilyn Hickey
- ✚ Because of the Greater One in us, we have everything we need to be overcomers. - Craig Hagin
- ✚ Truly He taught us to love one another; His law is love and His Gospel is peace... - Placide Cappeau
- ✚ Chains shall He break for the slave is our brother; and in His Name all oppression shall cease... - Placide Cappeau
- ✚ God wants to reveal the hidden treasures in you - the fullness of His destiny for your life. - TD Jakes

- ✚ God assumes full responsibility for our needs when we obey Him. - Charles Stanley
- ✚ Right now, adjust your expectations and draw from the strength Jesus gives. God never intended us to tackle life in our own energy. - David Jeremiah
- ✚ Remember, God loves you and He knows your every need. Trust Him. - Brother Dave Lombardi
- ✚ We are not always aware of the challenges and dangers ahead of us, but God is, and He will prepare and fortify us so that we can walk in His grace through those challenges. - Marilyn Hickey
- ✚ Worry is one of the great distractions of life, and it is more than mere concern. Concern involves controlling how much time and attention you give to an issue. Worry occurs when the issue controls you. - Tony Evans
- ✚ And when the issues in our lives are controlling us, then the kingdom goes to the back of the line in terms of our priorities, because we've given our worries too much clout. - Tony Evans
- ✚ Legitimate concern is necessary. But we must control what we think about, how much we think about it, and how we allow it to influence us. - Tony Evans
- ✚ When the kingdom is pushed to the background because an issue in your life has assumed control, then that issue has become an idol and a god, thus hindering the true God from meeting the need that is causing you to worry. - Tony Evans
- ✚ Christ is always with those who belong to Him, and nothing can ever separate us from His love. - Charles Stanley
- ✚ Satan wants you to believe God will never forgive you for what you have done, so he condemns you and tells you what you have done overwhelms the grace of God and you are left with nagging guilt and shame. - Jay Dennis
- ✚ God promises in I John 1:9 that if you confess your sin, God will forgive you. The truth is, there is no sin a Christian can commit that God cannot forgive. If God forgives you, you also need to forgive you. - Jay Dennis
- ✚ If someone has hurt you, don't spend the next 10 years of your life hurting yourself by hanging on to that offense. Most likely, that other person isn't even thinking about you, while you dwell on the incident for years. That only hurts one person—you. - Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Many people ruin their health and their lives by taking the poison of bitterness, resentment and unforgiveness. Matthew 18:23-35 (AMPC) tells us that if we do not forgive people, we get turned over to the torturers. - Joyce Meyer
- ✚ It's torture to have hateful thoughts toward another person rolling around inside your head. - Joyce Meyer

- ✚ Your Fellowship with God flows freely when you're willing to forgive, but it gets blocked by unforgiveness. Ephesians 4:26-27 tells us not to let the sun go down on our anger or give the Devil any such foothold or opportunity. Do not help Satan torture you. Be quick to forgive. - Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Whatever you may be facing today - Jesus is full of unfailing love for you. His love for you is everlasting and can never run dry. He is full of faithfulness, so you can trust Him with your deepest need, your darkest fear, and your greatest dreams. - Pat Robertson
- ✚ Satan wants you to believe you are the only one struggling with a specific temptation. He wants you to feel isolated and alone. The truth is you are not the only one struggling with a particular temptation. Someone you know is struggling too. - Jay Dennis
- ✚ The Word says we serve a God that never sleeps nor slumbers. He is always ready to work in our behalf. Whatever the need, He goes before us to make the crooked places straight. - Aquilla Nash
- ✚ Beloved, whatever you may be facing today the Lord has already made a way for you. He will not fail you! - Aquilla Nash
- ✚ If you want the power of God, start giving thanks! - Kenneth Hagin
- ✚ Beloved, we must refuse to get into fear and unbelief. Refuse to be one that is up one day and down the next. Be that one who is always looking up to the Author and Finisher of our faith. Jesus is on your side today. - Aquilla Nash
- ✚ The Cross was the very reason for God becoming Man. - The Evangelist
- ✚ The only answer for sin is the cross. That's why the believer is importuned to place his or her faith exclusively in Christ and Him crucified because the cross is the only answer for sin, there is no other. - Jimmy Swaggart
- ✚ If you don't quit, God won't quit. - Joseph Larson
- ✚ If you could see, where Jesus brought me from to where I am today, And you would know the reason why I love Him so... (Well) You can take, take this world, its wealth and riches... I don't need earth's fame. It's my desire, to live for Him. - Joseph Larson
- ✚ Do not lose hope, do not give up! Know that the answer is on the way. - Bob Cornell
- ✚ I have learned in life that His answer may not be what we want in the moment, but it is what we need. Before God's yes may come a thousand of His noes. Be willing and obedient to trust God. - Bob Cornell
- ✚ Adam and Eve fell from the higher position of total God-consciousness down to the far, far lower level of total self-consciousness, and from the moment of the fall, the sin nature controlled and ruled them. - Jimmy Swaggart

- ✚ From that day until now, the sin nature has ruled every individual born into this world - except for those who have come to the Lord Jesus Christ and have been born again and become a new creation in Christ Jesus. - Jimmy Swaggart
- ✚ God's peace is the inner calmness of spirit that comes from being in unity with God. His peace is when your spirit and the Holy Spirit are at complete unity about the guidance that you have been asking God for. - Bob Cornell
- ✚ Father, we bless You, we glorify You, we worship You. Gracias Signor, thank u Jesus, thank u Lord. Thank Him no matter what you are going through. Just thank Him & praise His Holy Name. Know that He is able to mend the broken heart and heal the sick... - Brooklyn Tabernacle
- ✚ Draw me close to You. Never let me go. You are my desire. No one else will do. Nothing else can take Your place. Help me find the way. You're all I want. You're all I've ever needed. Help me know You are near. Draw me close to You. Never let me go. - Michael W. Smith
- ✚ Ask God to give you knowledge of who He is. - Michael Youssef
- ✚ Without the cross, there is no reason to celebrate the birth of Christ. Without Calvary, what happened long ago in Bethlehem has no significance. But there was a Christ born in the city of David. There was a place called Calvary. There was an old rugged cross. - Mike Muzzerall
- ✚ Christmas is for every child of God - every blood-bought child of God should appreciate the significance of the incarnation of the Saviour and celebrate it as each deems appropriate. - Mike Muzzerall
- ✚ In Christ, you have all the power you need to do everything He has called you to do. - Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Allowing others to praise you instead of praising yourself is far more rewarding, and your humility will help you gain the respect of everyone around you. – Odyssey
- ✚ If you really want 2convince another party of something, do it kindly & gently. Lower your voice, speak calmly & b in control. How much more positively the other party will respond to your argument/requests when they see that you're not making a big whole fuss about it. – Odyssey
- ✚ When you're facing a sickness, speak God's healing promises over your life. If you feel inadequate or afraid, declare that you can do all things through Christ. - Joyce Meyer
- ✚ When a friend or family member is discouraged, tell them how much God loves them and how much they mean to you. - Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Any time the enemy whispers his lies, answer by shouting God's truth. - Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Doctors may tell you healing is a result of medical science, yet God works through doctors and gives them wisdom. Nutritionists may tell you healing is a result of natural supplements, but God provided those healing agents in nature and works through them, as well. – Crosswalk

- ✚ God also heals through the power of prayer. There are cases when a tumor was clearly on an MRI and after much prayer and a second or third scan, the tumor was completely gone, with no explanation other than God's healing hand. – Crosswalk
- ✚ When you put your trust in Christ, you are never without hope. You are never out of options. You are never lacking strength or power. - Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Follow God's leading and His will for your life. - Aquilla Nash
- ✚ His promises are faithful and true! - Aquilla Nash
- ✚ Prayers can move mountains. - Operation Blessing
- ✚ Obey God, and leave all the consequences to Him. - Charles Stanley
- ✚ Disruptive moments are often divine appointments. - David Jeremiah
- ✚ Progress without pain is usually not possible. - David Jeremiah
- ✚ The Promise of God is the Provision of Grace. - David Jeremiah
- ✚ Disruptive Moments Produce Dynamic Growth. - David Jeremiah
- ✚ The One who saved you is Worthy to lead you. God's will for your life doesn't have to remain a mystery. You can hear from God and trust in His loving care for you. - Charles Stanley
- ✚ God is on the throne - and of His kingdom there will be no end! - Robert Jeffress
- ✚ God is such a good God. There isn't anything that can stand in His way. Even when things seem impossible & when it feels like there's no way out, God, when we give Him complete control, steps in and creates a way of opportunity and escape. - Brother Dave Lombardi
- ✚ We can't go wrong when we trust Him. - Brother Dave Lombardi
- ✚ Salvation is God's gift, NOT a result of works. - Robert Jeffress
- ✚ God forgives those who admit they are ungodly. - Robert Jeffress
- ✚ God forgives those who realize they are incapable of earning salvation. - Robert Jeffress
- ✚ God forgives those who trust in Christ to save them. - Robert Jeffress
- ✚ You have a purpose. You have work to do. It's your life mission. When you live out your life's mission, you will bring glory to God and good to others. - Tony Evans
- ✚ God gave us the Scriptures so that we might come to know Him better... God has given you all you need to come to know Him through His Word. - Tony Evans

- ✚ I don't know what my future holds, but I do know who holds my future. – Tim Tebow
- ✚ ... freedom isn't the absence of boundaries; it's the ability to operate successfully and happily within boundaries. - Shirley Boone
- ✚ Such are the conditions prior 2 JudgmentDay. We need 2learn from this – fret when we see these things happening, but say: Christ predicted beforehand that the world would become so savage, coarse, greedy &so on. That's the way it is, &it is even going 2get worse. –MartinLuther
- ✚ The thing is that I had no fear; no anxiety. I had this peace come over me and I just knew that word from the Lord was truth. - Shirley Boone
- ✚ No matter what you may be facing, you have a sure word from the Lord that He will lead you, and guide you, and make your path plain. God desires to direct our steps. If we take the Lord out of the equation and try to direct our own steps we encounter problems. - Aquilla Nash
- ✚ THE RAPTURE THAT IS COMING... The 1st rapture will be the carrying away of the SAVED to heaven, at the beginning of a 7 year tribulation period, during which the antichrist will appear. The 2nd rapture occurs at the close of the 7 year tribulation when Jesus will return 2 Earth.
- ✚ The quicker we learn to lean on Jesus the better off we will be! - Aquilla Nash
- ✚ As you thank God, you become aware of His presence. And as you sit in His presence, a heavenly transaction takes place. God will take your troubles and sorrows, and He will exchange them for His comfort and peace. - Pat Robertson
- ✚ God's love for you is so great. As you thank Him, you are expressing your trust in Him and in His care over your life. - Pat Robertson
- ✚ What we need in our nation today is a radical, comprehensive, covenantal return to the God of the Bible. - Tony Evans
- ✚ You can hide from yourself, you can hide from others, but you cannot hide from God. - Touched by an Angel
- ✚ He is your Restorer. - Touched by and Angel
- ✚ One of the greatest things you can do when "life happens" and you're losing your peace is to meditate on scriptures that will help you calm down. - Joyce Meyer
- ✚ I remind myself that God is good and faithful, and that as long as I believe, He will work on my behalf. - Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Those who die without knowing Jesus as their personal savior will spend eternity in hell, a place of torment and punishment. But God wants you to live forever with Him. If you haven't made your eternal destination certain, do so now. - Kenneth E. Hagin

- ✚ Salvation Prayer: Dear Lord Jesus, I know I am a sinner and ask for Your forgiveness. I believe You died for my sins and rose from the dead. I turn from my sins and invite You to come into my heart and life. I want to trust and follow You as my Lord and Savior.
- ✚ Don't worry about tomorrow, and the tomorrow after that. - David Jeremiah
- ✚ Tomorrow, God will give you the grace you need for tomorrow. Today, God will give you the grace you need for today. - David Jeremiah
- ✚ But don't ask God for today's grace to be used up with the problems of tomorrow, because you will have enough grace tomorrow for what you need. - David Jeremiah
- ✚ We have to learn how to take one day at a time. What you need for tomorrow, God will give you for that day. - David Jeremiah
- ✚ God's Word is mankind's only sure guide to life eternal and abundant. It brilliantly reflects the holy, unchanging character of God Himself. - Franklin Graham
- ✚ In changing times, the Word of God never changes. - Franklin Graham
- ✚ Obedience to God's Word brings blessing. Disobedience brings chastisement and ultimately eternal punishment in hell away from the majesty and presence of God. - Franklin Graham
- ✚ God's Word is Truth. Authoritative Truth. Any so-called value system that contradicts it is founded on lies and deceit, and inevitably leads to disaster and ruin for individuals, cultures and nations. - Franklin Graham
- ✚ He changes not, and neither does His Word. - John Cooper
- ✚ God has a purpose and a plan for your life. It's up to you to get ready - to get out of your comfort zone - so when God says, "It's time," you can go! - TD Jakes
- ✚ We should never underestimate what God can do when we seek His guidance, believe Him, and obey. Many times, the bigger challenge we face is not discovering what to do but actually doing what God tells us. - James Merritt
- ✚ Anxiety is a monster. It can cripple you or make you act in ways that you would never otherwise act. It causes you to believe the most incredible of lies, and can even keep you from the things you care about the most. - Kenneth Reid
- ✚ Anxiety even has the ability to make you forget the things you know to be true. - Kenneth Reid
- ✚ What makes anxiety so powerful is the thing that should conceivably make it powerless: namely, the unknown future. We don't know what's going to happen, yet we predict a gloomy future. We convince ourselves that particular events will take place which rarely do. - Kenneth Reid

- ✚ That's why Jesus tells us, "Don't worry about these things, saying [to yourself], 'What will we eat? What will we drink? What will we wear?' These things dominate the thoughts of unbelievers, but your heavenly Father already knows all your needs" (Matthew 6:31-32) - Kenneth Reid
- ✚ When we become anxious we forget there r people who care about us & will not leave us alone. Whether it is your family, your church or your community, u r not alone. There r people u can turn to who love u, who will listen to u & who truly want what's best for u. - Kenneth Reid
- ✚ Above all, you have a Heavenly Father who promises, "I will never leave you nor forsake you" (Hebrews 13:5) - Kenneth Reid
- ✚ Anxiety makes us forget all the ways God has come through in the past. When we were in need before, God has always provided. - Kenneth Reid
- ✚ Why do we still not trust Him? We need to remember God's faithfulness in the past. May we declare with faith, "I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging for bread" (Psalm 37:25) - Kenneth Reid
- ✚ God is both good & sovereign. He is in complete control of your life & He works all things together for your good (Romans 8:28). - Kenneth Reid
- ✚ We may go through difficulty, but He will walk through it with you and give you grace to get through it. His "grace is sufficient" (2 Corinthians 12:9). There is nothing to fear because the Almighty God is on your side. - Kenneth Reid
- ✚ Keeping a prayer journal gives you something tangible to see that God hears you when you pray. Our God always hear us. And He encourages us to "Cast all your anxiety on Him because He cares for you" (1 Peter 5:7). - Kenneth Reid
- ✚ Even if what you fear does happen to you, you have to remember that your suffering isn't wasted. God uses every event in your life for your benefit (Romans 8:28). There is always promise in the pain. - Kenneth Reid
- ✚ We never rejoice FOR our sufferings, but we can rejoice IN our suffering. God is always working in the background to use our pain to make us more like Him and bring us closer to Him. - Kenneth Reid
- ✚ God's plans and purposes are far greater than our own! - Tim Young
- ✚ Set your heart to forgive those around you. This not only will heal your relationship but it will also keep your heart free from bitterness and deep rooted resentment from the past. – Beliefnet
- ✚ The only answer for sin is the cross, there is no other. - Jimmy Swaggart
- ✚ God is good. He is faithful and full of grace. You are saved and redeemed by the blood of the Lamb! Don't allow negative emotions to consume you. You have too much going for you to be controlled by toxic emotions and temporary circumstances! - Pastor John Hagee

- ✚ I've discovered that sometimes God wants us to linger in the waiting, hoping, praying. In fact, sometimes it's right in the middle of our darkness in the middle of our crisis, in the middle of our Plan B struggles that God speaks most clearly. — Pete Wilson
- ✚ “My hope is based on a God who can do and will do the impossible. My hope is based on a God who has defeated death itself.” — Pete Wilson
- ✚ “We must be willing to let go of the life we have planned, so as to have the life that is waiting for us.” —E. M. Forster
- ✚ “When in doubt, do nothing, but continue to wait on God. When action is needed, light will come.” —J. I. Packer
- ✚ God provides and blesses those who persevere to follow Him. - Tim Young
- ✚ Pursue true prosperity. True prosperity is not in gaining material wealth, it's in glorifying God through the way you live your life. – Beliefnet
- ✚ Strive for honesty and strong work ethics. They are sadly missing these days. - Tim Young
- ✚ Notice Joseph's reasoning in Genesis 39:9 - “How then can I do this great wickedness, & sin against God?” His main concern was what God would think. He understood that he was accountable to God & that the fulfillment of his dream was completely dependent upon God. - Andrew Wommack
- ✚ Joseph was able to maintain his integrity because he was not concerned with what man thought. He did not consider the benefits or consequences of his actions based on what Potiphar, his master, might do. - Andrew Wommack
- ✚ Joseph lived a God-dependent life, and he lived it in the midst of great adversity. He knew his future rested in the hands of the Lord. - Andrew Wommack
- ✚ Suffering to God's people is not always bad! God can use the most painful time of our life for His good. - Tim Young
- ✚ Our God is a Creator. He can create the new beginning that YOU need. It's never too late to experience a fresh start. - Marilyn Hickey
- ✚ Trust God, Not Circumstances Even when Joseph was sold into slavery the Bible said, “The Lord was with Joseph so that he prospered.” – Beliefnet
- ✚ Joseph's life is a powerful testimony of the long-term effects of walking in integrity. Temptation will always come, but allow God's Grace to cause you to flee sin and protect you from all of the enemy's traps. – Beliefnet
- ✚ Be God-Dependent. Joseph always knew that his gift to interpret dreams came from God. He never took credit and always focused on giving God the glory for all that he did. – Beliefnet

- ✚ When God honors us with success and prosperity, we mustn't forget to first honor Him and honor others. Even though Joseph was sold into slavery by his family that didn't stop him from blessing them in a time of desperate need. – Beliefnet
- ✚ Throughout his journey Joseph learned to have humility. Although God would one day lift him up, he would first have to lower himself and be humble. How many times in your own life has pride been a stumbling block? – Beliefnet
- ✚ There is value in self-control living in the do-whatever-you-want culture. - Tim Young
- ✚ Sometimes God reveals things to us that are meant for our ears only. - Alyssa J Howard
- ✚ God will use every aspect of our lives, even the things that don't seem to fit, to bring about His plan. - Alyssa J Howard
- ✚ Even if you find yourself in "prison," don't lose hope in God's promises. - Alyssa J Howard
- ✚ Forgiveness is always a part of God's plan. - Alyssa J Howard
- ✚ God honors patience and perseverance in time of troubles. - Tim Young
- ✚ It is when we recognize the lies of the enemy that we can best combat them with the truth of God's Word. - Alyssa J Howard
- ✚ Make sure of your commitment to Jesus Christ, and seek to follow Him every day. Don't be swayed by the false values and goals of this world, but put Christ and His will first in everything you do. - Billy Graham
- ✚ The Christian life is not a constant high. I have my moments of deep discouragement. I have to go to God in prayer with tears in my eyes, and say, 'O God, forgive me,' or 'Help me.' - Billy Graham
- ✚ A child who is allowed to be disrespectful to his parents will not have true respect for anyone. - Billy Graham
- ✚ If you tell God 'no' because He won't explain the reason He wants you to do something, you are actually hindering His blessing. But when you say 'yes' to Him, all of heaven opens to pour out His goodness and reward your obedience. - Charles Stanley
- ✚ Sin deafens our ears to the will of God. - Charles Stanley
- ✚ The good news is that God wants you to know that your death is not the end but the beginning of what He has planned as a much greater and glorious afterlife. It's eternity with Him, living in His presence, enjoying all that He intends for you to have. - Tony Evans
- ✚ In order for that to happen, we all must accept His invitation. To receive the offer of eternal life made possible by Christ's death, each of us must believe in His atoning sacrifice and accept it by faith alone in the finished work of Christ. - Tony Evans

- ✚ Jesus is in Heaven right now, preparing a future residence for us. - Robert Jeffress
- ✚ God loves you and He will be with you every step of the way.
- ✚ When we think of all the qualities and attributes of God, we start to shift our attention away from what is making us worried and the stress starts to fade away. He is our light, he is our salvation, he is our stronghold... the list goes on and on. – ibelieve
- ✚ God's Word is the ultimate authority. It's time for us to believe and obey it. - Kenneth Hagin
- ✚ It takes more than belonging to a church or being baptized in water to miss Hell and go to Heaven. - The Bible says, "You must be born again" (John 3:7)! - Kenneth E. Hagin
- ✚ Jesus, thank you for dying on the cross for me. I repent of my sin and ask for Your forgiveness. I surrender my life to You and receive You as my Lord and Savior. Thank you for saving and loving me! Help me to live every day for You for the rest of this life.
- ✚ God brings you the kind of peace that only He can provide.
- ✚ Jehovah Jireh - The Lord Who Provides. I shall not want!
- ✚ God has grace for disappointments, comfort for hurts, love for fear, and peace for worry. He has also made available to us reconciliation, restoration, high self-esteem, patience, health, provision, and joy unspeakable! - Lynette Hagin
- ✚ We r not bound by our fear or our anxiety. InChrist, we can cast off those chains & b set free into a life that is more abundant & rich than anything the world could give us. It is for freedom that we have been set free to live as sons & daughters of ourFather theKing! – ibelieve
- ✚ One of the enemy's strategies to keep us depressed and defeated is to remind us of past failures, mistakes and wrong decisions. God removes and forgets our sins. He wants us to put Him in remembrance of His Word rather than our past mistakes and sins. - Lynette Hagin
- ✚ God has great plans for you and is doing a new thing in your life. He wants to take you out of your comfort zone and stretch you with new and greater assignments. He is making a way where there seems to be no way. - Lynette Hagin
- ✚ God can heal us from anything, even anxiety. - Relevant Magazine
- ✚ Always remember that, every time you step out of your comfort zone, you step into God's comfort zone. - Bill Courtney
- ✚ The enemy sometimes interrupts our activities to get us out of our comfort zone in order to fulfill God's purpose. - Justice Kojo Bentil
- ✚ You cannot fulfill destiny in a comfort zone. Come out and make a difference! - Mike Okonkwo

- ✚ If you're waiting on God — do what waiters do: serve. Break free of your comfort zone and do something, touch someone, give something, help someone, pray for someone, serve someone, be the gift for someone. You can't be a world changer until you serve. - Ann Voskamp
- ✚ One of the helpful lessons I have learnt in leadership is the need to appreciate my strength zone and then lead from there. - Benjamin A. Suulola
- ✚ The more you focus on your fears, the less you focus on God. The more you focus on God, the less you focus on your fears! – cbn
- ✚ Truth is under serious attack today. Our society has rejected God and objective truth in favor of personal opinions and preferences. And this brings devastating results. - Jeff Schreve
- ✚ Be careful with the indoctrination of the world. Get your boundary lines from God's Word. There's increasing pressure from the world to approve of sin and sinful lifestyles... and to water down what the Bible clearly says. - Jeff Schreve

- ✚ A change of heart must and will occur in this nation. Evil will become more obvious and righteousness will be tried and tested. We will have to make a choice – either darkness and evil or God's light. There will be little wiggle-room between the two. – John Paul Jackson

- ✚ The Christian founding of this nation is what makes it different from every other nation other than Israel. Other nations may have become Christian in their focus, but none were initially formed with Christianity as the core of its DNA. – John Paul Jackson
- ✚ How we live opens or closes doors for Satan to legally afflict us and potentially rule over us via leaders who do not know the ways of God. – John Paul Jackson
- ✚ The basic principle is that sin separates us from God. Since Adam and Eve through today, the actions of humankind have given room for the enemy to strike and attack us. – John Paul Jackson
- ✚ The only legal way the enemy has access to us is by the hand of God lifting. This results in there being a space between Him and us and that space increases as we distance ourselves from Him and His ways. – John Paul Jackson
- ✚ Anytime there is an increased distance between God and humanity, it leaves room for attack to come and for principalities and powers of the air (rulers of darkness) to take up residence. – John Paul Jackson
- ✚ The longer dark powers reside over an area, the more the people begin to call right – wrong, and wrong – right. The lines between right and wrong, as well as the holy and profane, are becoming blurred. – John Paul Jackson
- ✚ In this nation, the way to God through Jesus and the Cross is no longer seen as an absolute. In fact, absolutes have become touted as “intolerance” first in the world and now even within the Church. The absolutes of heaven and eternity are clearly evaporating. – John Paul Jackson

- ✚ How can you choose faith over worry in your life? First, repent of known sin. Second, remove unnecessary fear (do it now). Third, remember God’s past faithfulness. Finally, remain in contact with God (talk to God about what is on your heart). – Robert Jeffress
- ✚ Give it time. When God heals something, He doesn’t just patch it up. He makes it stronger than it was before. – Touched by an Angel
- ✚ If you don't compare yourself with others anymore because you know we are all equally loved by God, equally sinful before God, and equally savable through Christ, and equally able to bring glory to God, then you won't have low self-esteem and you won't have the temptation to be proud any more. – Kendall Faull
- ✚ To remove pride, just stop comparing yourself with others. – Kendall Faull
- ✚ A person with a healthy self-esteem who is happy to be what God made them to be can have a healthy self-esteem because they know they are as good as anyone. God loves them as much as anyone. Jesus died for them too. They are washed clean as clean can be in Christ. – Kendall Faull
- ✚ Those with a healthy self-esteem don't have to measure up to others. They don't foolishly compare themselves with others. They use "sober judgment" and by "testing themselves" against what God gave them not what God gave someone else. – Kendall Faull
- ✚ Those with a healthy self-esteem can take a healthy pride in what God is doing through them by his grace without fear of not being as good as someone else because they are not comparing themselves with others like a proud fool. – Kendall Faull
- ✚ They have a healthy self-esteem because they know God loves them and made them in his image and through Christ has made them holy and a new creation. – Kendall Faull
- ✚ Another name for low self-esteem is pride. Bragging, boasting and the easily offended nature of those overly defensive is not caused by too much self-confidence but a lack of self-confidence. – Kendall Faull

- ✚ If they were truly confident in who they were they would not have to brag, boast and be self defensive. They wouldn't have to tear others down to build themselves up.- A person who is sure of themselves doesn't have to "prove" anything. – Kendall Faul
- ✚ Bragging and boasting comes from a person who is unconfident and so he/she over-compensates with bragging, boasting, and looking down on others faults while exalting themselves in their own eyes. – Kendall Faul
- ✚ Good self esteem is when you realize you are created in God's image and therefore of great value. When you realize you are just as good as anyone else and don't need to be ashamed of your mistakes because everyone else has made them too and because God has forgiven them in Christ. – Kendall Faul
- ✚ Good self esteem is when you realize you can take pride in your actions at a particular time not because you did more than someone else or accomplished more than others but because you did the best you could with the gifts and opportunities God gave you at that moment. – Kendall Faul
- ✚ Bad self-esteem is when you put yourself on a scale and measure yourself against others. This makes you feel inferior to some and superior to others. – Kendall Faul
- ✚ Good pride is when you are proud of someone else and what God is doing through them. – Kendall Faul
- ✚ Good pride is when you are proud of yourself without comparing yourself with others. – Kendall Faul
- ✚ Bad pride is when you think one person is better than another and take pride in yourself over others by who you have associated with. – Kendall Faul
- ✚ Bad pride is when you think you are better than some and not as good as others. You compare morality, social status, looks, intelligence, culture, family background, or whatever.- Kendall Faul
- ✚ Bad pride is when you compare yourself with others. You put yourself on a scale and measure yourself in comparison to others knowledge, looks, character, gifts, abilities, wealth, status, personality, blessings and so on. – Kendall Faul
- ✚ When a person has low self-esteem they naturally compare themselves with others. They feel low because they have compared themselves with others and they are not as rich, good looking, smart, spiritual, likeable, funny, gifted, or blessed with possessions, talents, or family. – Kendall Faul
- ✚ Low self-esteem comes from comparing yourself to others. Pride comes from comparing yourselves to others. You can't have one without the other. – Kendall Faul
- ✚ Pride is low self esteem that takes pride in where it is better than some to comfort itself for not being as good as some others. It tries to assume a higher status through bragging, boasting, belittling others and avoiding those lower on the social scale than themselves. – Kendall Faul

- ✚ God given dreams were made to come true. – Jimmy Evans
- ✚ Many people around the globe are struggling with illness, loss of employment, or are experiencing lonely isolation – we need to keep them in prayer. – David Jeremiah
- ✚ Good is still in control. He is on the throne. He is not surprised by the events in our world today! He is Sovereign – nothing happens without His permission. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. – David Jeremiah
- ✚ You are loved by God and nothing can separate you from His love. – David Jeremiah
- ✚ You may feel isolated, but God is near to you through the working of the Holy Spirit. God is ready, right now, to communicate to you through prayer and His Word. – David Jeremiah
- ✚ He is the Great Physician, Jehovah-Rophe, the One who Heals. Though sickness surrounds us, God's power & protection goes before you. Nothing is impossible for God. No force is insurmountable for Him to conquer, & no evil is too diabolical for Him to vanquish. – David Jeremiah
- ✚ His Word remains a lamp unto your feet and a light unto your path. Your prayers are heard by the Great I Am – the light of the World – the Good Shepherd. He delights in His children and longs to give you the desires of your heart. – David Jeremiah
- ✚ And because you are a child of God, you can confidently rest in His providence and protection during this time of turmoil. God is our certainty in uncertain times. – David Jeremiah

- ✚ The Gospel can bring peace in the midst of any storm. – Franklin Graham
- ✚ Whenever you feel anxious, begin to pray. List five things you are thankful for right now, then tell God what is making you afraid and what you need. You will see God's peace transform your heart and mind. – CBN
- ✚ Get hold of the promises of God and stand strong. We are up to any challenge by the grace of God! – Aquilla Nash
- ✚ As the global coronavirus crisis continues – Jesus remains our faithful shepherd, and He knows what we need before we ask. He is on His throne, no matter what the news reports may say. – Michael Youssef

- ✚ For this reason alone you and I can remain at peace. Our hearts are at rest within us because to live is Christ and to die is gain. – Michael Youssef
- ✚ Far too many believers make their plans, and then ask God to bless those plans. The idea is that you let God make the plans, & then those plans are guaranteed of blessing. – Jimmy Swaggart
- ✚ As a child of God, there is a hedge of protection that is built all the way around you. You have a protector. – Gabriel Swaggart
- ✚ The Word of God is the first weapon of spiritual warfare. When a believer has truth and walks in truth, he or she will be able to discern and now the correct responses to the many challenges of life. – Dr Don Paul Gray
- ✚ The Word defeats the enemy and changes confusion into triumph. The Word is our offensive and defensive weapon. It is a two-edge sword. – Dr Don Paul Gray
- ✚ The second weapon of spiritual warfare is the power of the Holy Spirit. When a believer is baptized in the Holy Spirit, that believer has a resource like no other to defeat the enemy. – Dr Don Paul Gray
- ✚ Satan has no weapon that can withstand the power of the Holy Spirit. The power of the Holy Spirit makes available the gifts of the Holy Spirit. – Dr Don Paul Gray
- ✚ Another great weapon of spiritual warfare is the authority to use the name of Jesus. We should ask in His name. We should pray in His name. We should expect miracles in His name. – Dr Don Paul Gray
- ✚ All who have accepted God's gift of eternal life have also been given a divine mandate to be part of the Great Commission. – Mike Muzzerall
- ✚ We can know that whatever we are facing – including a formidable virus – we have a God who has promised to never leave us or forsake us. – Franklin Graham
- ✚ Because the power of sin is broken, you don't have to be under the power of any sin, any vice, any lifestyle. – Greg Laurie
- ✚ You don't have to be under the power of anything or anyone, because Jesus has purchased your freedom at Calvary. – Greg Laurie
- ✚ And He finished our salvation. It's done. It's paid for. It's bought. You don't need to add anything to it. It's a gift to you. – Greg Laurie
- ✚ If you put your faith in Jesus, you can say with confidence, "I know my sin is forgiven". – Greg Laurie
- ✚ What's going to happen to you when you die? Does death freak you out? If you're not a Christian, death should freak you out. You should be scared to death of death. But if you know Jesus, you don't have to be afraid. – Greg Laurie

- ✚ Jesus Christ has risen from the grave, and if you will turn away from sin and receive Him by faith as your Lord and Savior, you can have life eternal and abundant. – Billy Graham
- ✚ Right now, wherever you are, you can begin a relationship with God, and He promises that you will be forgiven and become a brand-new person. – Billy Graham
- ✚ Keep looking up. As we live in a world that is shaken at almost every level and in every area, we can face tomorrow because He lives! – Anne Graham Lotz
- ✚ God knows the challenges you endure each day. He has promised not to allow more on us than we can bear. Trust Him with your heart, soul and mind. He cares so much about you. – Brother Dave
- ✚ Don't allow the storms around you to rob your peace. God will take care of you, and His presence goes before you. Remember to keep your mind focused on God and on His Word. – Joyce Meyer
- ✚ All you need is faith in God because faith in God moves mighty mountains. – Brother Dave
- ✚ God's love is perfect, and nobody can love us better than He can. – Touched by an Angel
- ✚ We must have ears to hear what the Holy Spirit speaks. We can stay ahead of the devil's schemes. These are perilous times. – Aquilla Nash
- ✚ We will never be able to live above our circumstances until we understand that the situation we are in right now is no fluke; it came as no surprise to our loving, omniscient God. – Robert Jeffress
- ✚ No matter what circumstances we face – including coronavirus – we have hope and confidence in God, knowing that He is working for His glory and our good. That's the secret to being content in every situation: choose to trust in God's providence and purpose for your life. – Robert Jeffress
- ✚ As believers in Jesus, we are so blessed to know the Lord in an intimate, personal way. God is the One who loves us, care for us, and sees us through every dark and scary "valley of the shadow of death." – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ He's also almighty. He's the God who defeated Egypt. He is unequalled in power. He can do anything in your life and mine. He can defeat all our enemies and bring about a great deliverance. He is the only true God. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ When fear begins to knock on the door of your heart, let your faith answer, for faith is the overcoming factor for fear. – Gabriel Swaggart
- ✚ Angels are mentioned 194 times in the Bible, with 99 times being in the New Testament. Thank God for the ministry of angels to the body of Christ. We need our guardian angels. – Dr Don Paul Gray
- ✚ Every Christian must realize that the potential for spiritual growth is never-ending. We can always grow closer to God. – Loren Larson

- ✚ Before you have a testimony, you have to have a test. – Donnie Swaggart

- ✚ Negative thoughts, words and actions take only a second to express but can stain our future irreparably. Negativity is ruining your future. – TD Jakes
- ✚ Positivity is power. Positive thoughts have enormous power – they are seeds of growth. – TD Jakes
- ✚ Eagles fly where lesser birds cannot fly, so eagles can do what lesser birds cannot do. – TD Jakes
- ✚ Never make a permanent decision about a temporary situation. – TD Jakes
- ✚ A setback is a setup for a comeback. – TD Jakes
- ✚ Big ideas come from forward thinking people who challenge the norm, think outside the box, and invent the world they see inside rather than submitting to the limitations of current dilemmas. – TD Jakes
- ✚ There's something you learn from helping other people with their dreams that prepares you for your own. – TD Jakes
- ✚ The critic is a prisoner to his own experiences and perspectives, erroneously believing his limited experiences are the sum of all truth. – TD Jakes
- ✚ There is no room for God in a mind that's full of self. – TD Jakes
- ✚ Stress and worry is a residual of relying on yourself and being your own god, in control of everything. Worship allows us to rely on God's power to steer us through life. – TD Jakes
- ✚ No matter where you are in life right now, know this: God put you on this earth to fulfill the promise He has predestined for your life. – TD Jakes
- ✚ You cannot change what you will not confront. – TD Jakes
- ✚ If you don't find a way to love a flawed person, secretly you're teaching yourself that you are not lovable because of your flaws. – TD Jakes
- ✚ I found out that the things that hurt us the most can become the fuel and the catalyst that propel us toward our destiny. It will either make you bitter or it will make you better. – TD Jakes
- ✚ You cannot embrace your destiny if you do not let go of your history. – TD Jakes
- ✚ Don't allow your past or present condition to control you. It's just a process that you're going through to get you to the next level. – TD Jakes

- ✚ You have to knock on doors. You can't keep your dreams a secret. You have to put them out there on display and people can say whatever they want but keep on pointing your actions towards your dreams. – TD Jakes
- ✚ Face the giants in your life, slay them, and move on. Do not be daunted by the mistakes and failures in your life. – TD Jakes
- ✚ If you can't figure out your purpose, figure out your passion. For your passion will lead you right into your purpose. – TD Jakes
- ✚ Not everyone will be happy when you begin to better yourself. Those who are for you will not just celebrate in your triumphs, but they will also pray with you through your tribulations. – TD Jakes
- ✚ When people walk away from you, let them go. Your destiny is never tied to anyone who leaves you, and it doesn't mean they are bad people. It just means that their part in your story is over. – TD Jakes
- ✚ If you think down, you will go down. If you think up, you will go up. You'll always travel in the direction of your thinking. – TD Jakes
- ✚ 10 Essential Attitudes for a Good Quality of Life. – Charles Stanley

- ✚ Resist panic. This is not to say there is no reason to be concerned... But panic and fear are not from God. Calm and hope are. And it is possible to respond to a crisis seriously and deliberately while maintaining an inner sense of calm and hope. - James Martin
- ✚ Don't lend credence to lies or rumors, or give in to panic. Panic, by confusing and frightening you, pulls you away from the help God wants to give you. It is not coming from God. – James Martin
- ✚ Whenever we feel overwhelmed by the chaos and difficulty of life, we can turn to God in prayer for peace and serenity. – Pastor Gene Whitehouse
- ✚ In this time of uncertainty, fear, seclusion and separation from what we term 'normal,' our human solution is to 'handle it ourselves.' But that is not what our Bible and the Lord tell us. Turning to the Lord should be our first response, not our last resort. – Pastor Gene Whitehouse
- ✚ In Philippians 4:6, the Bible tells us, "Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God."
- ✚ How we can pray for peace is simple. First, honestly declare your belief and trust in God as your Lord and Savior. Then make your request of peace known to God in whatever personal sense you need. – Pastor Gene Whitehouse
- ✚ As I think about my own life, through COVID-19, I have been reminded that I do not control my life. COVID-19 has shown me that I am utterly and completely dependent on the living God. If I think I am in control of things, that is merely a pleasant illusion. – Pastor Gene Whitehouse

- ✚ The Word of God transforms.
The Word of God heals.
The Word of God brings hope.
The Word of God saves! – Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Many people would expect I would be praying for something big. But that's not the case. I pray for my personal life, my business. And I just talk to God like a friend. - Do Won Chang
- ✚ I pray to the Almighty to encourage you to dedicate your life to Jesus Christ. Whatever difficulties you may have to face, turn to him, recognize him and render him all your glory, and he will help you overcome. - Colonel Sanders
- ✚ Fear is a spirit that really can stop you from living. - Tyler Perry
- ✚ God will prepare a table before you in the presence of your enemies so let them watch you eat. It doesn't matter if a million people tell you what you can't do, or if ten million tell you no. If you get one yes from God that's all you need. - Tyler Perry
- ✚ Don't wait for someone to green light your project, build your own intersection. - Tyler Perry
- ✚ Being alone doesn't necessarily mean that you're lonely. - Tyler Perry
- ✚ As Christians, we have an obligation and responsibility to abide by the principles of the Bible. - Truett Cathy
- ✚ Anytime you get outside your comfort zone, the elements of fear begin to creep in, which dampens your faith. – David Steward
- ✚ Fear is just the opposite of faith, because faith is the substance of things hoped for and evidence of things not seen. That requires people to change, because we have been taught to believe in what we see. - David Steward
- ✚ Seek first the kingdom of God & all of his righteousness, & everything else will added unto you. It means seek to serve first and bring value & make a difference in someone else's life. If you do, in due season, that will turn around to benefit you in a big way. – David Steward

https://www.hopefortheheart.org/the-dos-and-donts-of-helping-others/?utm_source=email&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=09222021
- ✚ Fear is an emotion caused by the belief that something or someone poses a threat to us. Fear is from the devil, and it's the enemy to our faith. It directly contradicts the Word. – Creflo Dollar
- ✚ The spirit of fear causes us to weaken our resolve and shrink back. The Spirit of God enables us to overcome whatever adversity or trouble presents itself. – Creflo Dollar
- ✚ Satan uses fear as a weapon to disrupt our faith. He wants us to question and doubt everything God says to us. If he can get us to the point of unbelief, he can move us away from trusting God. – Creflo Dollar
- ✚ Lack in any area isn't God's will, especially a lack of peace. Jesus came so that we might find peace in Him. – Creflo Dollar
- ✚ We can depend on God to always be there when we need Him. – Creflo Dollar
- ✚ God provides exactly what we need, when we need it. – John Barrett
- ✚ God sends what we need and goes above and beyond. Day after day His mercies and provision are new for our lives. Each morning that we wake up is an opportunity for God to show Himself strong in us and through us. – John Barrett

- ✚ Approach each day with an attitude of gratitude for what God may do. Never underestimate the power of one event, one opportunity, one meeting, one phone call. Take advantage of the moment by being prepared for what God may do. – John Barrett
- ✚ Our Father has invited us to go to Him and ask Him for our daily bread. He will not fail to provide it. – R.C. Sproul
- ✚ I remembered that Jesus taught us to pray, “Give us this day our daily bread” (Matthew 6:11). God will meet our needs today. His grace is available for today. We are not to be anxious about the future, or even tomorrow. - Vaneetha Rendall Risner
- ✚ Worry is interest paid on a debt we may never owe. – Justin Buzzard
- ✚ Trust God to supply what he loves to supply: today’s portion. – David Mathis
- ✚ God desires for His children to trust Him, to look to Him and trust Him to provide for them on a day by day, moment by moment basis. - David Platt
- ✚ We trust in you. You provide us daily what we need, all that we need. You are faithful. You are good. You are gracious. You are the best, most loving, most perfect Father, and we praise you for your faithful provision in our lives. – David Platt
- ✚ We don’t have to live in fear and self-protection, because we can be confident that God loves us perfectly, knows how to answer every fear, cares for our wellbeing, and will fight for us. – Jenn Schultz
- ✚ The most basic battle of our life is the battle to believe in the living God, and not to allow our heart to become an evil heart of unbelief. – John Piper
- ✚ If unbelief in the living God gets the upper hand in our life, then the result can be a hardening that makes us unwilling to repent and thus cuts us off from the grace of God. – John Piper
- ✚ Unbelief is the root of evil and the essence of evil. All our sinning grows out of unbelief in the living God and what he has said to us in Scripture. – John Piper
- ✚ Unbelief is the Root of Anxiety. As unbelief gets the upper hand in our hearts, one of the results is anxiety. Anxiety is one of the evil conditions of the heart that comes from unbelief. Much anxiety, Jesus says, comes from little faith. – John Piper
- ✚ The root of a sinful condition of the heart is unbelief in the living God. – John Piper
- ✚ The real problem behind anxiety is unbelief in the promises of God.– John Piper
- ✚ When anxiety strikes, this doesn’t mean that we are faithless. It means our faith is being attacked. – John Piper

- ✚ When anxiety strikes and blurs our vision of God's glory and the greatness of the future that he plans for us, this does not mean that we are faithless, or that we will not make it to heaven. It means our faith is being attacked. – John Piper
- ✚ Psalm 56:3 says, “Whenever I am afraid, I will trust in You.” Notice it doesn't say, “I never struggle with fear.” Fear strikes & the battle begins. The Bible doesn't assume that true believers will have no anxieties. Instead, the Bible tells us how to fight when they strike. – John Piper
- ✚ To the one who struggles daily with anxiety, the issue is how you deal with them. You deal with anxieties by battling unbelief. And you battle unbelief by meditating on God's word and asking for the help of his Spirit. – John Piper
- ✚ Believe the promises of Jesus, and anxiety will evaporate in the warmth of God's care. – John Piper
- ✚ In everything you do at home and at work, put God's purposes first, and he will provide all you need to live for his glory. Believe that promise, and financial anxiety will evaporate in the warmth of God's care. - John Piper
- ✚ I urge you in your warfare, take up the book of God, ask the Holy Spirit for help, lay the promises up in your heart, and battle on. – John Piper
- ✚ Know God's promises. Read the Word of God daily—every chance you get. Let it be the soundtrack of your life. You can't trust the promises unless you know them and make them the foundation of your life. - Troy E. Schmidt
- ✚ Test God's promises. Embrace those moments of trial by going out on a limb and trusting God in ways that seem idiotic, but actually demonstrate your faith in him. - Troy E. Schmidt
- ✚ Pray God's promises. In Matthew 6:9-13, Jesus offers a model prayer. He says to start our prayers with praise, acknowledging God for who he is, where he is, and what he can do. Then we must pray for his will to be done. - Troy E. Schmidt
- ✚ God promises that his will shall come to pass, but we must be open to his will. Prayer prepares our hearts to carry out his will. Then we will acknowledge and understand it. - Troy E. Schmidt
- ✚ Jesus also said we can pray for our daily bread—our sustenance to survive—as well as for forgiveness and protection. - Troy E. Schmidt
- ✚ Trust God's promises. What does that kind of trust look like? Trust is a heart decision, a willful surrender of all your heart. - Troy E. Schmidt
- ✚ The greatest threat to trusting God is our own understanding—how we see things or how we've experienced life before. Once “our” mind starts to process and determine our steps, we get distracted, taking exits and wandering down detours. - Troy E. Schmidt
- ✚ Trust is a step-by-step process of submission, following the straightest path to the destination God has determined for us. Trust God's promises to take you where you need to go. - Troy E. Schmidt

- ✚ Rest in God's promises. Resting in God's promises is the next step in trusting God's promises. The opposite of rest is worry. Worry does not add a single hour to our lives. In fact, it subtracts hours from our lives. - Troy E. Schmidt
- ✚ When information about God's promises enters our minds, we hear it and understand it. However, we must then apply the truths of those promises to our hearts. – Troy E. Schmidt
- ✚ We must keep at bay the notion of wanting to process our needs over and over in our minds to figure out our own solutions. - Troy E. Schmidt
- ✚ Once we trust, we can relax, take a breath, and truly say, "God's got this." It's a freeing admission of God's love and strength. - Troy E. Schmidt
- ✚ God's promises were meant to allow us to enjoy the best possible life we can have. - Troy E. Schmidt

- ✚ There are only two ways to go in life: His (God's) way, or our way. His way leads to life and peace. Our way leads off a cliff. The devil wants you to think that God's way is all wrong. The Lord wants you to know that His way is always right. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ Whatever you're going through right now, know that God's plans, purposes & promises for you will stand firm. He is in control & He knows what He is doing. No matter what hardships your face, trust that God can use them for good. – James Merritt
- ✚ Everything we receive from God comes from Christ as the Source and the Cross as the Means. – The Evangelist
- ✚ Pride is the opposite of humility. It is part of the world system, and it results in rebellion against God. Proud people think they are better than others and that they don't need God. – Dave Smith

- ✚ When we don't take risks, we miss out on seeing God work. We miss out on a testimony. We miss out on a blessing. If you think about it, it is riskier not to take risks. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ It's dangerous to disregard God's voice when He tells you to do something. Sometimes the risk that God tells us to do is protecting us from something in the future. Sometimes the risk is going to be beneficial to others. Always remember, God knows best. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ If God has told you to do something, then He is going to lift you up. When you get alone with the Lord and you start knowing His heart, you will begin to be more confident in Him. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ You will understand God's love better and once you understand His love, then fear begins to diminish. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ From personal experience I've seen God make a way when there was no way. God always makes a way! Don't worry about what you don't have. Don't worry about not being like everyone else. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Just like Moses, Gideon & other men in the Bible, we like to give reasons on why we can't do something. "I'm too weak, I'm too shy, I'm not eloquent, I'm too young, I'm poor." Always remember that God is the one who accomplishes His work thru us. We are to be dependent on Him. – Fritz Chery

- ✚ Who can stop God's work? God has all the resources in the world and He will provide you with what is needed. You can be confident in your God because you understand His great love for you. Also, for His great name's sake He will make a way. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Worrying and being afraid doesn't change a thing. It just stops you from getting what you desire. One of the most painful things in this world is living with regret. You don't want to say to yourself, "I wish I would have taken a chance." – Fritz Chery
- ✚ When you don't take risks, you are settling for nothing. You have an opportunity to change your entire future, but what you do next is critical. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Just because you are Christian does not mean you have to let people and life run all over you. It's time to take charge and take a risk! Imagine if Martin Luther King Jr. never took a risk. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ It's either you take the risk and at least try or go on with your daily life and do nothing about what you believe that matters. God has given us all different talents and we should all be investing our talents for His glory. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Faith means taking risks. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ When we read Hebrews 11 we notice that so many risks were taken by faith. When you are absolutely sure that God is leading you to do something, then keep your eyes on Him. Don't trust in your bow or your sword because it is the Lord who saves. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Sometimes God is going to tell you to do something that people might not understand. Sometimes we will be asked to come out of the norm. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Jesus led Peter to take a risk. Jesus wanted Peter to trust and have faith in Him. By faith Peter started walking on water towards the Lord and it was only until he got distracted that he started to sink. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ There will always be distractions, but we can have faith in our God to act on our behalf. There is a quote that says, "if God brings u to it He will bring u thru it." We always think that we have strong faith until a situation arises & we need to exercise that faith. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ There are going 2b times as a believer when u are going 2 have 2b vulnerable. God might lead u 2 open up & share something that is going 2b a blessing 2 others. Sometimes we should share our faults & struggles. God wants u 2 share testimonies, not keep them 2 yourself. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Share your ideas and your opinions. Don't be quiet all the time. Sometimes you have to take a risk and express yourself. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Love always results in action. Love has caused many people to be martyred for their faith. When you love God, you put it all on the line for Him because you know that He is worthy of it all. – Fritz Chery

- ✚ Sometimes love causes you to be put in uncomfortable situations. Sometimes love causes you to put your safety at risk. Love results in selflessness. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Whenever fear is hindering you from trusting in the Lord with something He wants you to do, then remember His past faithfulness. If God has done it before, He will do it again. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Think back on how faithful He's been to you. Ask God to allow you to see what He's done in your life. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ The Bible says to trust in the Lord, not yourself. If we carelessly do our own will, we can create a storm in our life that was never there. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Before any big decision we must seek the Lord diligently. We must get alone with Him and hear His voice. We must examine our heart and check to see, are we being led by ungodly motives. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Never try to force God to do your will! God involves us in His activity, not the other way around. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Everything in this life is a risk. You are given only two options. Take the risk and expect results or don't take a risk and expect nothing. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Stop procrastinating! God uses people who are willing to get out of their comfort zone. He uses people who are willing to take risks. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Whatever you are facing, know that the Lord is with you and He makes it abundantly clear that He will help you. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ When you are called to step out in faith, realize that your God is greater than any problem. Be still for a second and remember who is in control. – Fritz Chery
- ✚ Jesus came to fulfill the predictions of the prophets, who had long foretold that a Savior would one day appear. He came to fulfill the ceremonial law, by becoming the great sacrifice for sin, to which all the Old Testament offerings had ever pointed. – JC Ryle

- ✚ Sometimes desert experiences in our lives come right on the heels of the times of greatest victory and blessing and abundance. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ Don't be surprised when you find God really working in your life, you find a real breakthrough in your life, you have a great time of fruitful ministry—and then you turn around and you get sideswiped. There's a reason for it. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ During the easy times of life, do you find yourself desperately seeking after God? Or would you say that the times of greatest growth, and even the times of greatest intimacy with the Lord, have been in the midst of some of those desert experiences? - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ I look back on some of those desert experiences, and I say, “That is when I really got to know God. That's when I really grew.” - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ Sometimes we end up in the desert by God's design. In God's inscrutable, mysterious ways, some purpose He has in mind. It's not because we've sinned. It's not because we've done something wrong. It's not because He's mad at us, but God has a purpose. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ I want to share with you several reasons from the Scripture that God might lead us into the wilderness. The first purpose of God, I think, is to test us. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ God sends us sometimes into the desert to test us. In each of those desert experiences, God said, “I want to test you. I'm trying to teach you something, and I want to see if you've learned it.” - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ God tests us, Moses says in Deuteronomy, to reveal what's in our hearts, to show us what's in our hearts. We find out what we really love, what really matters to us, what our real character is. We find out what we're really trusting. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ God tests us to find if we will be obedient. Will we be obedient when we can't see the outcome, when we can't see what's ahead, when God's ways don't make sense to us, when God's ways don't seem to be working? - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ God wants to know, will you trust Him? Will you trust Him when you cannot see Him, when your emotions tell you He's not there, when your circumstances are painful, When it looks like your needs aren't being met? - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ God sends us into the desert to humble us. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss

- ✚ In the desert, where we don't have any crutches, anything to lean on, God strips us. He strips us of pride; He strips us of self-sufficiency. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ Our pride wants to keep us in a circumstance where we can manage everything, but God sends us into the desert, where we can't manage. We can't make it on our own. The worst comes out. We're humbled. He humbles us. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ It's in the desert that we learn what really matters. We learn what's really necessary. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ In the desert, you really do learn to treasure the life that is in Christ, because it's very real, and He is very powerful. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ God sends us into the desert to teach us. He sends us into the desert to strengthen our faith and to make us dependent on Him. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ You'll never know that Christ is all you need, really, until He's all you have. And when He is all that you have, you will find out that Christ really is all that you need. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ We tend to rely on things and people that we can see. God wants to teach us to depend on what we cannot see. That's faith: to rely on His character, His Word. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ So when you can't hear, when you can't see, when you don't know—when you can't see the outcome and you feel like you're in this blind, dark night of the soul, this desert experience, with no end in sight—what do you do? You walk by faith. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss
- ✚ When you have walked through the wilderness, through the desert, when you come out of the desert, you know what your posture will be? Leaning on your Beloved. Leaning on Jesus. Leaning on the everlasting arms. - Nancy Leigh DeMoss

- ✚ When You Believe in God But Still Worry All the Time
<https://www.faithgateway.com/believe-god-still-worry-time/#.YYlejmdMKUk>
- ✚ No matter what you call it, worry is still sin. In Philippians 4:6, Paul tells us not to be anxious about anything. Romans 14:23 says, "Everything that does not come from faith is sin." That's pretty clear to me. Worry is the opposite of faith; therefore, it's sin. – Craig Groeschel
- ✚ When we live by faith, we believe that God has everything under control. But if we start to worry, how we live says the opposite. – Craig Groeschel
- ✚ If we are worried about losing our jobs, we are essentially saying that our jobs are our providers. But isn't God our provider? – Craig Groeschel

- ✚ What if God has something else planned for us? And what if, as unpleasant as it may be to think about, the path to that “something else” is through some pain? Will we still trust in God to provide during that time? – Craig Groeschel
- ✚ Worry, in essence, is the sin of distrusting the promises and the power of God. It’s choosing to dwell on, to think about, the worst-case scenario. It’s faith in the bad things rather than faith in God. – Craig Groeschel
- ✚ 2 Tim 1:7 says, “God has not given us a spirit of fear & timidity, but of power, love, & self-discipline.” Translate “fear & timidity” as “anxiety, tension & worry.” Fear doesn’t come from God. It’s a tool the evil one uses to distract us from our true purpose here. – Craig Groeschel
- ✚ In Matthew 6:25, Jesus says, “Do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes?” Jesus is simply saying don’t worry about anything. – Craig Groeschel
- ✚ Worry is a control issue. People are often obsessed with trying to control their circumstances. And while some things in life are within our ability, many things aren’t. – Craig Groeschel
- ✚ Worry indicates we’re not willing to let God handle certain things — at least not in his way, and certainly not in His time. – Craig Groeschel

- ✚ To produce spiritual fruit, the Christian must also begin and continue to “Deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me [Christ]” (Luke 9:23) – Dave Smith
- ✚ Do you trust the Lord—really trust Him? Almost every Christian claims to trust Christ, but the truth is, only those who are truly denying themselves and taking up the cross daily are actually following Him as they should (Luke 9:23). – Frances Swaggart
- ✚ When Jesus spoke of denying oneself, He wasn’t speaking of the denial of all things comfortable or pleasurable. Rather, He was speaking of denying our own strength, effort, & ability to live this Christian life & depending totally & completely upon Him (Christ). – Frances Swaggart
- ✚ When Jesus spoke of taking up the cross daily, He wasn’t speaking of suffering, which is what most Christians believe, but rather trusting in the benefits that come from the cross... – Frances Swaggart
- ✚ ...As well, Jesus told us to do this even on a daily basis, which is, in effect, a daily renewal of faith... – Frances Swaggart
- ✚ ...By that we speak of a renewal of faith in the cross on a daily basis—believing that what Jesus did there has continued results, and in fact results that will never be discontinued, and results that can meet our every need. – Frances Swaggart

- ✚ Fear is kryptonite to the success of the calling God placed in our heart. If fear is left unchecked it will completely stall or destroy our calling... – Amos Johnson Jr

- ✚ ...Therefore, we need to stop the growth of fear in our hearts. We stop fear's growth by cutting off its food source, which is repetition of hearing negative words, speaking negative words and thinking negative thoughts. – Amos Johnson Jr
- ✚ Whoever watches the wind will not plant, whoever looks at the clouds will not reap. The farmer would never plant his seeds if he is always waiting for a 'good wind'...
 - Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ ...The farmer would never begin to harvest if he is always watching the clouds & he would have no harvest if he does not plant the seed. There is no perfect time to sow seed because our timing is not the same as God's timing. God's timing is perfect. - Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ When God is getting ready to take you into a new season, you may find that your situation at the time is not exactly ideal... - Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ ...What normally happens in the season of planting, sowing seed is that you will find yourself going through intense spiritual warfare because the enemy does not want you to succeed in what God wants to do in your life. - Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ The enemy doesn't want you to receive your blessings from God but keep going and sow that seed or seeds even if the conditions are not perfect. - Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ Do not watch the wind to sow, nor the clouds to reap. The truth of the matter is, your situation is not what determines God's timing. If you wait for the perfect condition, you will never get anything done. - Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ Do not focus on your circumstances but instead focus on God and on what He is doing in your life as he takes you from the season of sowing seed to a season of reaping a harvest, receiving your blessings. - Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ You must decide, as every Christian should, where you stand on the subject of truth. You must decide if you are going to fall sway to a culture that allows each & every person to do what is right in their own eyes... - Tony Evans
- ✚ ...or whether you are going to recognize that there is an objective standard by which truth has been established. - Tony Evans
- ✚ You and I are living in a worldwide web of lies. Everywhere we look and everywhere we go, we are bombarded with lies. - Tony Evans
- ✚ Perfect truth comes only out of a perfect Source. And there is only one perfect Source in the universe: God. Without God, there is no truth, for God is truth. – Tony Evans
- ✚ When it comes to our lives and decisions, God wants us to look to Him as the source of what is true. – Tony Evans
- ✚ When what we think or feel differs from what God says, it is what we think or feel that needs to adjust, not God. – Tony Evans

- ✚ The Lord, as your Shepherd, promises to give you rest. – James Merritt
- ✚ As human beings, we can only see what's going on from our limited perspective. But God sees the bigger picture! – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ In the Christian life, it's so important to focus on the facts and not on your feelings. Your feelings are unreliable and will swing up and down depending on your circumstances. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ The facts of God's character and promises are unchanging. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ Choose to believe His unchanging word and not your fickle feelings. Meditate on why He is, what He has done and what He tells us in the Scripture. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ Remember God is always good and trustworthy. Be sure to view your circumstances through the lens of God's love and not the other way around! – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ Look back to a hill called Calvary and see the Savior hanging on a cross. This is the ultimate demonstration of God's love for you! – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ Fix your gaze on the hope of heaven. Don't lose sight of God's promise that a day is coming when "there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain" (Revelation 21:4). – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ Our nation is shaking. Yet, at the same time the Lord is preparing us for a great outpouring of His Spirit with signs, wonders, and miracles. – Aquilla Nash
- ✚ Jesus is coming for a glorious Church. A people full of power and glory. Let us not shrink back in fear, but press forward. – Aquilla Nash
- ✚ If you have trusted Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior and have received salvation by believing that He died on the cross and rose again in payment for your sin, you have been born into God's family. – CBN
- ✚ God does not look at the outward. He doesn't care how you look, how old you are, how tall you are, the fanciness of your wardrobe, the thickness of your wallet, or the outward displays of pious religiosity. Rather, God looks at the heart. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ Our society is rampant with deceptions because this world system is ruled by Satan, who's a liar and the father of all lies. – Charles Stanley
- ✚ When doubts and anxieties come, set your mind on God's promises. They'll anchor your soul through difficulties, comfort you in sorrows, and give you courage to face the challenges of life. – Charles Stanley
- ✚ When you don't know truth, you'll be tossed around like the waves of the sea. – Charles Stanley
- ✚ We need to keep our eyes on the eternal prize! A divine destination awaits us! This world is not our home. Everything here on earth is temporary and will soon pass away. – Rabbi Schneider

- ✚ This is the time that we need to pray harder, move forward, intercede like never before. We need to lean on God. His Word is our blueprint. It's the key to our survival. Before we look to anyone else, we need to look to Him. He is the way, the truth & the life. – Brother Dave
- ✚ The truth that we must never forget in times like these is that God is still on the throne, and even though our earthly economy may be shaken, God's economy is as strong as ever. – Bob Lotich
- ✚ God is still our source, so even if our salary isn't keeping pace with inflation, God is the one who is responsible for taking care of our needs, and He will always do a better job than you and I ever could. – Bob Lotich
- ✚ Also, we are at our best when we remember that Philippians 4:19 has always been and will always be true: "My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." - Bob Lotich
- ✚ Fear is a paralyzer. A destroyer. A cheater. It deprives us from the very best that God has to give us. - Dr. Stanley
- ✚ Fear stops us in our tracks, but faith takes action

- ✚ God is always faithful. That is why we should always be trusting Him as our supply! It doesn't matter if there is a financial crisis, if you get laid off, or your 401k loses 37% overnight – God will still supply your needs. Just like He promised. - Bob Lotich
- ✚ What do you trust in to get to Heaven? Your good works? Do you trust in the fact that you're a good person? Do you trust in the fact that you've joined a church & have been baptized? My friends, according to the Bible, those things don't save us. Only Jesus saves. - Tom Jeffcott
- ✚ The only way to be saved is to believe in Who Christ is and what He alone has done for you, and accept His gift of salvation that He freely offers. - Tom Jeffcott
- ✚ The choice is up to you. You are indeed a sinner and deserving of punishment, but God loves you. He desires to have a close and personal relationship with you. And He has made it possible for that to take place. He leaves the decision up to you. - Tom Jeffcott
- ✚ If we know God's Word is true and act on it, it becomes a reality in our lives. – Kenneth E. Hagin

- ✚ God's delays are not God's denials. God's not watching your stopwatch. God will do everything on His time. And it will be a perfect time. – John Hagee
- ✚ Have you been reduced to nothing? Expect a miracle. When you're down to nothing, God is up to something. – John Hagee
- ✚ It is the crushed olive that produces the pure virgin olive oil. It is the crushed pedal of the rose that produces the rarest perfume. It is the crushed heart that cries out to God that wins total victory over the world, the flesh, and the devil. – John Hagee
- ✚ John the Baptist said, "He must increase, and I must decrease." John was saying, as soon as I empty myself of my will, my ego, my pride, my vanity, God can use me for His glory. As long as I am full of me, God sees me as something corrupt and unusable. – John Hagee
- ✚ Little is much when God is in it. – John Hagee
- ✚ My brother, my sister, stop carrying your burdens. Our God is faithful. Listen to the words of this great song and go free. Worry paralyzes. Faith in Jesus is strength and freedom.

- ✚ Why would I worry when giants come calling my name? My God is so much bigger than troubles I face. Why would I hunger for power or riches or fame? Oh, 'cause my God is so much better than all of these things. – Chris McClarney
- ✚ So I won't be shaken, I won't be moved. My God is faithful. His promise is true. So I'll speak to the mountains "Oh, it's time to move 'cause my God is bigger, better, stronger, greater than you". – Chris McClarney
- ✚ My enemies scatter 'cause they know the battle is done. My God is stronger, the victory's already won. Yeah, He died for my ransom and rose up on the third day. Oh, 'cause my God is greater than death, hell, and the grave. – Chris McClarney
- ✚ There's no mountain too high, no valley too low. There's no fear that I have He doesn't already know. There's no problem too big, there's no weapon too strong. There is nothing for God that's impossible. – Chris McClarney
- ✚ Let faith arise in spite of what I see. Lord, I believe but help my unbelief. I choose to trust You no matter what I feel. – Chris McClarney
- ✚ Let faith arise for my Champion's not dead. He is alive. Oh, and He already knows my every need. Surely He will come and rescue me. God of miracles come. We need Your supernatural love to break through. Nothing's impossible. You're the God of miracles. – Chris McClarney

- ✚ This world is shaking but You cannot be shaken. My heart is breaking but I'm not broken yet. Your love is fearless. Help me to be courageous too. Oh, there is nothing impossible. – Chris McClarney
- ✚ Lord Jesus, strengthen my faith to know, without a doubt, that You are bigger and stronger than anything that might come my way. Assure me that nothing is more powerful than You. – Cindi McMenamini
- ✚ "LESSONS LEARNED - SOMETIMES GOD LEADS YOU INTO THE FIRE" - by Laurie Coombs <https://lauriecoombs.org/2013/09/26/lessons-learned-sometimes-god-leads-you-into-the-fire/>
- ✚ Praising God in the middle of your fearful moments ushers in an immediate sense of His presence. That's because God inhabits the praises of His people. When we begin to praise God, it changes our perspective from fear or panic to a mindset of worship & adoring trust. – Cindi McMenamini
- ✚ There are some dividends you're going to reap if you trust GOD, particularly if you're in a tough time, GOD says trust Him. If you're in a painful time, trust Him. If you're in a scary time, trust Him. If you're in a time of uncertainty, trust Him. - Sharon Manlangit, CPA
- ✚ GOD is consistent, so you can trust Him. - Sharon Manlangit, CPA
- ✚ I have a swivel chair that I sit on every day. If I sat on it & it gave way, I wouldn't trust it. But because every time I've ever sat on it, it held me up, I didn't check the legs before I sat down, I trust it. Not a conscious effort. It's a result of consistency. - Sharon Manlangit
- ✚ Your GOD is consistent. Great is Thy faithfulness! - Sharon Manlangit, CPA
- ✚ TRUST is not proven in good times. TRUST is proven in bad times. TRUST is not proven when you get what you want. TRUST is proven when you lose what you have. - Sharon Manlangit, CPA
- ✚ Can you trust GOD in sorrow? Can you trust Him in grief? YOU CAN. Because your GOD is consistent. And "FAITHFUL" is one of His names. - Sharon Manlangit, CPA
- ✚ Worry is an insult to our loving Heavenly Father who has promised to supply all of our needs. - Dr. Paul Chappell
- ✚ God makes you not only by the doors that open, but also by the doors that close. – Based on TD Jakes Teaching
- ✚ Is God Stretching You? <https://auntyfaith.com/2021/05/08/is-god-stretching-you/>
- ✚ If someone is disobeying God's Word, His promises cannot come to them in full. If God has told them to do something and they're refusing to do it, He cannot bless and honor them. – Kenneth Hagin

- ✦ Obeying God's Word will give you peace on the inside in the midst of the storm. When you obey God to the fullest, He will take care of you. – Kenneth Hagin
- ✦ Obeying God will let you lie down and sleep at night without any worry. When I've fully submitted to Him, why should I fret? Why should I worry? Why should I lose sleep? When I know I've obeyed, then I know God has it all under control for me! – Kenneth Hagin
- ✦ On God's path, there is no confusion. The road signs in His Word are straightforward. – Kenneth Hagin
- ✦ The less we know Him, the less we will reflect His character. On the other hand, the more we know God and imitate Him, the more we reveal His character in our lives. – Doug Jones
- ✦ Character transformation begins in the soil of a teachable spirit that is allowed to be mentored by the Word of God. – Doug Jones
- ✦ I'm thankful my parents taught me to seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and to give my tithes and offerings to the Lord. They knew that following biblical principles would cause me to prosper in life. – Lynette Hagin
- ✦ Although many people seek to avoid work, or work as little as possible, the Bible presents a positive view of work. It views work in itself as a good thing and as pleasing to God. – Wayne Grudem
- ✦ Long ago, we were told by the Apostle Paul that the day would come when mankind would turn away their eyes from the truth and believe a lie. – Billy Graham
- ✦ The fact that Jesus rose from the dead can transform our fear to hope. – Skip Heitzig
- ✦ It is good to forgive. It is good for you physically. It is necessary for you spiritually. If you are indeed a child of God, it is not optional. You must forgive. – Greg Laurie
- ✦ May He grant you, fellow soldier in Christ, a glimpse into His sovereign plan — an eternal perspective on what lies ahead. And above all, may He empower you to trust and obey Him. – Michael Youssef
- ✦ We must continue praying fervently and serving urgently — regardless of the lateness of the hour or the challenges at hand. Even when it doesn't seem like it, God is there. He is at work. He is in control. And He is good. – Michael Youssef
- ✦ God is at work in your situation, even when you can't see Him. - Jeff Schreve
- ✦ Don't let other people's drama become your problem! Instead, learn to avoid drama, set boundaries, and take care of your own needs. – Sharon Martin
- ✦ Being around other people's dramatic behavior is mentally exhausting and anxiety-provoking. – Sharon Martin

- ✚ Dramatic behavior is attention-seeking behavior and when we react and get drawn into it, we're rewarding this behavior and sending the message that it's an effective way to get our attention. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ Drama tends to build on itself, pulling people in and becoming contagious. It's hard work to protect yourself from the natural instinct to react. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ Accept that you can't change drama behavior of others. Remembering that you can't make people behave differently is always the 1st line of defense. When you interact with people with this in mind, you're less likely to give unwanted advice, or engage in arguments. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ Stay calm. The key to dealing with drama-makers is to stay calm and not feed into it. They are looking for you to react — and react in a big way. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ Physically remove yourself from the drama. Sometimes you need to put some space between you and the drama. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ Don't make it about you. The drama from others isn't about you – no matter what anyone says. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ Maintain clear boundaries. Your dramatic relative or friend probably lacks boundaries, which means you're going to need super clear and consistent boundaries yourself. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ Hesitation delays growth, immediate obedience promotes growth. – Kerry Skinner
- ✚ Spiritually you are built to obey—not disobey. When you walk in the Spirit, everything within you desires to follow your Lord. – Kerry Skinner
- ✚ When you hesitate to obey, you miss out on the great adventures of a growing relationship with God. Delayed obedience delays our spiritual growth and weakens the foundation that God wants to build in your life for future obedience and growth. – Kerry Skinner
- ✚ Christ called out followers in His day and He is still looking for immediate obedience from followers in our day. Followers of Christ are recognized by their practice of immediate obedience. – Kerry Skinner
- ✚ When walking in the Spirit, you do not question when you should follow the Lord and when you should not. Spirit-controlled living focuses on obeying Christ—moment-by-moment. – Kerry Skinner
- ✚ Hesitation to obey Christ is not obedience at all. Waiting until one feels ready to obey the Lord does not demonstrate a ready to follow faith. – Kerry Skinner
- ✚ There is a difference between immediately responding to God's invitation, doing whatever He asks, and contemplating, considering, and hesitating. – Kerry Skinner
- ✚ Immediate obedience requires one to follow what God commands in His Word. – Kerry Skinner

- ✚ As long as you have trouble doing the things you know you ought to do, you will not be walking in the Spirit. Resistance to Christ's commands will weaken your spirit. – Kerry Skinner
- ✚ Obedience requires the daily practice of continuing in God's Word, praying, sharing your faith, and spending time with other believers. – Kerry Skinner
- ✚ Jesus said, "If you love Me, keep My commandments. And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever..." (John 14:15-16).
- ✚ As you obey Christ, the Holy Spirit will guide you into all truth—not some of the truth. – Kerry Skinner
- ✚ Oswald Chambers said, "There are some questions God cannot answer until you've been brought by obedience to be able to stand the answer."
- ✚ God will not break through and overpower your will to force you to obey. If you do not obey the last thing He told you to do, you will not make any progress in your Christian growth. – Kerry Skinner
- ✚ Obey Him today and experience His blessings that can only be received through an obedient heart! – Kerry Skinner
- ✚ Christ asks us to be obedient in our lives because He not only knows the future and knows what will hurt us, but he has a huge purpose for our lives. – Alisha Headley
- ✚ Without our obedience, He can't accomplish all He wants to do with us. He came so that we can "have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10), and this requires listening to Him and obeying Him at His word. – Alisha Headley
- ✚ And it's every act of obedience, not just the large acts, but also the everyday things, He may ask of us in our everyday, mundane life. For anything other than 100% obedience is still disobedience. – Alisha Headley
- ✚ Hesitated obedience is still disobedience. – Alisa Headley
- ✚ We often wonder why God isn't doing anything in our lives, but could we be blocking His next move due to our hesitated obedience? – Alisha Headley
- ✚ If you are not fully obedient to God, then you are most likely conflicted with what and who you are obedient to. – Alisha Headley
- ✚ If God doesn't have your true allegiance, something else does. Other people and things are more important and taking the place of God's throne on your heart. – Alisha Headley
- ✚ The Lord wants our full devotion to be His true disciples here on earth which requires our full obedience. – Alisha Headley

- ✚ Great moves of God are usually preceded by simple acts of obedience. While we hesitate in obeying him, it could be preventing God's purpose from happening in our lives.– Alisha Headley
- ✚ You can't truly walk into your calling or what's next in your calling if you are not obedient in the small things first. It starts now, right where you are following Him daily in your walk. – Alisha Headley
- ✚ When Jesus taught His disciples to pray, He said to pray saying, "give us this day our daily bread..." (Mathew 6:11), meaning He will tell us what to do today, and we follow in His steps today to fulfill His plan's for tomorrow. – Alisha Headley
- ✚ God will always lead us and give us direction, but He doesn't always provide every detail. He will just tell us what to do next, and we are to simply obey without hesitation in whatever He asks. – Alisha Headley
- ✚ It's in small steps of obedience we can walk in purpose with God allowing Him to move in our lives. – Alisha Headley
- ✚ Let's take the step, and then the next, and then the next after that, and rid ourselves of all our wavering knowing that He has the bigger picture in mind. Let's not be hesitant, even if we don't have all the details. – Alisha Headley
- ✚ What if a boat full of blessings and more direction are just waiting to overflow in our lives, but our hesitated obedience is stopping it? God has no room to honor and bless us because we are not responding to His request through our acts of obedience. – Alisha Headley
- ✚ Let's ask for a heart like Simon's and respond to our Lord, saying, "Okay, Lord. I might not understand, and it might not make any sense, but at your Word, I will do as you ask." – Alisha Headley
- ✚ Remember, even if it doesn't make sense to us, it makes sense to our God. After all, He is the author of this life, and "His thoughts are higher than our thoughts, and His ways are higher than ours." (Isaiah 55:8-9) – Alisha Headley
- ✚ Let's allow God to take us to our next step as we choose to no longer disobey Him with delays or hesitated obedience. Let's instead make the choice to walk in wholehearted allegiance to God, one simple step of obedience at a time. – Alisha Headley
- ✚ Trust Him without hesitation. It's worth it. – Robin Luftig
- ✚ The most important decision you will ever make in this life is the decision to accept (or not accept, which is actually to reject) Christ as your personal Savior. – Ken Turner
- ✚ A strong relationship with God is one that gives us the courage to do what we would never do on our own. – Mike Query
- ✚ The great thing about God is that he gives us confidence in any situation by reminding us that he's in control. – Mike Query

- ✚ No matter how bad things are, we have a God who will never leave us nor forsake us. He'll help us through any difficult time, no matter how serious it is. - Brother Dave Lombardi
- ✚ Faith unlocks the door. – Brother Dave Lombardi
- ✚ God specializes in doing things that are impossible. – Brother Dave Lombardi
- ✚ Waiting on the Lord can be such a challenge at times, but His timing is so important. – Brother Dave Lombardi
- ✚ God knows our future. He knows everything about us. We need to trust Him with our whole being. – Brother Dave Lombardi
- ✚ God will bring to pass our needs and desires of our heart. He's a good God. – Brother Dave Lombardi
- ✚ Time is a gift from God, which means we aren't owners but stewards who will one day give an account for how we used what was entrusted to us. – Charles Stanley
- ✚ Fear is something that does not come from God. It says in 2 Timothy 1:7 that God did not bring the spirit of fear- but of power, love, and a sound mind. – Kristin Bruce
- ✚ God wants us to have love and a peace that surpasses all understanding; God doesn't want us to be afraid, worrisome, or anxious about anything. – Kristin Bruce
- ✚ Fear is meant to deter you from your purpose. It's to keep us from receiving all of God's promises and all of God's blessings over our lives. – Kristin Bruce
- ✚ Satan comes in and he plants fear in your mind, he plants these thoughts of worry and doubts to keep us paralyzed, to keep us from getting the things that God wants us to have, to keep us from reaching our destiny. – Kristin Bruce
- ✚ Satan knows that fears are very paralyzing. – Kristin Bruce
- ✚ Fear is paralyzing. It's an emotion and it doesn't come from God. – Kristin Bruce
- ✚ The Bible says in Proverbs 18:21 that death and life are in the power of the tongue. Fight your fears with audible words. Say those words out loud! – Kristin Bruce
- ✚ Speaking audibly to our negative thoughts is one of the most effective ways to overcome fear. – Kristin Bruce
- ✚ Overcome fear through prayer and asking God to help you. Prayer is so powerful and if you believe in the Lord, He will help you. He can help renew your mind. – Kristin Bruce
- ✚ We can always lean on God and He can help eliminate our fears. Remember that there is power in prayer. – Kristin Bruce

- ✚ Stop worrying about what other people think of you. If you are letting someone else's thoughts affect your feelings; you're essentially letting other's opinions affect your actions and your results. – Kristin Bruce

- ✚ KEEP CLIMBING and NEVER LET GO OF THE ROPE. For GOD not only carries your weight, but He pushes you higher and higher . . . And He's got a grip on you. – Sharon Manlangit, CPA
- ✚ Put your best face forward when people are mocking you. Stand up straight & try not to reveal how much their comments are hurting you. They are trying to get a response out of you and, if you respond confidently, your bullies will not get the reaction they desire. – Katie Styzek
- ✚ Usually when people tell others to calm down when the other person is not upset, it is just a personal projection of their own feelings unto the other person. – Quora
- ✚ There is a reason someone is telling you to calm down. This doesn't necessarily mean you are not calm. Sometimes people say, "calm down" because they themselves are not calm. – Roman Esco
- ✚ To not believe God is to ally with Satan, whom Jesus said is "a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth. . . . For he is a liar and the father of lies" (John 8:44) – Jon Bloom
- ✚ When we are anxious, depressed, or irritable, it's likely because we're believing a lie about ourselves or God. – Jon Bloom
- ✚ Toxic individuals are almost always poor listeners. It is a part of what makes them toxic. – Dena
- ✚ Understand the difference between listening & hearing. Hearing is the simple act of perceiving sounds with your ears. Listening, however, is more complex. It involves actively hearing & paying attention to what the other person is saying to you. – Dena
- ✚ Listening involves quieting your own mind, while you truly listen to what the other person says. Your mind is quiet. You are reserving judgment. You are not waiting for your opportunity to cut the other person off and break into the conversation with your own thoughts. – Dena
- ✚ When someone is not listening to you, your body's natural response is to get emotional. The key to deal with this is that you must act non-emotionally. Do not allow the other person to bully or pressure you into speeding up your speech, stuttering, or saying something that you regret. – Dena
- ✚ When dealing with toxic people always rely on logic (your brain) rather than emotion (your heart). This is especially true when it comes to dealing with poor listeners. When you get emotional, they get the upper hand. You can take back control by remaining calm & logical. – Dena

- ✚ Unfortunately, toxic people are very adept at hiding their toxic traits and kind people are very good at overlooking them. Therefore, you may find yourself deeply enmeshed in a toxic relationship, friendship, or work situation before you even realize what is going on. – Dena
- ✚ Don't worry about anything. Pray about everything. Tell God what you need. Thank Him for all He's done. – Jennifer Maggio
- ✚ Begin to praise the past provision. Thank Him for His faithfulness, His sustain power, His grace, and His death on the cross. Fill your spirit with that of thanksgiving and praise. – Jennifer Maggio
- ✚ Despite the problems you face, He is good and faithful. Despite the heartache you fill, He is still the healer, the peace-giver, and the sustainer of all things. Despite your weakness and feelings of being unable to move on, He is strength. Keep thanking Him. – Jennifer Maggio
- ✚ Detail the nuances of your life before your Father. Tell Him about the challenges you face. Tell Him about the fears that keep resurfacing. He cares about the things that concern you. Bring them before Him. Pray about everything and then give it to Him in trust that He'll handle it. – Jennifer Maggio
- ✚ Stop talking about your challenges to others. Stop obsessing over it. Stop letting it consume your days, thought life, and peace. Give it to Him and then keep giving it to Him. – Jennifer Maggio
- ✚ It may take a thousand times of giving it to Him to condition yourself to not keep taking it back. We can't handle it. We aren't big enough, smart enough, or powerful enough. But oh, how our Heavenly Father is! – Jennifer Maggio
- ✚ Be specific. Father, I need money for rent this month. I've been working faithfully, and the medical bills have mounted. Help me to see Your hand in this. Move a mountain. – Jennifer Maggio
- ✚ Tell Him & then have the faith to see Him do it. Be consistent, persistent & insistent. You have access to the very throne of God. U are the head & not the tail. U are a city on a hill. Your Father owns the cattle on a 1000 hills. Is anything too hard for Him?
 - Jennifer Maggio
- ✚ Keep talking. Keep asking. Keep seeking. Keep praying. – Jennifer Maggio
- ✚ The Lord wants to lead us; He wants to guide us. – Jimmy Swaggart
- ✚ Jesus is concerned over every part of our lives. The main reason we worry is because we are looking at self instead of at Christ and the cross. – Gabriel Swaggart
- ✚ As Christians, it was never meant for us to carry our burdens on our shoulders. We are told by the Holy Spirit that when life begins to get us down, we must cast all our cares upon Him. – Gabriel Swaggart
- ✚ When we worry about the issues of life, we are in a sense telling God that He is not big enough, and we somehow will have to fix these problems ourselves. – Gabriel Swaggart

- ✚ Culture may change, but God never changes. – Franklin Graham
- ✚ Almighty God never changes. The times, they may be changing, but thank God, He never does. – Franklin Graham
- ✚ This is why Jesus had to go to the cross. There was no other way to redeem man. He had to do for us what we could not do for us. Without Him, there was no salvation. - Brother Dave Lombardi
- ✚ Faith unlocks the door. God specializes in doing things that are impossible. - Brother Dave Lombardi

- ✚ It is in the desert that the Lord taught the Israelites valuable lessons so they would know how to receive His protection and provision. – messianicbible
- ✚ It is in the desert, where God wants to teach us valuable lessons too, so that we can possess all that God has for us. Too often, however, we focus on getting out as fast as possible: "Lord, deliver me from this terrible place or situation that I'm in," we pray. -messianicbible
- ✚ We need to embrace what God has for us in times of trial. We need to say to Him, "Grow me, train me, build me so I can stand strong for you!" – messsianicbible
- ✚ As we listen and learn from our Father in Heaven how to move forward, we are to take note of how He and He alone sustains us with supernatural power to endure these times of growth, as He did with Moses and the Israelites. – messianicbible
- ✚ In the desert, where every source of security and stability disappears, it becomes evident that we need the Lord. – Fabio Rossi

- ✚ When u walk in the desert & feel on the verge of collapse or death, u may be tempted 2doubt grumble against God, forgetting the wonders he has done in the past. But God calls us 2resist grumbling & despair so we can focus our eyes on the person 2whom the manna points: Jesus Christ. – Fabio Rossi
- ✚ Mere knowledge about God’s ways is not sufficient. The Christian life is about knowing him in a personal & relational way. The wilderness is an opportunity to deepen our relationship & communion with Christ, for he is God’s true & greatest provision for his children. – Fabio Rossi
- ✚ It is in the desert that I can authentically put my dependence on God. Not because my emotions tell me to but because, despite my feelings, I know God is the only one who holds my ultimate hope. – Valerie Hooks
- ✚ In the desert, I have two choices. I can let my emotions carry me away into bitterness and rebellion, or I can pour my heart out to my God knowing he is big enough to hear my cries and my anger and walk towards him in faith. – Valerie Hooks
- ✚ Our God is the One who carries us in the desert. He is faithful and holds our future securely because He gives us a certain path in Christ. – Valerie Hooks
- ✚ Maybe you feel like the blessing is too long in coming, maybe you feel like giving up. Be assured again today that God is faithful and he will use all things to strengthen our faith and bring goodness to his people. Stay strong, keep pressing through. - Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ Even if the way He’s leading doesn’t seem to make much sense and His timing seems off, or the wait feels long, and wandering in desert places is the last thing we want to do, we can trust Him. Always. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ He knows our way. He sees the big picture. He has good in store. And though it may not have been what we would have chosen, or how we would accomplish things, we can thank Him for His Sovereignty, His care over us, and His powerful leadership. - Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ God never left his people alone in their journey. His presence was always there, a reminder to them that they hadn’t been left on their own in the wilderness. - Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ As a pillar of cloud in the day and fire by night, He guided them, giving them shade from the fierceness of the desert sun, and a light in the darkest of nights. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ God will not leave us to fend for ourselves, struggling to find our way. He will lead us. He promises to be faithful. We have his Word, and the Holy Spirit to give guidance to our days. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ He is with us, he gives wisdom, he provides direction, so we never have to fear being left on our own to figure things out. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ He goes ahead of us, he walks with us, and he guards our way against behind. His Word gives truth and life, it shows us the way to walk in this world. – Debbie McDaniel

- ✚ Still today, God will send his angels to fight for us and guard us. He Himself will fight for us and guard us. That's how much He loves us and desires to set His protection over us. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ He will hem us in from all sides and keep us under His care. It doesn't mean we won't ever face the battle, but we can know that He is sure with us right in the midst of it all.
 - Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ He reminds us from the very start of this desert journey, "The Lord will fight for you, you need only to be still." Exodus 14:14 – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ We're never left to wrestle through on our own in hard places. He doesn't send us out to fight the enemy in our own strength. He just tells us to be still, to stand strong, and to know he's fighting on our behalf. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ God provides in miraculous ways. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ Sometimes we miss the miracles of his provision, out of busyness or stress. We try to get things going too fast all on our own, or other times we might start to forget what matters most. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ But even for those days, there's His grace. He waits for us. His provision and blessing, they never run dry. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ Every day, his miracles lie right before our eyes. We just have to choose to look for them and stay close in his presence. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ God, in His mercy, forgives and sets free. He redeems us from the pit that far too many of us have wandered into and been stuck in. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ He lifts us out and places our feet on solid ground. He gives us fresh purpose and hope. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ We may feel forgotten and left on our own, but God is always with us. - Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ God's presence is powerful and strong. It is never dependent on how good we are, he is faithful even in our hardest struggles. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ Only in him can true rest and peace be found. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ The hardest struggles we face have the greatest potential to teach us patience and endurance like nothing else can. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ The years of our own "desert wanderings" may prove to be our most power-packed, strengthening, faith-building time of life, but we may not fully recognize it until after we've passed through. – Debbie McDaniel

- ✚ And sometimes we just need that reminder from the whispers of God down deep in our soul, “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest...” – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ In whatever you’re facing, be assured, God is with you, he’s providing for your needs, he has a plan, and nothing is too difficult for him. – Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ The God of miracles fights for you today, and he will never let you go. - Debbie McDaniel
- ✚ When we turn our faces to Christ in the midst of pain and impossibility, Christlike character is formed within us. – Candice Simmons
- ✚ Many are facing right now a wilderness or desert journey. The question most people have when they’re led into a desert experience is why? But take heart; God will use our experiences here to cause this desert season to blossom like a rose. - Candice Simmons
- ✚ For in the desert the Father speaks and awakens our hearts to hear. In fact, the word for “desert” in Hebrew means “the place of speaking.” – Candice Simmons
- ✚ The same God that can handle the Red Sea can handle deserts and drought. He can take the bitter waters of Marah and make them sweet. – Candice Simmons
- ✚ And now we have run into his heart to hide ourselves in his faithfulness. This is where we find his strength and comfort. – Candice Simmons
- ✚ He empowers us to seize what has already been established ahead of time—an unshakable hope! We have this certain hope like a strong, unbreakable anchor holding our souls to God himself. – Candice Simmons
- ✚ God is asking for you to believe that he’s your healer and your redeemer, and that he’s awakening your heart during this difficult season to trust his love for you. May your heart be awakened! – Candice Simmons
- ✚ Stand firm in God until He becomes your confidence. Set your eyes upon Him, & don’t be worried about your future & your calling, for He is the God who begins & completes, the Alpha & the Omega. – Candice Simmons
- ✚ Lean into God’s Word and find all that you need. The rest He brings will be sweet to your soul. – Candice Simmons
- ✚ Let God arrange your priorities and remove your distractions. Your true life is discovered when you lean into God. – Candice Simmons

- ✚ Surrender to God this day & do not hinder the Spirit's work to make you into the image of His Son. – Candice Simmons
- ✚ If you find yourself in some dry & barren land, cut off from life's milk & honey, do not waste this season. If you are in Christ, God has not brought you into this desert to starve you. He has brought you here to teach you that man does not live by bread alone. – Scott Hubbard
- ✚ Your life, your hope, and your joy are not hidden away in some elusive land of plenty, but in the Christ who died and rose again to save you for himself — the one who is your life, your pleasure, your milk and honey, your all. – Scott Hubbard
- ✚ God leads His children TO the wilderness and IN the wilderness. God reveals Himself in the desert. The wilderness is a place of preparation, not permanence. – Lisa Appelo
- ✚ God intentionally leads his children into the wilderness. He didn't stop paying attention or let go of us. God led the Israelites into the wilderness. He led Elijah and David and Jacob into the wilderness. God also led Jesus into the wilderness. – Lisa Appelo
- ✚ And where God leads, He also provides. When God led Israel into the desert, he gave them fresh manna every morning. God fed Elijah meat & bread thru ravens & provided safety & men for David. After Jesus fasted 40 days in the wilderness, God sent angels to care for him. – Lisa Appelo
- ✚ It was in the wilderness that God revealed himself to Hagar & to the Hebrews as the Bread of Heaven. The Living Water. The Holy One. Law Giver. The Rock. And it was in the wilderness that God took Moses to the top of the mountain where he displayed his glory. – Lisa Appelo
- ✚ Tho we're tempted to kick against the wilderness places, we can trust that God has led us there & will provide for us there. He will reveal himself in ways we'd never know otherwise & will use the wilderness to test us & prepare us for the end he already has in mind. – Lisa Appelo
- ✚ Sometimes GOD will let us be uncomfortable now, so He can bless us later on. He'll close a door - - we don't like it, we don't understand it -- but later on, He'll open up a bigger door, He'll take us to a new level of our destiny. - Sharon Manlangit, CPA
- ✚ There are times GOD will stir things up: A friend will do you wrong, You lose a loved-one, Business goes down . . . GOD uses loss, betrayal, persecution to force us to change. God's pushing you into your purpose. – Sharon Manlangit, CPA
- ✚ Every closed door is not a bad thing. Every person that walks away is not a mistake. GOD knows we wouldn't go without a push. We may not like it, but if GOD had not closed those doors, we would be satisfied to stay where we were. – Sharon Manlangit, CPA
- ✚ GOD loves you too much to let you miss your destiny. You have too much potential, too much talent, too much in you to get stuck where you are. GOD will put us in these situations that force us to stretch that help us to grow. – Sharon Manlangit, CPA

- ✚ Every difficulty you've been thru -- every bad break, every person that did you wrong -- that was not meant to stop u, it was meant to push u, to mature u, to make u stronger. You wouldn't be prepared for the new levels if u had not gone thru those things. – Sharon Manlangit, CPA
- ✚ The next time you face a difficulty, things you don't understand, have this NEW PERSPECTIVE: "This is not meant to stop me but to promote me. I may be uncomfortable, I may not like it, but I know GOD is using it to push me to a new level, into my purpose." – Sharon Manlangit, CPA
- ✚ The problem of worrying about what others think of you...
When we waste the gift of time worrying about what others think, we are distracted from our God given purpose. The enemy can't steal the light of Christ in us, but he can tempt us to hide it. - Sunshyne Gray
- ✚ Keep in mind, working for the approval of people is also an energy/time drain. - Sunshyne Gray
- ✚ It's time to stop worrying about what others think of you. Fear of what others think will drain you of joy and peace. Stop striving for the approval of people. - Sunshyne Gray
- ✚ Begin paying attention to the thoughts driving fear of what others think. Battle & challenge those thoughts rather than trying to decrease fear thru striving & working for the approval of people. God doesn't want you working that shift anymore. - Sunshyne Gray
- ✚ God has more for you – restored peace and joy as you live less for man and more for him. - Sunshyne Gray
- ✚ When you find yourself sinking in the quicksand, there is little else you can do but cry to the Lord. Sometimes He allows the "quicksand" experiences to turn you to Him. Wait for God... — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ ...Acknowledge that God is in control. Give Him the pieces of your broken heart and watch Him work for you. You can depend on His faithfulness. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ When you feel like quitting or running away, remember that you can't run away from your troubles & you can't run away from yourself. The solution is not running away; it's running to. It's running to the throne of grace & finding grace to help in time of need. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ Do you want life and joy? Here's the secret: Live on God's path, live in His presence, and live for His pleasures. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ Although everything may seem stacked against you, God is on your side. He knows who you are, where you are and what you're up against. He will protect you and deliver you. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ It's logical that the God who is wise enough to run creation is wise enough to run our lives. If He can keep the stars & the planets & the seasons & all these things going as they should, can He not put our lives together & make them what they ought to be? — Warren W. Wiersbe

- ✚ U have the privilege of praying to a loving, understanding Father, who knows your condition. He guides u thru difficulty to victory. When your faith, hope & love are fixed on the Lord, u can face any difficulty or problem & God will give u joy & peace within. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ The Bible meets the needs of the human heart. No other book is like it. It is God’s testimony. Its name is the law of the Lord. The sun is to creation what the law is to God’s people, bringing light, warmth, life, and growth. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ Biblical hope means confidence in the future. It’s a confidence born of faith. Faith, hope and love go together (1 Cor. 13). When we have faith in God, we claim His promises, and they give us hope for the future. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ Hope for the Christian is not a feeling of “I hope it’s going to happen.” It’s exciting expectancy because God controls the future. When Jesus Christ is your Savior and your Lord, the future is your friend. You don’t have to worry. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ Eventually, all earthly causes will fail. Only the plan of God will succeed. The Lord is our shield, our glory, and the One who lifts our head. In this life we will have problems, but God encourages us. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ Do you desire to be nearer to God today? Fill your mind with the truth of the Word and your heart with prayer, and trust God to take care of you. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ What we are is God’s gift to us. What we do with our lives is our gift to Him. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ God accepts us as we are. He’s not going to judge us on the basis of what He has given someone else, but on the basis of what we have done with what He has given us. Never be discouraged by what you don’t have. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ Why does God permit difficulties to come to our lives? Sometimes He has to break us before He can make us. Sometimes He has to reveal to us what we’re really like before He can make us into what He wants us to be. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ Time is perhaps your most basic resource. How you use God’s gift of time has a profound effect not only on your life but on the lives of others. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ It’s important that you surrender your time to God’s care. When you give God your time, you surrender it to His control. He will bless you for it. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ Some of your greatest blessings come with patience. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ When you must wait for God to act, you can be confident that He knows what is best for you and what will best glorify Him. Are you waiting for God to act on your behalf? Align with His timing and rest on the promises of His Word. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ We need to keep our tongues under control. They are capable of causing great damage... — Warren W. Wiersbe

- ✚ ...Beware of having a boastful or sharp tongue. Be careful that your tongue does not spread lies. And when others slander you, don't reciprocate with your own tongue. Instead, use your tongue to glorify God and to speak of His goodness. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ When you follow the Shepherd, the future is your friend, because the Lord is going before you. Live one day at a time, following the Shepherd, and you won't have to be afraid. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ If your life is broken right now, be encouraged that God knows what is going on in your life and will restore you. Until He does, rejoice in Him and praise His name. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ God helps us in the obstacles of life. When you turn your obstacles over to the Lord, He acts. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ Everyone has days of trouble. When circumstances entrap u & trouble closes around u, pray to the Lord. He knows how to turn your trouble into triumph. Although He may not answer your prayers the way u expect, He will do what is best for u & for His glory. — Warren W. Wiersbe
- ✚ Luck, chance or fate are not Christian words. You cannot have a Sovereign God who's in control and have luck, chance or fate. – Tony Evans
- ✚ Jesus paid it all. All to him I owe. Sin had left a crimson stain. He washed it white as snow. – Worship Circle
- ✚ Turn your eyes upon Jesus. Look full in His wonderful face. And the things of earth will grow strangely dim, in the light of His glory and grace. – Helen H. Lemmel
- ✚ People tend to judge the character and worth of others by looking at outward appearances. But God has the unique ability to see inside a person. God knows our true character because he "looks at the heart." – GotQuestions
- ✚ We must be willing to tell others what Jesus has done in our lives. The people around you need to know salvation is available through Jesus Christ. The gospel is the best gift you could possibly give them this Christmas. - Charles Stanley
- ✚ Thankfully, God never turns His goodness and mercy off. He is not good one day and bad the next. He is not merciful one day and unmerciful the next. The Bible says ALL the days of my life will be met with God's goodness and God's mercy. – James Merritt
- ✚ When you go to worship God, listen a lot & speak very little. Remember your sinfulness. Don't be like a fool that doesn't consider that he does evil. Don't feel the need to be quick to say anything. Remember that God is in heaven and knows what you need. - ETB.
- ✚ If you make a vow or a promise to God – don't take that lightly. Do the thing you said you would do. If you have no intention of doing what you promised, you would be better just not to make any promises to God. - ETB.

- ✚ Get your thoughts under control. Believe it or not, we can get our thoughts under control by exercising a little spiritual muscle. It is possible to decrease our fear and worry by choosing to focus our minds on the positive things God's put in our lives. – Mike Query

- ✚ Romans 6:23 says, the wages of sin is death. Jesus took those wages for us. He died so that we could live. Jesus paid for your sin when He willingly suffered on the cross. - Leighann McCoy
- ✚ In order to enter into an intimate place with God you have to believe that He sent Jesus to die in your place. You have to acknowledge that you are a sinner. You have to ask Him to forgive you of your sins and you have to invite Him into your heart. - Leighann McCoy
- ✚ Romans 10:9-10 says, that if you confess with your mouth Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead...you will be saved. - Leighann McCoy
- ✚ There are always giants, intimidation, opposition, and scary reasons to run, hide, and blend in with everyone else. Let's be like David and stand on God's side rather than align ourselves with fear, or what's popular, or remain in a state of paralyzed insecurity. - Marilyn Hickey
- ✚ Never forget that perfect love casts out fear, and greater is He who is in you than any Goliath, roaring lion, or lying devil! - Marilyn Hickey
- ✚ Validating an emotion doesn't mean that u agree with the other person or that u think their emotional response is warranted. Rather, u demonstrate that u understand what they are feeling without trying to talk them out of or shame them for it. – Kristalyn Salters-Pedneault
- ✚ Never in Scripture do we see Jesus dismiss the feelings of others or invalidate those in distress. On the contrary, God's Word reiterates the safety found in seeking God as our refuge when we are weak (Psalm 46:1–3), and as a shelter when we are suffering (Psalm 62:8).- Jay Allen
- ✚ When you emotionally validate someone, you communicate acceptance. You demonstrate that you care about and accept the person for who they are. – Kristalyn Salters-Pedneault
- ✚ Emotional invalidation can undermine a person's sense of self. When people feel that their personality characteristics, thoughts, and behaviors are not accepted, they may develop low self-esteem or a poor sense of self. – Kristalyn Salters-Pedneault
- ✚ Stop and think before you respond. Don't show your vulnerability to people that would use it against you or harm you for it. Your feelings are valid, and they matter, even if other people cannot appreciate that. – Jack Nollan

- ✚ God expects us to be good stewards of all that we have – our material possessions, as well as our money. And we can do that by acknowledging that He is the owner of everything; we are simply managers of the money and possessions He has entrusted us with. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Acknowledging that all you have is God’s anyway makes major purchases and investments a matter of prayer since you’ll want to consult the owner about how He would like you to manage His funds! – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ And anytime you make God the primary decision-maker and master of your life, His blessings follow. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ God wants your giving to be deliberate and intentional, planned out ahead of time, and never an after-thought or an obligatory gesture with what you have left at the end of the month. – Cindi McMenamin

- ✚ As you honor God with what you have, you can be confident He will honor you. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ If a loving God can take care of my eternal life – through the atoning sacrifice of His only Son – then certainly He can take care of my everyday life. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ And truly believing that means not stressing about having all we need, paying the monthly bills, or being able to handle an unexpected expense. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Because you have a God in control, don't you feel you have to be! Trust that He is working on what you need, as you can let go of the stress and depend on Him. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ One of the best ways to show that we truly trust God is to take Him at His Word and depend on His character and faithfulness to provide for us. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ When you live with that big of a perception of God, your trust in Him and His provision will be evident, even down to the tiniest detail. And you will live confidently, in great expectation of how He will come through. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Trusting in God's provision means we are generous with what we have, so we will always be able to help others in need. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ When you truly trust Him for your provision, you can't help but speak about the wondrous things He does to provide for you. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ The next time you think you have to work through – or worry through – the night because of your financial needs, remember that God has a way of working it out if you just rest in Him – literally. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Throughout God's Word, He commands us to rest, and by trusting Him to provide while we get the rest we need, we are being obedient to, literally, "do our best and trust God with the rest." – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Trusting in God's provision means we are at peace with God doing things His way, not ours. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ When you really believe that God is a far better manager of your money and a far better provider of your needs than you or anyone else, you can rest assured that He's got this and that the best is still to come. – Cindi McMenamin

- ✚ Jesus is the only hope for a world where there is no fear of God. – Mike Muzzerall
- ✚ Don't quit asking, don't quit seeking, don't quit knocking. Keep believing. The Lord has promised that He would answer. – Jimmy Swaggart

- ✚ The only hope for a people or a nation is to turn to the Light of the World, the Lord Jesus Christ, who opens the hearts of blind and dead men and women to repent of sin and receive the gift of salvation. – Franklin Graham
- ✚ You were created to know God. And His plans for you are better than any plans you have ever thought of for yourself. Commit your life to Him and discover what He has for you. – Greg Laurie
- ✚ There is only one Door to Heaven, and that is Jesus. I am glad to tell you that Door is still open. – Billy Graham
- ✚ We do not know at what hour the Lord Jesus is coming back. But we are told in Scripture that there will be signs pointing toward the return of the Lord. I believe that we see those signs in the world today, and I believe that the coming of the Lord is near. – Billy Graham
- ✚ God said He will judge the world. God is still a God of love, but He is also a God of judgment. He is going to judge the world, and He is going to judge you, unless you repent of your sins and receive Christ into your heart. – Billy Graham
- ✚ The Bible says there is a limit to God's patience: "The Lord said, 'My Spirit shall not strive with man forever' " (Genesis 6:3). – Billy Graham
- ✚ Christ will return, and there will be the Judgment. Eternity will be before you: Heaven or hell. You will be in one of them, according to the choice that you make about Jesus Christ. We have to make a choice. We have to make a personal commitment to Christ. – Billy Graham
- ✚ We can't go on our mother's faith or on our father's faith. We can't go on the faith of the church. We can be baptized, we can be confirmed, we can live a decent life and still not know Christ, still not be saved. – Billy Graham
- ✚ The Scripture says that Christ will come back, and every eye shall see him. Are you ready for that Day that is certain to come? We don't know when it will be, but we should be ready at any moment. Are you ready? You can make sure today. – Billy Graham
- ✚ To be saved, you must confess that Jesus is Lord, while acknowledging in your heart that Christ must have full rule over your life. We receive salvation in Christ thru repentance (turning away from sinful ways) & turning to God in faith by trusting in Christ for our salvation.
- ✚ This confession of Christ as Lord assumes that it is Christ who will work and fulfill His own righteousness within man, as man is unable to attain righteousness of his own accord.
- ✚ Low self-esteem is rooted in the anxiety of not feeling good enough. No one is born with low self-esteem. It is a self-debilitating condition developed from childhood as a result of feeling unappreciated, undermined or misunderstood. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ When our spirits are crushed by those we look up to the most during a vulnerable age, we begin to question our value. Eventually, we find it hard to celebrate who God has made us to be. Our focus becomes our inadequacies rather than God's saving grace. – Jennifer Sum

- ✚ Those who suffer from low self-esteem tend to be hyper-vigilant about any (real or perceived) sign of inadequacy or social rejection. Comments are perceived as critical when they are not, failures are magnified, and simple gestures can be taken as personal rebuffs. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ God wants to heal us of our anxieties. Praise God that He knows everything that is hidden in our anxious hearts. He has great compassion for those of us who worry about not being good enough. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ God calls us to cast all our anxieties on Him. This includes each and every anxious thought or feeling – past, present, chronic, or recurring. God will heal us when we ask Him to search our hearts and show what hidden ungodly roots we need to unplug.- Jennifer Sum
- ✚ God will meet us exactly where we are, whether we are feeling ashamed, frustrated, grieved, hopeless, angry, or overwhelmed with ourselves. He knows all our frailties and will be gentle with us when we humble ourselves before Him. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ We may not realise that our critical inner voice, the one that keeps looping in our thoughts, is actually Satan’s accusing and deceptive voice. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ God’s Word shows us that the devil accuses God’s children non-stop, day and night. It is the devil’s full-time “occupation.” (The name of Satan itself refers to “accuser” or “adversary.”) – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ The devil will weave his lies into our anxious thoughts if we are not alert and sober-minded because we are being led astray by our emotions. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ Praise God that through Jesus, we can be set free from our accuser and from low self-esteem, if we obey God’s Word. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ Once we accept Jesus as our Saviour, something significant changes in our identity. We now belong to Jesus. We are no longer our own. Jesus has purchased us with His blood and deposits the Holy Spirit in our bodies. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ Jesus has ultimate authority over all spiritual powers, including Satan. Because we share the same Holy Spirit that He was filled with when He walked on this earth, we too can pray with power in our Master’s authority. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ It is important to note that it is not God who condemns us, it is Satan that does. The Bible shows us that we need to resist the devil and submit our hearts before God for purification. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ God has created every one of us for good works and equips us with specific spiritual gifts to accomplish them for His glory. Our low self-esteem tends to stem from our weaknesses, areas that may not even be relevant to God’s plan for us in the first place. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ God will attend to our emotional, mental, physical and material needs – if we choose to obey His will and walk in His righteousness. He will restore our hearts to experience His love, joy, and peace. – Jennifer Sum

- ✚ While low self-esteem is about thinking that we are never good enough, humility is about not thinking about ourselves first. Humility puts our own feelings, views, or desires aside to consider other people as more significant. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ False humility will pretend to consider others as more significant when in reality, we are more concerned about our own feelings than others. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ Low self-esteem prevents us from being truly humble because our views tend to revolve around how we feel. Some symptoms of false humility include selfish ambition and vain conceit. – Jennifer Sum
- ✚ Remember, we serve a big God. Our God is bigger than whatever we face. - Dave Smith

- ✚ We are constantly under spiritual attack. As the Lord Jesus continues to build us up and mold us into His own likeness, the enemy will keep trying to stop His work in our lives. – JB Cachila
- ✚ Thankfully, "not even the gates of hell" can stop God from doing His work. Christ already defeated the enemy. No weapon formed against us can ever prosper if we are in Christ. – JB Cachila
- ✚ The Bible tells us that man's anger cannot produce the righteousness of God. As such the enemy will keep trying to find ways to agitate us and stir us to anger. – JB Cachila
- ✚ While we can be angry at sin and wrongdoing, it would be wrong to commit sin because we are angry. We must remember that the devil wants us to commit sin. – JB Cachila
- ✚ When we worry, our faith in God is shaken and our focus on Him is taken away. Who wants that but the devil? The devil wants our eyes and focus away from Christ.– JB Cachila
- ✚ When we fear God, we will fear nothing else. When we trust in the Lord, we can face anything. – JB Cachila
- ✚ Depression is more than just a clinical state. It's a state of spiritual attack. God doesn't want His people getting depressed over anything. When we're depressed, we feel discouraged and are unable to do anything good for God, even for ourselves. – JB Cachila
- ✚ The devil wants to take our minds and focus away from Christ. Why is this? Because without Christ our lives would be meaningless no matter what we do. – JB Cachila

- ✚ Is God tugging on your heart, reaching out for you to give your life to Christ? If he is don’t delay. This is the most urgent decision you will ever make. There is no guarantee you will have another opportunity. – Clarence L. Haynes Jr.
- ✚ Are you holding onto things that you are giving more importance or priority to than you should? If there are dead things in your life let them go. They may seem important but they are actually keeping you from experiencing all of God’s best. – Clarence L. Haynes Jr.
- ✚ The accuser is one of many names the Bible uses for Satan, since he loves to try and steal our hope and joy by accusing us about all manner of things. – Julia Albig
- ✚ Satan’s access to heaven has been revoked, but until the time comes when God will bind him for a thousand years his spirit roams this earth and his aim is to take down as many children of God as possible. – Julia Albig
- ✚ One of the ways Satan does this is by whispering accusations in your ear – accusations about temptations in which you didn’t get victory, the sin that lies in your nature, and so called “flaws” in your personality. – Julia Albig
- ✚ Satan is a very crafty liar, because he often mixes a little truth in with the lie to deceive you. But for every lie he tries to tell you, there is at least one verse in the word of God you can use to expose his deceit and prevent him from stealing your joy & hope. – Julia Albig

- ✦ It is the God who commanded light to shine out of darkness, who can literally make something out of nothing, who provides the strength you need to get victory over sin. – Julia Albig
- ✦ Your human limitations cannot limit you in your battle against sin when you pray to God for strength, because He “gives to all liberally and without reproach.” (James 1:5.) – Julia Albig
- ✦ Satan was formerly a beautiful and powerful cherub, likely the highest of all angels. But iniquity was found in him, and he was lifted up in pride, desiring to be greater than the Lord God. – Gotquestions
- ✦ Satan led an army of angels into rebellion, which resulted in his ejection from heaven—along with every angel who had followed him. – Gotquestions
- ✦ Now Satan prowls the earth, seeking to hinder all he can from choosing salvation and living a life of obedience. – Gotquestions
- ✦ Satan acts as the accuser of believers in an attempt to discredit them before God. – Gotquestions
- ✦ Satan is relentless in his accusations—he accuses God’s children continually. He hates God and all that God is, which means he also hates God’s mercy and forgiveness extended to sinful humanity. - Gotquestions
- ✦ Satan the accuser stands before God in an attempt to somehow lessen God’s love or diminish God’s mercy. Fortunately, his accusations against us fall on deaf ears: “Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies” (Romans 8:33). – Gotquestions
- ✦ Salvation belongs to the Lord, and His justification cannot be reversed. God is greater than our accuser. – Gotquestions
- ✦ Satan the accuser desires to remind believers of their sin and their unworthiness of a place in God’s family and in this way sow doubt into their hearts and minds. Satan wants to make Christians fear for their salvation and forget God’s love and faithfulness. - Gotquestions
- ✦ Satan says, “Look at your sinfulness”; God says, “Look to Jesus, the author and finisher of your faith” (see Hebrews 12:2). – Gotquestions
- ✦ God has set the accuser’s ultimate fate: “And the devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the lake of burning sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet had been thrown. They will be tormented day and night for ever and ever” (Revelation 20:10). - Gotquestions
- ✦ After God creates the new heaven and new earth, Satan will be absent for eternity (Revelation 21:1-4,27). - Gotquestions
- ✦ In spite of Satan’s accusations and deceptions, God will not change His mind about those He has called to salvation (Romans 8:38-39). - Gotquestions

- ✚ Believers can rest in the knowledge that our salvation is sure (Romans 11:29, Ephesians 1:13-14) and take comfort in the promise that God will complete the good work He began in us (Philippians 1:6). - Gotquestions
- ✚ Satan's tireless goal in the life of every Christian is to prevent, disrupt, and cut off his or her relationship with God. But the devil's only real power over believers is to throw our sins and transgressions in our faces. He is the accuser. - Gotquestions
- ✚ Thankfully, the sacrifice of Christ has effectively dealt with the problem. It is the blood of Jesus Christ—the blood of the Lamb—that redeems people, setting them free from slavery to sin and Satan's control. - Gotquestions
- ✚ Satan tries to condemn us, but we overcome by the blood of the Lamb. Jesus freed us from the spiritual chains of sin. - Gotquestions
- ✚ The next time Satan tries to hurl past failures in your face, remember that “God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned” (John 3:17-18). – Gotquestions
- ✚ All believers—past, present and future—overcome the accuser by the blood of the Lamb. Jesus Christ's death is the definitive basis for our victory over the enemy of our souls. - Gotquestions
- ✚ Despite everything in the devil's arsenal that he can throw at us, “in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us” (Romans 8:37). - Gotquestions
- ✚ We must not allow the devil to deceive us with lies and accusations. Every charge he can bring against us is canceled, nailed to the cross, and overcome by the blood of the Lamb. – Gotquestions
- ✚ Because of Christ's shed blood on the cross, sin has lost its grip on us. Whenever Satan accuses us, we can sing, “My chains are gone; I've been set free.” - Gotquestions
- ✚ Healing and spiritual growth often begin not by “doing more” or changing our habits, but by understanding how precious we are to God and embracing the life-changing identity we have in Christ. – HopeForTheHeart

- ✚ Comparison is a trap because when we focus on what others are doing around us, it prevents us from doing what God has called us to do. – Erin Elise
- ✚ The devil wants to steal our identity, he wants to steal our joy, and he wants to rob us of understanding who we are and what God created us to do. – Erin Elise
- ✚ The devil wants to kill and destroy our life and happiness on this Earth. He uses the comparison trap as a tactic to steal our joy and to distract us from what God is calling us to do. – Erin Elise
- ✚ When thoughts of comparison start creeping in, you must recognize them as lies and an attack from the enemy. These thoughts are not from God. – Erin Elise
- ✚ Trust God and surrender any comparison. When we compare ourselves to others in an unhealthy way, we are desiring what others have instead of trusting God with what he’s given us. – Erin Elise

- ✚ The Bible tells us in Exodus 20:17 that we should not covet our neighbor's house or anything else or neighbor has. This is actually one of the 10 commandments. – Erin Elise

<https://www.soulshpherdinq.org/calm-your-anxious-mind/>
- ✚ Anxiety is a disorder of control — trying to control your emotions, what people think of you & how situations turn out. An essential aspect of treatment is learning to abandon outcomes to God: trust the Lord God to be sovereign & stop trying to make things happen! –BillGaultiere
- ✚ Do not watch the wind to sow, nor the clouds to reap. The truth of the matter is, your situation is not what determines God’s timing. If you wait for the perfect condition, you will never get anything done. – Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ So, do not focus on your circumstances but instead focus on God and on what He is doing in your life as he takes you from the season of sowing seed to a season of reaping a harvest, receiving your blessings. – Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ Nobody should wait for the ideal condition before they begin to do the work God has called them to do. – Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ The farmer would never plant his seeds if he is always waiting for a ‘good wind’. He would never begin to harvest if he is always watching the clouds and he would have no harvest if he does not plant the seed. – Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ There is no perfect time to sow seed because our timing is not the same as God’s timing. Scripture tells us that God’s timing is perfect. – Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ In every Season, God is our Source, Helper, Strength, Confidence, Sustainer, Guide, Peace Protector and more. – Nakawala Amponsah
- ✚ It is God who fights for us for the battle is not ours, but God’s. – Nakawala Amponsah

- ✚ Everyone experiences fear in their life. There are big fears we are very aware of and little ones we may not even realize we have. – Joyce Meyer
- ✚ I've learned that it's very important to understand what fear is and how it works against us because if we don't, it can keep us from becoming what God created us to be, which means we won't fulfill our purpose in life. – Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Fear is a tool the devil uses against us to make us miserable and destroy our lives. It begins as a thought and then creates emotions that can rule us. – Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Simply put, fear is the opposite of faith. God wants us to walk by faith, and Satan wants us to walk by fear. When we learn to live by faith and not let fear rule our life, we can live a fulfilling, satisfying, peaceful and joyful life in Christ. – Joyce Meyer
- ✚ The Bible talks about meditating on the Word of God and having our minds renewed so we can know what God's will is. Meditating means you roll the Scripture over and over in your mind until it becomes part of you. – Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Not only are we taught to not worry or fear, but we are also told what to do instead of worrying: pray. Prayer is more than a daily litany of requests. It's an opportunity to talk to our Father about our worries and give them over to His control. – Brooke Farmer
- ✚ When we offer up our worries through prayer, God will lead us into a deeper experience of His loving care and help us overcome the fears we face. – Brooke Farmer
- ✚ Be still. Slow down. Allow yourself to be calm, not just in the heat of a fearful moment, but as a way of life. – Brooke Farmer
- ✚ If we want to know God's presence, we need to intentionally make space in our lives and our minds for His voice. We need to practice the skill of being still each day so we can apply it effectively when worry arises. – Brooke Farmer
- ✚ Fear is crippling. It seeks to control your life and make you feel powerless. Many of us fall victim to fear letting it dictate our emotions, our actions, even our sleep. – Nena Podbury
- ✚ But the Bible reminds us that we shouldn't be controlled by fear, instead we should place our hope and trust in God. – Nena Podbury

- ✚ Call on the name of Jesus, whether you are frightened about what might happen to yourself or someone else, or if you just want to be prepared for the day your greatest anxiety might be realized. – Cindi McMenamini

- ✚ Jesus is our Comforter. He's our Counselor. He's our Strength, our Rock, our Protector, our Power. When we call upon the name of Jesus, the One God has exalted as the name above all names we are not only saved eternally, but from our fears as well. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Lord Jesus, I call upon You and the power of Your name to dispel these fears of mine, calm my anxious heart, protect my soul and cover me with Your perfect peace. I ask these things in the powerful name of Jesus. Amen. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Pray in faith that God has already accomplished what you've asked. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Ask Jesus for the ability to see that He has already provided for or accomplished all that you need because He knows your requests before you make them.– Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Lord Jesus, You have told me whatever I ask for in faith, I will receive. I ask that You rid me of these fears, that you stop Satan in his schemes to frighten me, and that You comfort me with Your presence in this moment. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Strengthen my faith to know, without a doubt, that You are bigger and stronger than anything that might come my way. Assure me that nothing is more powerful than You. In Your powerful, magnificent name I ask and receive this. Amen. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Pray for a stronger love for Jesus. Amy Carmichael said to love God perfectly is to trust Him immensely and where there is absolute trust there is no fear.
- ✚ Therefore, perfect love for Jesus drives out fear because our love and trust for Him convinces us that nothing can ever touch us that hasn't first passed through His loving hands. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Pray Scripture over your fears. When we pray the Word of God we know we are praying according to God's will. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ When we pray Scripture passages we are praying His words not our own, and the Spirit immediately intercedes for us what we need to ask of the Father. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ Praise God amid the fears. Praising God in the middle of your fearful moments ushers in an immediate sense of His presence. That's because God inhabits the praises of His people. – Cindi McMenamin
- ✚ When we begin to praise God, it changes our perspective from fear or panic to a mindset of worship and adoring trust. – Cindi McMenamin

- ✚ Lord, You are wise and loving and just. I trust You. God, You are more powerful than my enemy or anyone who stands in my way. God, You see all and know all and I rest in You. – Cindi McMEnamin
- ✚ When we focus on the truth of Who Scripture says God is, that truth can renew our minds and help us focus on the facts of God and His Word, rather than on our feelings and fears. – Cindi McMEnamin
- ✚ By reminding ourselves of who God really is, we can be convinced, once again, that He is bigger than our fears and capable of anything. – Cindi McMEnamin
- ✚ When we share our fears with a trustworthy person, it normalizes our fears and says they are not something to be ashamed of. Sharing with God, as well as a friend, can open the door for healing and overcoming. – Lynn Cowell
- ✚ When I turn to God with my fears, I believe He will help me. And when we're a safe place for others, we can lovingly point them to God, who sets us free of our fears. – Lynn Cowell
- ✚ Whatever the circumstances you find yourself in, know with assurance that you can succeed. You are more capable, more talented, and more faith-filled than you realize. More important, you are more loved by God than you realize. – Kevin J Worthen
- ✚ A rubber band isn't much use unless it is stretched. Similarly, we will not achieve the peak of our potential unless we are stretched by God. – Dean Deppe
- ✚ We have to be willing to go beyond our comfort zones. We must forget what is behind and strain toward what is ahead. We must relinquish our fears and focus on what we can be if we allow God to stretch us. – Dean Deppe
- ✚ When you give another person the power to define you, then you also give them the power to control you. - Leslie Vernick
- ✚ Stretching means trusting God in moments of surrender. Stretching means walking into our fears and coming out as people of faith. Stretching means believing in God when we don't see him working. Stretching means trusting God in all circumstances. – Dean Deppe
- ✚ The church in Laodicea's deeds were lukewarm, neither cold nor hot. God's consequence, according to the author John, is grotesque: "I am about to spit you out of my mouth" (Revelation 3:16). Lukewarmness is an indifference to God and "a dying of conviction." – Jon Bloom.
- ✚ Emotional invalidation is painful. Sometimes it's unintentional, but it's a sign of emotional abuse when done repeatedly and intentionally. – Sharon Martin

- ✚ Having your feelings diminished, ignored, or rejected is a painful experience for all of us – but even more so if you're a highly sensitive person or survivor of abuse or other trauma. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ We can't depend on others to validate who we are, what we believe in, and how we feel. When we do, we compromise pieces of who we are in order to fit in and let others determine our self-worth. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ Your feelings matter. Emotions serve an important purpose and shouldn't be ignored. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ Feelings aren't right or wrong. They are a reflection of your thoughts, experiences, and perceptions, which is why two people can have the same experience, but feel differently. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ Sometimes emotional invalidation is done accidentally by someone who is well-meaning but has a low emotional intelligence or simply isn't paying attention to your feelings. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ A common form of emotional invalidation is when your feelings are being dismissed when someone wants to change your feelings rather than accept them or understand them. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ Other times, emotional invalidation is a form of manipulation and an attempt to make you question your feelings and experiences. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ A pattern of invalidation is a form of emotional abuse. It's a denial of you or your experience. It implies that you're wrong, overreacting, or lying. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ If a person repeatedly invalidates your feelings and isn't interested or motivated to change, you need to take steps to distance yourself and take care of your own feelings. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ It's important to form relationships with people who love and respect you, who care about your feelings and want to understand who you are and how you feel. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ It's important for you to care about, understand, and validate your own feelings. As you know, we can run into emotional problems and become victims when we rely too heavily on external validation. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ I can choose not to spend time with people who continue to invalidate my experiences and feelings. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ I will choose to surround myself with people who support my healing and growth, who push me to be a better person, and who leave me feeling better about myself — not worse. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ Many people get stuck because they think they need their loved ones to validate their feelings. To have a satisfying relationship with someone, you need them to understand you. However, you don't need other people to tell you your feelings are acceptable. – Sharon Martin

- ✚ The important thing is that you know your feelings are valid regardless of what others think. You are the only one who can validate your feelings and deem them acceptable and legitimate; no one can do it for you. – Sharon Martin
- ✚ As Christians, rather than looking inward for our self-worth & self-confidence, or outward to the world, we need to turn our eyes to scripture & what God says about us. Thank goodness that you are who God says you are. – Ammie Senn

- ✚ God may be silent when He has already answered in His Word. In some cases, He may be waiting on you to believe His promise or act on His written Word. – Rebecca Barlow Jordan
- ✚ God may be silent because we have broken fellowship with Him, due to sin. Thankfully, God will always hear a prayer of repentance. – Rebecca Barlow Jordan
- ✚ God may be silent to a nation that has forgotten or turned their backs on God. Instead of blessing, that nation may find silence, as well as discipline. While God's grace and mercy is readily available, nations often choose not to pursue Him. – Rebecca Barlow Jordan
- ✚ God may be silent because we're asking for the wrong thing or reason, if we're asking God with wrong motives, selfishly. Examine your reasons. – Rebecca Barlow Jordan
- ✚ If we're asking for things that are not in His Sovereign will—things He's made clear in His Word that are against His moral laws, then why would we expect Him to answer and provide that? – Rebecca Barlow Jordan
- ✚ God may be silent because the answer is still coming. If you know what you are asking for is God's will, keep on praying, believing, and waiting. – Rebecca Barlow Jordan
- ✚ God may have already spoken, but there could be a battle going on between good and evil to prevent that answer from arriving until later. – Rebecca Barlow Jordan
- ✚ God may be silent because He wants to grow your faith and depend on Him, so that you will keep on praying and not give up. – Rebecca Barlow Jordan

- ✚ God may assign you a demanding task, but His call keeps us going when we don't want to go and are ready to quit. - Rick Ezell
- ✚ Jesus teaches that living in God's kingdom means looking 2God, rather than human effort, as the ultimate source of the things we need for life. Our labor is not optional, but neither is it absolute. Our labor is always a participation in the grace ofGod's provision. - Tow Project
- ✚ When Worry Is Entrepreneur's Biggest Challenge, Matthew 6 Is The Biggest Encouragement https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4vHD_HclqrU&t=36s
- ✚ There are many causes of insecurity, but chief among them is our failure to fully trust God. – gotquestions
- ✚ As believers, we have this assurance: “And those who know Your name put their trust in You, for You, O LORD, have not forsaken those who seek You.” – gotquestions
- ✚ In Satan's arsenal, one of his biggest weapons is doubt. Satan loves for us to question who we are and how we measure up to others. He wants us to feel insecure over the meaning & purpose of our lives, where we're going, & how we'll get there. – gotquestions
- ✚ Another cause of feelings of insecurity is reliance on wealth and possessions instead of God. Yet the Bible teaches us not to set our hopes on earthly riches but on God. – gotquestions
- ✚ Many times insecurity takes the form of worry about the future. Worrisome fears about the future are rooted in a doubt of God's provision. This breeds strong feelings of insecurity & a lack of peace resulting in fear & depression. When we doubt God, Satan wins. – gotquestions
- ✚ Insecurity may also result from being preoccupied with the things of the world. – gotquestions
- ✚ True security comes when you recognize that “God will supply every need of yours according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:19). – gotquestions
- ✚ When struggling with feelings of insecurity, never forget God's promise: “You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you.” (Isaiah 26:3) – gotquestions
- ✚ Feelings of self-doubt and lack of confidence can overwhelm us, causing us to lose focus on God's plan for our lives. The enemy uses insecurity to try and stop us from uniting and being effective for God. – BridgeWomen
- ✚ Comparing yourself to others gives you a false view of yourself & of others as well. Someone else's appearance, possessions or talents do not determine our value. We need to learn to be ourselves & celebrate our differences. – BridgeWomen
- ✚ As children of God, our perfection comes from Him & not from our outward appearance or accomplishments. We want to look to God for approval & not man. – BridgeWomen

- ✚ The Bible tells us in Philippians 3:3 that we are to rejoice in Christ and have no confidence in the flesh. – BridgeWomen
- ✚ Our insecurities are often driven by our feelings of shame & condemnation. This is a LIE of the devil because the Bible tells us that there is NO condemnation in Christ Jesus (Romans 8:1). – BridgeWomen
- ✚ We want to be like Paul, who was able to forget the past and reach forward to the things ahead (Philippians 3:13&14). – BridgeWomen
- ✚ We often make assumptions of what others think of us, and this can cause division and separation. Proverbs 29:25 tells us that the fear of man brings a snare (in other words, it is a trap of the enemy!), but whoever trusts in the Lord will be safe. – BridgeWomen
- ✚ We are not created for self-confidence, but God-confidence. The Bible tells us that we are made righteous through Christ & that we can do all things through Him because He strengthens us. – BridgeWomen
- ✚ We already have acceptance and right-standing with God himself. He loves us completely & unconditionally. We don't have to earn it, & we don't have to strive for acceptance or approval from people. - BridgeWomen
- ✚ Insecurity is caused by an identity crisis: Not having confidence in who you are and why God created you. – Tweeny Randall
- ✚ Feeling insecure is an assault from the enemy on your soul. God has a plan to prosper you. Satan, on the other hand, has a plan to destroy you. The spiritual battle is real and it begins in your mind. – Tweeny Randall
- ✚ As a Christian your identity is in Jesus Christ. Learn to define yourself through Him. This means embracing God's love for you, basing your worth and value in what He says about you. – Tweeny Randall
- ✚ You will never fully understand who you are until you understand who God is. Once you have a healthy understanding of God's character, you will begin to embrace His authentic love for you and trust yourself to His Lordship. – Tweeny Randall
- ✚ Acknowledging your authority in Christ will empower you to walk in confidence, having His assurance within you. God has given you all the power over the enemy. – Tweeny Randall
- ✚ Christ in you will always be more powerful than the devil's attacks on you. However, you must know who you are in Christ to conquer him. – Tweeny Randall
- ✚ If you are a follower of Jesus Christ, God has given you a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control (2 Timothy 1:7). Therefore, resist the devil's lies about you and start listening to the voice of Truth. – Tweeny Randall

- ✚ Insecurity causes worry, anxiety and uneasiness. It makes a person question what is real and true, thus causing a distrust in God. – Christen Fox
- ✚ Doubt can lead a person to lose hope in God and His promises while making them feel dependent on their own ability to control their life or circumstances, rather than depending on the sovereignty of the Creator of the Universe. – Christen Fox
- ✚ Jealously is a symptom of insecurity and is often the result of a lack of self-confidence in a person's own skills or abilities. – Christen Fox
- ✚ A person's childhood, past traumas, experiences of failure or rejection, loneliness, social anxiety, perfectionism, lack of confidence, & any relationships that are of a critical nature contribute to the development of insecurity. – Christen Fox
- ✚ When we allow negative influences to influence our life, we are surrendering to the enemy's control and are gradually emptying our spirits of the good God wants to fill us with, and replacing it with lies. – Christen Fox
- ✚ When insecurity drives you to focus inward towards self, it moves attention away from God and His greatest commandments. Distractions lead to lowered barriers which give the enemy an easy opportunity to sneak into your life. – Christen Fox
- ✚ Your problem is not too big for the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. – Donnie Swaggart
- ✚ With no way back and no way forward, God does what God does best - The impossible. He made a way where, naturally speaking, there was no way. He is STILL the God who makes a way through the sea. – I Gordon
- ✚ Moses answered the people, "Do not be afraid. Stand firm and you will see the deliverance the LORD will bring you today. The Egyptians you see today you will never see again. The LORD will fight for you; you need only to be still."... – I Gordon
- ✚ Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, & all that night the LORD drove the sea back with a strong east wind & turned it into dry land. The waters were divided & the Israelites went thru the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right & on their left. – I Gordon
- ✚ From what we have been looking at, it is clear that you can be following the God designed path for your life and it can lead straight to mighty waters. This is especially so if God desires to use you to help others. – I Gordon
- ✚ Note how Isaiah 43:2 doesn't say 'if you pass through the waters...' It's not a matter of 'if' but 'when'. It also doesn't say 'when others pass through the waters' but 'when you pass through...' – I Gordon
- ✚ If you are to comfort others you first must have been comforted yourself. All of us will face the waters at some stage. It will happen. But praise God that He also adds that 'I will be with you!' That makes all the difference. – I Gordon

- ✚ God instructs His people to forget the former things and not to dwell on the past. – I Gordon
- ✚ The Lord will make a way for you where no foot has gone before. That which, like a sea, threatens to drown you will be a highway for your escape. – Charles Spurgeon
- ✚ An inescapable subject we will all have to deal with, if Christ be not come, is the subject of death. Whether you're rich, or poor, or in between, whether you're black, or white, or in between, whether you are upper, or lower, or in between, it is inevitable. - Tony Evans
- ✚ As Hebrews 9:27 says: "It is appointed unto man once to die". In case you didn't know this, you die by appointment. Your death date has already been written on the calendar. You may be late for a lot of things in your life, you'll be on time for this one. – Tony Evans
- ✚ What is death? God has not been silent about death, about what it is, and what happens when you partake of it. In the Bible, "death" means "separation," not "cessation," not "the stopping of something". It means "the separating of something". "Death is separation". – Tony Evans
- ✚ God told Adam & Eve, "On the day you eat of this fruit you shall surely die," but on the day they ate of the fruit, they did not die. Yet, God said, "In the day you eat, you shall surely die"... - Tony Evans
- ✚ ...That's because God was talking about the 1st kind of death, spiritual death, which means separation from fellowship with God. They were removed from the garden that day. Even tho they were physically alive, they were spiritually separated & God called that "Death". – Tony Evans
- ✚ So, one type of separation or death is spiritual death, separation from fellowship with God. But also, because of their sin, entered a 2nd definition of "death," physical death. Physical death is where the soul is separated from the body. – Tony Evans
- ✚ Physical death is where the soul is separated from the body. Your soul is you. You are your soul. You are not your body. Your body is merely a house, a tank, a holding place for the resident who lives there. - Tony Evans
- ✚ The unmistakable teaching of the Bible is that all people, whether saved or lost, will exist eternally. The spiritual part of us does not cease to exist when our fleshly bodies pass away in death. – gotquestions
- ✚ Our souls will live forever, either in the presence of God in heaven or in punishment in hell. The Bible also teaches that our souls will be reunited with our bodies at the resurrection. This hope of a bodily resurrection is at the very heart of the Christian faith. –gotquestions
- ✚ The resident who lives in the body is you, your soul, your mind, your emotions, your will, and your consciousness. All of that makes up your soul. – Tony Evans
- ✚ At the moment that life ends, your soul leaves the body, it separates. At your funeral, the only person who won't be there is you because the soul leaves. The shell remains to deteriorate and disintegrate until the new body is given. – Tony Evans

- ✚ All souls are immortal, but they are not eternal in the same way that God is. God is the only eternal being in that He alone is without a beginning or end. – gotquestions
- ✚ God has always existed and will always continue to exist. All other creatures, animal, human, or angelic, had a beginning. – gotquestions
- ✚ Our souls came into being at a certain point in history, and they live forever after that. But there was a time when our souls did not exist. Our souls are immortal, and we will live everlastingly. But only our Creator is eternal. - gotquestions
- ✚ There is the spiritual separation due to sin that has separated us from the fellowship of God, resulting in a physical separation from the immaterial part of us, our soul, when the soul leaves the body. – Tony Evans
- ✚ Then there is a 3rd kind of death, eternal death, which is eternal separation from God. – Tony Evans
- ✚ Understand that death does not mean the end of life. It means a separation has occurred. That's all it means. So it is technically incorrect to say about a person who's died, "Their life is over". Their life has just begun. – Tony Evans
- ✚ The split second that life ends is the split second you enter into eternity.– Tony Evans
- ✚ As long as you've got breath in your lungs and a soul still occupying your body, you have a choice about your eternal destiny. God will allow you to choose. – Tony Evans
- ✚ You can choose him, or not, but the choice is yours, and you get to make it. But you don't know when time will run out. – Tony Evans
- ✚ The Bible says, "Today is the day of salvation. When you hear the good news, harden not your heart". Don't say, "No, another time, I'll wait". If you're here today and you don't know Christ, then you're playing Russian roulette with eternity. – Tony Evans
- ✚ The Bible is clear that at the moment of death, our souls pass immediately into conscious existence in eternity, either in heaven or in hell. – Tony Evans
- ✚ Some think there's some kind of 2nd chance after death. God's Word says nothing about an intermediate state of purgatory after death in which we have a 2nd chance to get our act together, have our sins dealt with over a period of time, & finally make it happen. – Tony Evans
- ✚ Purgatory has no validation in Scripture whatsoever. In essence, the teaching of purgatory says that what Christ did at the cross is insufficient; consequently, there must be something added to His work in order for salvation to be procured. – Frances Swaggart
- ✚ Are you facing hard times today? Resources running low? Can't see the way forward with what you have? Turn to God and ask for help. Ask for His Great Provision in your life. – Kathryn Shirey

- ✚ 4 Signs God Is Breaking You So He Can Bless You – Mark Ballenger
<https://applygodsword.com/4-signs-god-is-breaking-you-so-he-can-bless-you/>
- ✚ If God is making you face your fears from the past that are still affecting your present, this is a sign He is actually breaking you so He can remake you. – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ There come moments in life where God begins to highlight parts of our past that were displeasing to him. God wants to bless us, but before he will, he makes us face those parts of our lives where we strayed from him. – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ If God is stripping you of all the people, places, and things that you have found comfort in, this is actually a sign God is breaking you so He can remake you. – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ There are times in life where God will take away everything you find comfort in to help you regain your first love. You see, though we often forget this, your life has always been about you and God. – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ If God is taking away your strength, this is a sign He is actually breaking you to remake you. – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ Unlike the world's advice, the Bible actually tells us that to be blessed we first need to become weak. – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ The Bible tells us that if we want to gain our lives we first need to lose our lives for Christ. - Mark Ballenger
- ✚ The Bible says that if you want the ultimate treasure you need to start seeing every other treasure as trash. – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ When God started to wrestle with Jacob, Jacob started to wrestle back. Genesis 32:25 then says, "When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he touched his hip socket, and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him." – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ Before God will bless you, he will remove your ability to wrestle with him. He will strip all of your power. He will break you down so he can build you back up. – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ In Tony Evans' sermon on Genesis 32, he said: "If Jacob walked on stage right now, he would be limping. And if we asked him, 'Why are you limping?', he would respond, 'Because I've been blessed.'" – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ For the rest of Jacob's life, he now had a limp. But this limp was a constant reminder of God's blessing that only came when he was first wounded and weakened enough to receive it. – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ Even when blessing others, Jacob's weakness was there reminding everyone about the process of pain God first put Jacob through before blessing him. – Mark Ballenger

- ✚ Hebrews 11:21 states, “By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of Joseph’s sons, and worshiped as he leaned on the top of his staff.” – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ Jacob had lean on his staff his whole life because God had wounded him. But this wound was actually a weakening that led to his strengthening. God put Jacob through pain but it was to prepare him for the coming pleasures. – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ When we see a problem in our lives, we see it as a barrier to our blessing. But when God sees our pain, he sees it as a bridge to our blessing. If you remain faithful, the Bible teaches us that your barrier is often a bridge leading to greater blessings. – Mark Ballenger
- ✚ Even though childhood emotional neglect can be subtle or even invisible, it leaves an enduring imprint. - Jonice Webb Ph.D.
- ✚ Many who grew up with emotional neglect are unaware that it can subtly affect them in daily life. - Jonice Webb Ph.D.
- ✚ One can be vulnerable to being triggered by situations that seem normal and benign to others. - Jonice Webb Ph.D.
- ✚ Childhood emotional neglect happens when your parents fail to respond enough to your emotional needs as they raise you. - Jonice Webb Ph.D.
- ✚ A child who grows up in an environment where their emotions aren’t acknowledged or taken seriously is in quite a bind. Even though emotions are a necessary part of being human, these children learn that their feelings are unwelcome... - Jonice Webb Ph.D.
- ✚ ...Children who learn that their feelings are unwelcome end up hiding them, walling them off, to not burden their parents. This is actually quite a remarkable thing for a child to do. They are adapting to their childhood home to survive... - Jonice Webb Ph.D.
- ✚ ...Even so, this survival mechanism ends up backfiring, because they are pushing away a vital life source, something they will desperately need throughout their lifetime to live a fulfilled, rich life: their feelings. - Jonice Webb Ph.D.
- ✚ Living your life with a wall standing between your emotions and you blocks your access to your emotional world. You miss out on learning how to identify, name, validate, tolerate, manage, or express your feelings. - Jonice Webb Ph.D.
- ✚ Without these skills, as an adult, you’re left with certain “trigger points.” These are normal situations everyone experiences that can trigger the emotionally neglectful experience you had as a child. - Jonice Webb Ph.D.
- ✚ When you get triggered in your life now from past childhood emotional neglect, you may have little understanding about what you are feeling and why you may fall victim to repeating a dangerous pattern: pushing down your feelings & treating them as unimportant. - Jonice Webb Ph.D.

- ✚ To take control over your triggers, it's crucial to understand your personal childhood emotional neglect experience. Then, go down the path of reconnecting with your feelings and learn how to identify, differentiate, accept, and process them. - Jonice Webb Ph.D.
- ✚ Learn to be content with God's provision. Everything you have even your ability to earn a living comes from God. He's promised to provide for your needs and He's always faithful. So pray for a spirit of contentment. – Faith FI
- ✚ The Bible says in Proverbs 3:5, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding." Your emotions would come under the heading, "your own understanding." – Rev. Bob White
- ✚ We are to walk by faith and not by sight. We should not allow our emotions to control our lives or our relationships with others. – Rev. Bob White
- ✚ We are not to suppress our emotions but we must not trust them or allow them to control us. – Rev. Bob White
- ✚ The Word of God is our guidebook. – Rev. Bob White
- ✚ Do not let your thoughts tell you what reality is, only the Word of God can do this. The Scriptures help us identify the lies Satan tells us through our emotions. It helps us to identify the truth. – Rev. Bob White
- ✚ Read your Bible and believe what it says about you and not what you are feeling through your emotions. – Rev. Bob White
- ✚ Be thankful and let go of guilt and other negative emotions by focusing on the precious blood of Jesus. Thankfulness is a daily decision we make. – Rev. Bob White
- ✚ Isaiah 61 talks about the garment of praise. The Bible says to put it on and focus on Heaven not the things of this earth. – Rev. Bob White
- ✚ There is not a single area in our lives that God does not deeply care about, and he desires that we take every need, care, and concern to him in prayer. This also includes our finances. – Christin
- ✚ Pray that God's will be done in our lives, and for Him to be honored in our financial decisions. – Christin
- ✚ As you begin to pray for financial breakthrough, remember that God owns it all. He powerfully spoke this world into existence, and He owns cattle on a thousand hills (Psalm 50:10). - Christin
- ✚ Think of all the precious stones, diamonds, rubies, and pure gold that there is on the earth. God owns it all because He is the Creator of it all! Whenever we feel a sense of lack in our own lives, all we need to do is remember that our Abba Father has everything we need! – Christin

- ✚ Scriptures reveal God's power and sovereignty over everything. Since He owns everything, without Him, we would have nothing! Remember that God is Creator and Ruler over all the earth. – Christin
- ✚ Lord, thank you that you created the heavens and the earth, and everything in them. Both riches and honor come from you, and you own everything! – Christin
- ✚ As I pray for financial breakthrough in my life, help me to remember everything I need comes from you. You are a gracious God, and you willingly give and provide all that I need. Amen. – Christin
- ✚ Not only does God own everything, He graciously put us in charge of taking care of the earth. After God created the world we live in, He charged Adam & Eve to be faithful stewards over the earth, to fill the earth & rule over it with wisdom & authority (Genesis 1:28.) – Christin
- ✚ Lord, thank you that you have entrusted me to manage and steward my finances with wisdom and diligence. Help me to grow in wisdom as I seek to honor you through my finances. – Christin
- ✚ Lord, help me to budget my money well, work hard, and save the resources you have given to me. Please allow my diligence in stewarding what you have given me to bring a powerful financial breakthrough in my life. Amen. – Christin
- ✚ Since God owns everything and has entrusted what he has to us, we can truly give with a grateful heart, because we serve a wonderfully generous God. - Christin
- ✚ Even in times of financial difficulty and hardship, a heart that gives out of gratitude and thankfulness will be richly rewarded. – Christin
- ✚ Lord, because you have freely given to me, help me to freely give back to you and to those around me. Even in the midst of financial difficulty, help me to wisely and generously give to those who are in need. – Christin
- ✚ Your Word says that a generous person will prosper, and whoever refreshes those will be refreshed (Proverbs 11:25). Thank you that I can give from the fullness and abundance that you have given to me. Amen. – Christin
- ✚ Although we have many wants, we rest in his truth that whatever we are in need of, he will provide for us. Pray, stand firm on his Word, and trust that our Lord who holds all things in his hands, will provide for your every need! – Christin
- ✚ If we never went through trials, we wouldn't have the need for faith. But when we do, we come out the other end stronger. – Colton Dixon
- ✚ Lord, thank you that you graciously provide all my needs according to your riches in glory (Philippians 4:19). – Christin
- ✚ Thank you that I am worth more than many sparrows. If you provide for the birds of the air, help me to trust that you will provide and meet the needs of me and my family. – Christin

- ✚ Thank you Lord, that I can trust you to provide for me as I lift up my prayer for financial breakthrough to your throne of grace. Amen. – Christin
- ✚ Lord, thank You for preparing a place for me in glory! Help me to remember that the material & physical things of this world is not all there is. When I meet You face-to-face, I will inherit all of the eternal blessings from Your Word. What a wonderful day that will be! – Christin
- ✚ Help me to Faithfully serve you on this earth, knowing that I will inherit eternal rewards that are beyond my wildest imagination. I pray that I will one day hear you say, “Well done good and faithful servant.” Amen. – Christin
- ✚ When you give up hope, you are saying that God is not able. You are saying that you do not believe. – Donnie Swaggart
- ✚ The world is a very uncertain place, but our God is faithful. – Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Don't let the fear stop you from doing what only YOU can do. As long as you put yourself out there, you are helping people! – coachpony
- ✚ Stressful people will try to take you on an emotional ride with them. Don't get on their emotional bus. Listen, talk, and communicate, but don't let them control you by triggering unnecessary negative emotions. – Mark Stibich
- ✚ A person who doesn't care has tremendous power. U can't change or control people but u can control how u react to them. By taking the power of your response & reaction into your hands u not only provide a protective barrier, u may just take the power away from them.– Mark Stibich
- ✚ When meeting with a stressful person, know beforehand what you need from the meeting. What are your goals? Keep those objectives in mind as the conversation ebbs and flows. Bring the talk back to your goals. – Mark Stibich
- ✚ After your encounter with a particularly stressful person, don't dwell on it. If things went badly, do your best to rectify it or move on. You can be fairly certain that the stressful person isn't thinking about you and is on to the next victim. – Mark Stibich
- ✚ Replaying a stressful situation in your mind over and over again doesn't do you any good and could actually cause you to relive the stress you've already experienced. - Kathy Gruver, Ph.D.
- ✚ The brain can't tell the difference between what we are thinking about and what is really happening. So, if we are reliving or dwelling on something negative that happened in the past, we will re-experience a stress response in our bodies. – Kathy Gruver, Ph.D.
- ✚ Focusing on the possible negative outcome of a situation only projects negative thoughts into the future. A way to avoid worst-case-scenario thinking is to stay in the present. – Kathy Gruver, Ph.D.

- ✚ To conquer procrastination, set a long-term goal and then set smaller goals to reach it. When you do something in small, 'bite-size' pieces, it allows you to get a sense of accomplishment and creates positive reinforcements that motivate you to continue. – Diane Lang, M.A.
- ✚ Live in reality with Jesus Christ at the center. – John Piper
- ✚ By grace alone, through faith alone, on the basis of the work of Christ alone, we stand on the glorious rock of the forgiveness of our sins, our acceptance with God, the removal of our guilt, the canceling of our debts. – John Piper
- ✚ Apart from Christ, we are constantly striving toward love, toward acceptance, toward forgiveness. – John Piper
- ✚ There is no such thing as luck – period. What the world calls luck is God's providence. – John Piper
- ✚ The Bible teaches that God created humanity in His own image. Every individual carries a reflection of God's nature and possesses inherent worth and dignity. God's intention in creating humanity was to have a relationship with them, to love & give them purpose. – bibleversesnow
- ✚ The purpose of human existence, as revealed in the Bible, is to know God, to love Him, and to glorify Him in all aspects of life. - bibleversesnow
- ✚ The Bible consistently emphasizes the value and worth of every individual. It teaches that God's love is unconditional and that His grace is available to all who seek Him. - bibleversesnow
- ✚ Jesus Himself taught about the immense value of individuals, stating that not even a sparrow falls to the ground without God's knowledge and care, and that humans are of far greater value than many sparrows. - bibleversesnow
- ✚ Despite being chosen by God to lead the Israelites out of slavery, Moses initially doubted his abilities and questioned his worthiness. Yet, God reassured Moses of His presence, promised to equip him, and ultimately used him mightily. - bibleversesnow
- ✚ Gideon, a judge and leader of Israel, struggled with feelings of inadequacy when called by God to deliver his people from oppression. God patiently affirmed Gideon's calling, empowering him to achieve victory and overcome his doubts. - bibleversesnow
- ✚ Tho anointed as king of Israel, David faced numerous challenges & periods of self-doubt. He expressed feelings of unworthiness & questioned God's faithfulness. However, David ultimately found solace in God's steadfast love & grace experiencing restoration & triumph. – bibleversesnow
- ✚ By surrendering fears & inadequacies to God & relying on His wisdom & guidance, individuals can shift their perspective & embrace the truth that their worth & abilities come from God, enabling them to step out in faith & pursue their calling with confidence. – bibleversesnow
- ✚ Through prayer, meditation, and cultivating a personal relationship with God, individuals can draw strength and wisdom from His presence. - bibleversesnow

- ✚ By relying on God’s wisdom and leaning on His strength, individuals can overcome imposter syndrome and embrace their true identity and calling in Him. - bibleversesnow
- ✚ By acknowledging that abilities are gifts from God, individuals shift their mindset of self-doubt to one of gratitude & stewardship. Embracing & developing these God-given talents allows individuals to use them for the glory of God & the benefit of others. – bibleversesnow
- ✚ Embracing God’s grace and gifts involves recognizing and appreciating the talents and abilities given by God, understanding that success comes from Him, and serving others with humility and gratitude. - bibleversesnow
- ✚ Counter the lie “I’m not qualified” with Philippians 4:13: “I can do all things through him who strengthens me.” God equips and empowers individuals for the tasks He has called them to. - bibleversesnow
- ✚ Counter the lie “I’m a fraud” with Psalm 139:14: “I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.” God has fearfully and wonderfully created each individual, and their accomplishments are a reflection of His work in and through them. - bibleversesnow
- ✚ Counter the lie “I’ll be exposed” with Psalm 32:8: “I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with my eye upon you.” God promises to guide and direct His people, providing wisdom and support along the way. - bibleversesnow
- ✚ Counter the lie “Everyone else is more competent” with 2 Corinthians 10:12: “But when they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with one another, they are without understanding.” – bibleversesnow
- ✚ Each person has a unique purpose and calling, and comparisons undermine the value and uniqueness God has placed in each individual. - bibleversesnow
- ✚ Remember - A Faith that is shaken will be strengthened by the Word of God. There is so much comfort built into the Word of God. – Karen DelTatto
- ✚ I can always count on verses of Scripture to first and foremost redirect my thoughts from self and circumstances, to a God who knows my thoughts even when I may not understand them myself, and second to bring about a peace that indeed surpasses all understanding. – Karen DelTatto
- ✚ I have a situation that has been weighing heavy on my mind and has been shaking my faith a bit. I knew that by opening the Word of God, my shaken faith would be strengthened and that the Lord would calm my fears. – Karen DelTatto
- ✚ When your faith is shaken, remember to turn to your Bibles and read. The Lord will give clarity to tragic circumstances, perseverance for lasting trials, reassurance that He hears your prayers and answers to that which you are doubting. – Karen DelTatto

- ✚ Remember - A Faith that is shaken will be upheld by the Power of God. When your faith is shaken, remembering the fact that God is omnipotent (all powerful) will uphold you through the storm. – Karen DeiTatto
- ✚ If God has power over the wind, gravity & physics, things that the human mind can study but might not truly understand, we can know that even though we can't see God or feel Him, we experience His power through all of these things for God's power is limitless. – Karen DeiTatto
- ✚ God's power is limitless. He certainly has the power to uphold your shaken faith and restore your confidence in Him. – Karen DeiTatto
- ✚ If you are only focusing on your trials or doubts, you are not looking to the power of God to accomplish all that concerns you. By understanding that the power of God works in and through you, your faith will not be shaken. – Karen DeiTatto
- ✚ When your faith is shaken, remember Who upholds you by His righteous right hand. It is the Lord Almighty whose power created you and sustains you. – Karen DeiTatto
- ✚ Remember - A Faith that is shaken will be in the protective presence of the Lord. As children of God, we are constantly in the presence of the Lord. His Word tells us that there is no place we can go where He is not with us. – Karen DeiTatto
- ✚ When you remember that your Heavenly Father holds you, you will rest in the fact that He will steady you when your faith is shaken, and His protective presence will go with you through the storm and guide you into all understanding. – Karen DeiTatto
- ✚ Remember - A Faith that is shaken will be covered by the Grace of God. At the moment of salvation, the Grace of God makes us right with God. We have received unmerited favor from Him. – Karen DeiTatto
- ✚ When you remember that God's favor rests upon you thru, any shame you are personally feeling or any disillusionment you are having with God, you can know that He will redeem that shaken faith & bring you thru like refined gold through fire. – Karen DeiTatto
- ✚ When you have been suffering for a long time or when a prayer has gone unanswered for years or when doubts about your faith keep creeping in, no matter how you may be feeling about God, the Lord STILL loves you! Nothing can change that! – Karen DeiTatto
- ✚ The children of God have been created in the image of God. As such, you are ETERNALLY loved by God! NOTHING can take that love away from you! – Karen DeiTatto
- ✚ When you remember that God loves you even when your faith is shaken, that shaken faith will turn around to fortified faith. For His love sheds light on ALL Truth and will dispel the lies that shook your faith in the first place. – Karen DeiTatto
- ✚ When your faith is shaken, remember that the Lord will not forsake you. When you focus on this Truth, you will feel Him supply your courage and strength, and your faith with sore! – Karen DeiTatto

- ✚ God has a plan for each of our lives. He has given us talents, abilities & skills to help people & accomplish the things He wants us to accomplish. Whatever gifts we have received, God gave them to use for the purpose of serving others. – Charles Stanley
- ✚ Being a good steward requires more than sitting in a pew on Sundays. No matter how little we think we have to offer, God wants us to make ourselves available for service. – Charles Stanley
- ✚ Instead of using our difficult backgrounds, inadequacies, or past failures as excuses, we should do our best and trust the Lord to work through us. No matter what we do or whom we serve, we're working for Jesus, even in the most menial work. – Charles Stanley
- ✚ One of the reasons the Lord gives us spiritual gifts is to make us into the people He wants us to be and to accomplish His purpose through us. We won't realize our potential until we put our gifts into action. – Charles Stanley
- ✚ We should never underestimate what God can do in our lives. He can miraculously open doors and provide the resources we need to succeed. – Charles Stanley
- ✚ As a young child, I seldom got rewarded or acknowledged over my accomplishments -but it was my "mentor" that said, "I'm proud of you" and that made my day. By saying, "I'm proud of you" is one of the greatest compliment when it's meant with sincerity. – Angela Carleton
- ✚ When someone tells you that they are proud of you, it means that in their eyes you have come a long way from a place you began. You have overcome something you may not had confidence in yourself to succeed. – Jess Fozdahl
- ✚ When someone tells you that they are proud of you, they note your hard work and dedication. You have done well for yourself and they noticed. – Jess Fozdahl
- ✚ He is everything we need in life! Amen! – Brother Dave Lombardi
- ✚ How comforting to know that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, serves as our advocate or defense attorney, who is seated at the right hand of God, as he ever makes intercession for us. Thank God that he is "a lawyer in the courtroom." and that he has "never lost a case." – Drlej
- ✚ Problems are platforms of opportunity for our Lord Jesus Christ. He does His best work in the valley seasons. He is in the miracle business and makes a way out of no way, all the time. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ You are not the same person when you survive a storm. They are designed to draw us closer to Him. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ Don't allow fear or anxiety to overtake you. Do not borrow tomorrow's trouble; stay focused on today. Be present in the moment. – Melinda Emerson

- ✚ Do things to block out the noise of life so that you can stay encouraged and feel God's presence. Start your day with prayer, meditation, or spiritual music to level set you to tackle the day. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ What a blessing it is to serve a God who can make your worst day your best decision in the long run. God's ways are not our ways, he wants us to be obedient to him, and he will direct our path. He loves us and only wants the best for us. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ Hope is such a gift from God. We must pray daily for God to show us how he wants us to walk in this life. By learning God's truth, you can recognize foolishness and remove yourself from it quickly. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ We are in this world, but it's important that we do not become of this world. We live in a world filled with evil and sin. When we meditate on God's word, we transform our hearts and minds. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ Words are powerful. You can speak life and death with your tongue. Try not to complain too much or make things deeply personal. You must avoid that kind of negative energy. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ To me He's become everything. He's everything that I need. He's the future, the past, the first and the last, to me He's become everything. - Jimmy Swaggart
- ✚ When I wake up each morning, He's right by my side. At night He's my last thought in mind. He's joy for each moment, He's hope that faith brings. To me He's become everything. - Jimmy Swaggart
- ✚ With God's help, you can stop worrying and trust Him more. – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ You probably already know that worrying isn't good for you and it certainly doesn't increase your happiness or sense of self-worth. Worrying may even be costing you more than only your peace of mind (which is highly valuable, by the way). – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ God wants you to stop worrying. God already knows your thoughts. He doesn't want you to focus on things that are outside of your control. God wants you to trust him instead of ruminating on worrisome things all day long. – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ God wants you to stop worrying so you can have victory in Jesus. – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ Satan would love nothing more than to keep you in a state of anxiety, doubt, and fear. If he can trap you in worry, he knows you won't reach your full potential for what God wants to do through you. – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ God can help you overcome by his power and strength. You don't have to rely on your own willpower. – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ Surrender the things you cannot control to God and focus on the things you can control. What you focus on grows, so make sure you are focusing on the right things. – Jessica Oberreuter

- ✚ God is in control of everything. He is the only one who has perfect control over everything in your life. God loves you unconditionally and allows all things to work together for your good, even things you may worry about (Rom. 8:28). – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ Every day, you can offer up your worries to God in prayer. Hand them over to him and trust him to take care of those matters. Do this as many times as needed to surrender to God, and you'll experience God's perfect peace. – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ So many of our worries are rooted in an unknown future. The time that we spend worrying about the future could be better spent in so many ways. If we stay stuck in a scary, unknown future, our joy for the present day can be sapped away. – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ Instead of repeating things you worry about in your mind, you can repeat God's Word through meditation. Christian meditation is simply focusing on God's Word and thinking about it deeply. It's also a proven way to decrease stress and increase peace. – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ It's important to tell yourself the truth about the situation that causes you to worry. You may believe Satan's lies about that problem. When we tell ourselves the truth about our worries, the lies fade away and our faith can grow stronger. – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ "The Lord is going before me today. He is with me and will not leave or forget me. I choose to trust him." – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ "God is my shield against anxious thoughts. He will help me fight them off today." – Jessica Oberreuter
- ✚ "I am trusting in God as my Rock today. I will not allow worry to defeat me, because I'm standing firm on the Rock." – Jessica Oberreuter

- ✦ I realized the root of my fear: distrust of God. I was afraid because I felt out of control – and I like to be in control. I want to be self-reliant and independent. – Jaquelle Crowe
- ✦ Fear is rooted in pride. We aren't humble enough to believe that God is in control, that he is good, and that he loves us. – Jaquelle Crowe
- ✦ All fear comes from pride, but especially fear of the future. This fear is fueled by trusting in our feelings. Therefore, the only way we can combat it is by trusting in truth. – Jaquelle Crowe
- ✦ Once I realized my fear was a pride problem, I was forced to repent. At this point, I had to surrender my will and selfish desire for control. – Jaquelle Crowe
- ✦ When we are weak, God is strong. As much as we hate our lack of control and power, that is a crucial part of our humanity. It reminds us that God is in control. God is sovereign. God is omnipotent and omniscient. Glory belongs only to him, now and forever. – Jaquelle Crowe

- ✦ God can change your trouble to triumph. – Wayne Stiles
- ✦ You may have experienced a terrible fallout from wrongs done to you or from wrongs you have done. The Lord can redeem the most awful of situations. – Wayne Stiles

- ✚ God promises to take the worst of what happened to you and work it for your good. Although what happened may have been evil, God has a higher plan that is impossible to understand. – Wayne Stiles
- ✚ The end doesn't justify the means. But God will still cause it work together for your good if you have placed your faith in Jesus Christ. – Wayne Stiles
- ✚ Allow God to heal us by coming to terms with our willful sin. As Christians, we have the promise that when we confess our buried, hidden sins, God will purify us from all unrighteousness—even from those sins buried so deep we don't know to confess them. – Wayne Stiles
- ✚ Forgiveness in Christ is not an emotion to feel. It is a promise to claim. - Wayne Stiles
- ✚ Your parents may have neglected you. Your friends may have abandoned you. Your employer may have used you. Your spouse may have forsaken you. But God is for you. – Wayne Stiles
- ✚ God promises that no one will thwart the process He began by predestining you to be conformed to the image of Christ. No charge can stick. God is the one in charge of the process. The promises of God confirm it. – Wayne Stiles
- ✚ Others may condemn you and pass judgment on your spiritual life—or even your salvation. But remember Jesus, the only One who condemns, is presently interceding for you. Talk about security! – Wayne Stiles
- ✚ Jesus Christ died for our sins, was buried, was raised, and now is at the right hand of God doing what? Condemning us? No, He is interceding for us. What a burden is lifted to look into your Judge's face and see a Savior! – Wayne Stiles
- ✚ No one will separate you from God's love. Nothing or no one can make Christ stop loving you—including you. – Wayne Stiles
- ✚ In spite of the raw emotions you feel in seasons of pain and confusion, you will experience nothing that CAN separate you from Christ's love. – Wayne Stiles
- ✚ Walk boldly to stand in His presence. Lay claim on the promise He made. Your soul can be cleansed beneath the flow of His fountain. His Blood washes guilt all away. - Dottie Rambo
- ✚ Just bring all your needs to the altar. Bring all your needs to the Lord. He is so willing and able to help you. Bring all your needs to the Lord. - Dottie Rambo
- ✚ He watches the fall of the sparrow, concerned with the lilies so fair. How much more He cares for the sheep of his pasture. So bring Him the burdens you bear. - Dottie Rambo
- ✚ Bring all your needs to the altar of God. He will provide for your needs, whatever they are. Do not give up. The Lord loves you. Listen to the lyrics of this song and be blessed, in Jesus name. Amen and Amen.

- ✚ We can often live in fear and anxiety because of Satan's lies. He seems to use tricks of “smoke and mirrors.” Jesus said that the devil is a liar—and the father of lies. – Maranatha-Baptist
- ✚ The devil cannot “make” us do anything, but he is a master deceiver who is very much experienced at making people believe anything that interferes with God’s plan. – Maranatha-Baptist
- ✚ Jesus Christ, in contrast, is called “the way, the truth, and the life,” and his plan is for each person to experience life “more abundantly.” – Maranatha-Baptist
- ✚ God is the creator of potential—and the completer of fulfillment. “I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me..” – Maranatha-Baptist
- ✚ Whether it is something people consider to be great or small, God looks on the heart, and the very act of seeking to serve him is a success. – Maranatha-Baptist
- ✚ The only way to never fail is to never attempt. So don’t be afraid to attempt that which God is leading you to do through prayerful and Biblical wisdom. Don’t fear and believe the lie of “I can’t.” – Maranatha-Baptist
- ✚ The devil lies. In fact, the devil doesn’t know how to speak the truth. – Joyce Meyer
- ✚ We can break the strongholds the devil has built in our minds. The Bible tells us that when we know the truth, that truth will free us from Satan’s strongholds. – Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Worry worships the words of the enemy. - T.D. Jakes

- ✚ The devil may bring unexpected storms to your boat on the sea of life. But faith in God’s promises enables you to be fearless in the face of a roaring ocean. – Kenneth Hagin

- ✚ God is with you. He loves you and is for you. He is your refuge – your hiding place. God is greater than any issue you face. – Kenneth Hagin
- ✚ Too often people talk about their problems instead of what the Word promises. We have to quit talking about the devil and instead focus on God and His ability to deliver us. – Kenneth Hagin
- ✚ God is able to do what He has promised. And He wants His promises to come alive in your life. – Kenneth Hagin
- ✚ He is the Lord God Almighty. He is Jehovah Rapha, the Lord our Healer. He is El Shaddai, the God who is more than enough. – Kenneth Hagin
- ✚ When everything you is shaking, you can't go under when your trust is in God! – Kenneth Hagin
- ✚ Understand you overcome through faith and patience. It takes faith to do what God says to do. He wants us to trust Him, not ourselves. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ When you engage your faith with action, God will bless you, and you will walk in victory. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ Allow God's truth to be your greatest influence. Choose the Lord. Allow Him to be the one who directs your attention, your time, your money, your affections. – Debbie Schreve
- ✚ Scripture tells us that we are to offer up to God a sacrifice of praise. – Rabbi Schneider
- ✚ It is easy to praise Him when everything is going well. But when things are contrary, we need to stir ourselves up, recall all of His marvelous promises, and recount every time that He has brought us through. – Rabbi Schneider
- ✚ When we just lost our job and are now sure how we will pay the bills – Praise Him anyways. When we or a loved one is sick or going through a trial – Praise Him like we mean it! – Rabbi Schneider
- ✚ Praise shifts the atmosphere and translates us into the realm of the Holy Spirit. When the world is out of control and has run amok – Sing even louder! No matter what it appears like, God is faithful. – Rabbi Schneider
- ✚ You'll never find true satisfaction in pleasures and possessions. When we seek fulfillment in life's gifts, rather than in the Giver of all good things, we will always come up empty. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ We must lock the doors of our hearts and never allow the thief of jealousy to enter. Jealousy will never bring anything positive into our lives; instead, it will take away more than we can imagine. – James Merritt
- ✚ To spot a false teacher, you'll need to be feeding on God's Word for yourself! Then you'll be able to weigh the things you hear against God's truth. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ We need to listen to what the Spirit is saying to the Church! – Aquilla Nash

- ✚ Wake up America! It's time to pray! – Aquilla Nash
- ✚ Bitterness is like a hidden root that can cause lasting damage, much like the unseen roots of a tree. It can fester within us, affecting our words & actions & corroding our peace of mind. – James Merritt
- ✚ Bitterness can seep into every aspect of our lives, leaving us feeling drained and defeated. – James Merritt
- ✚ Bitterness is like a vicious weed that starts small but quickly spreads, choking out everything in its path. It will poison every aspect of your life, from your relationship with God to your connections with others and even your own sense of self. – James Merritt
- ✚ The mental image of the person you are bitter towards will follow you like a shadow. Bitterness will spread like a disease, affecting every aspect of your life – your mind, spirit, and even your physical health. – James Merritt
- ✚ Bitterness can be like a self-made prison, where you lock up the person who has hurt you and guard the door. The only way to break free from this cycle and release yourself from bitterness is to also release the person you are bitter towards. – James Merritt
- ✚ To overcome bitterness and find peace, let me encourage you to just let go of the hurt and forgive. It may be difficult, but it's the best cure for a bitter heart. – James Merritt
- ✚ Eliminating bitterness is tough, but worth it. It's not easy, but once you do, you'll experience better health, freedom, and peace. If you are finding it difficult to move forward, ask the Holy Spirit to guide and support you along the way. – James Merritt
- ✚ If you feel you have a calling of God upon your life and you continue to put it off, I encourage you to obey your calling. The Lord will make a way for you to do what He wants for your life. Put your trust in Him. – Aquilla Nash
- ✚ As you wait upon the Lord, He will restore your health and refresh your spirit. He will give you a new song in the darkest midnight and turn your mourning into dancing. – John Hagee
- ✚ When you cry out to God, you can be confident that He hears you. He knows the pain in your heart. – John Hagee
- ✚ If you don't know what to pray, ask the Holy Spirit to intercede for you. Let the Holy Spirit be your Partner in faith and lead you every step of the way to your miracle. – John Hagee
- ✚ God wants to spend time with you. – Jentezen Franklin
- ✚ God is always read to speak to you! He'll speak direction, instruction, comfort, encouragement, hope, wisdom & strength. – Jentezen Franklin

- ✚ Beloved, there is no other like our God, for He is the creator of all and is so worthy to be praised! – Rabbi Schneider
- ✚ When God fights your battles, the result is always victory. – Joyce Meyer
- ✚ Faith does not operate in the realm of the possible. There is no glory for God in that which is humanly possible. Faith begins where man's power ends. - George Mueller
- ✚ The beginning of anxiety is the end of faith, and the beginning of true faith is the end of anxiety. - George Muller
- ✚ The first great and primary business to which I ought to attend every day is to have my soul happy in the Lord. - George Mueller
- ✚ Be assured, if you walk with Him and look to Him, and expect help from Him, He will never fail you. - George Mueller
- ✚ Laying up treasures in heaven will draw the heart heavenward. - George Muller

- ✚ What Does It Mean to Trust God? To trust is to believe in the reliability, truth, ability or strength of something. So, when it comes to trusting God, that means believing in His reliability, His Word, His ability and His strength. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ The Bible says that God cannot lie. That He always keeps His promises. That He loves you and has good in store for you. Trusting in Him means believing what He says about Himself, about the world and about you is true. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ Trusting God is more than a feeling; it's a choice to have faith in what He says even when your feelings or circumstances would have you believe something different. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ Your feelings and circumstances can change at any moment, even in an instant. God, on the other hand, does not change. He is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow and therefore is worthy of your trust. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ Trusting God is not about ignoring your feelings or reality. It is not pretending that everything is OK when it isn't. Trusting God is living a life of belief in and obedience to God even when it's difficult. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ Because God loves you, you can show your trust in Him by talking about all your feelings and circumstances with Him — the good and hard — through prayer. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ Don't let your emotions rule your life; bring them to God so He can help you address them. He is not disappointed or frustrated by your struggles, doubts or pain. He cares about you, and you can trust Him with those things. - Brittany Yesudasan

- ✚ When you trust, you go to God and His word when life is hard. You also act on obedience (doing what God says in His Word) and trust that He will ultimately take care of the rest. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ In trust, you do not look for security in other things; you look to God to hold you securely in difficult circumstances. You won't do this perfectly, but God is kind and patient with you while you learn to trust Him. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ Jesus cares for your hurts. He pays attention. How comforting it is to know that the God of the universe is also paying attention to you. Knowing that God is for you will strengthen your trust in Him during times of hardship and the unknown. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ The Bible is God's Word. God knows you need somewhere to go when you feel unsure. That place is His Word. It is unchanging & completely trustworthy. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ The Bible records ways God has responded in difficult times in the past. It reminds you that He is trustworthy whatever your circumstances. Many people in Scripture even reference other parts of Scripture to encourage themselves and those around them. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ If you don't run to the Word to remind you of truth in difficult times, it is easier for you to be led into lies about your life and who God is. You need a strong foundation of Scripture to stand on, especially when you feel uncertain. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ The Bible is God's unfailing, unchanging Word. You can cling to its truth when life throws you a curveball. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ Allow God to remind you who He is and what He promises, and then be honest with Him. You can tell God how you feel and in what areas of your life you are struggling to trust Him. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ This helps you accept that God is bigger than you could ever understand. Confession helps you to humble yourself and allows you to grow in trust. He hears your requests and answers them. He wants to help you grow your faith. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ The Holy Spirit lives in anyone who trusts in Jesus. The Holy Spirit is your constant helper, pointing you to Jesus. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ The Spirit comforts & reminds you of the truth, will lead you in obedience & will bring direction to you. Walking closely with the Spirit will remind you that you are not alone. God is not distant. He is with you in difficulty. He is making a way for you. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ The Holy Spirit will lead you to what you should do. Sometimes what you need to do is wait. Faithfully continue to seek the Lord, but wait on His timing. Wait on Him to act on your behalf. Wait on Him to do what you cannot do yourself. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ The Lord will help you wait with endurance. Waiting on the Lord reminds you that you are not in control. Thank goodness! He is bigger than any of your circumstances. He will sustain you and grow your faith in the waiting. - Brittany Yesudasan

- ✚ God is never neglecting your life. If He seems to be silent, remember His promise that He is always hearing your prayers and responding. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ Wait, trust and remember that God loves you. You can trust Him to sustain you, provide for you and be with you even in the midst of your hardship. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ God is completely trustworthy. He wants you to learn to trust Him as you get to know Him. You can get to know God through personal time with Him and through His Word. Spend time exploring aspects of His trustworthiness in verses of Scripture. - Brittany Yesudasan
- ✚ In times of doubt, remember God's promises. Remember who He has always been. Even in doubt and uncertainty, if you keep going to Him, He will continually show Himself to be trustworthy. - Brittany Yesudasan

- ✚ When God leads us to a dead-end, it is to teach us to trust Him for the way out. – James Merritt
- ✚ There is a school that God enrolls you in that you never graduate from, and it is called, "The school of faith." God wanted the nation of Israel to put a bumper sticker on every wagon and every chariot that they owned that read "In God we trust." – James Merritt
- ✚ It is not the good times that teach you to trust God; it is the bad times. – James Merritt

- ✚ You don't learn to trust God when the wind is at your back. You learn to trust God when the wind is in your face. – James Merritt
- ✚ When you have no other option but to trust God, that is when you come closest to God. That is when you come to know God the best and that is when you come to trust God the most. – James Merritt
- ✚ There are times that God leads us to detours and dead ends. Just because you may have your back against the wall does not mean you are out of the will of God. It can very well mean you are absolutely in the will of God. – James Merritt
- ✚ Keep this one principle in mind. God cannot lead you to cross the Red Sea until He leads you to come to the Red Sea. For in that Red Sea moment, He is asking you, "Do you trust me or not?" – James Merritt

- ✚ Fear often stops us from doing something important, saying something that needs to be said, or even doing something God has called us to do. In our moments of fear, God calls us to trust Him, "When I am afraid, I put my trust in you" (Psalm 56:3). – Hope For the Heart
- ✚ Realize, you don't face your fears alone. The Lord promises to be with you. As you reflect on His presence and His promises, the Lord helps you move from fear to faith. – Hope For the Heart
- ✚ Focus on your fear, and your panic will increase. Focus on your Shepherd, and your heart will be at peace. – Hope For the Heart

"Without Him" - Heritage Singers

Without Him I could do nothing. Without Him I'd surely fail. Without Him I would be drifting, like a ship without a sail.

Jesus, oh Jesus. Do you know Him today? Please don't turn Him away. Oh Jesus, my Jesus.

Without Him how lost would I be.

- ✚ Be tenacious in using God's Word to rein in your fears. – Hope For the Heart
- ✚ Be focused on facing your fear through the power of Christ. Ask God for the grace to know that Christ is always ready to respond to your needs. – Hope For the Heart
- ✚ Acknowledge Christ's presence in your life and call for His help. Trust in the faithfulness of God to meet all your needs through Christ. – Hope For the Heart
- ✚ Remember that Christ has gone before you and prepared the way for you to go. Release your fear to Him and receive His powerful love. – Hope For the Heart
- ✚ Act in love toward others by focusing on their needs and relying on Christ. – Hope For the Heart
- ✚ 3 Ways to Trust God with Your Finances:
 - (1) Remember who owns it all. The earth is the Lord's, and all it contains, the world, and those who dwell in it. ...
 - (2) Live generously. Give, and it will be given to you. ...
 - (3) Practice good stewardship.- Christ Fellowship Church
- ✚ We tend to separate our financial life from our Spiritual life. Whether we like it or not, money is tied to our hearts and is an important part of our Spiritual journey. – Christ Fellowship Church
- ✚ When we work hard for our money, it's easy to shift into an ownership mindset. But the truth is, when we surrender our lives to God, we recognize Him as the rightful owner and Lord of it all. – Christ Fellowship Church.
- ✚ Every time you get a paycheck, pause and say a prayer of gratitude to God for the ability to produce wealth. The more we acknowledge God as the owner, the more we can shift into a mindset of a steward—a manager of God's money. – Christ Fellowship Church
- ✚ Superstitious actions are incompatible with faith in Christ. – trekkie4christ
- ✚ The truth is, there are many gods and idols in America today, but there is only one true and living God, and that is Christ Jesus. Simply put, there is but one God, and He is Lord of all! – David W. Lankford
- ✚ Today, America has too many false gods and too many idols. There is but one Lord and one God, and He is the Lamb of God who was slain from the foundation of the world. – David W. Lankford

- ✚ During the days of Josiah, sin abounded as never before. The same can be said about America today. As a nation, America has become enamored with sexualization. Perversity has exploded throughout every aspect and segment of our nation. – David W. Lankford
- ✚ If men do not soon stand and cry aloud against the sins of this nation, we will become as Sodom and Gomorrah, and God will have no recourse but to destroy this nation with a fiery holocaust. – David W. Lankford
- ✚ What America needs is an old fashioned Holy Ghost revival amongst Christians, which then leads to an American awakening amongst unbelievers. – David W. Lankford

- ✚ Leave everything in God's hands and eventually you'll see God's hand in everything. – Boyd Bailey
- ✚ I've never regretted giving anything to the Lord, but I have regretted taking it back. I'm learning to trust the hands—of the One whose handiwork declares His glory! – Boyd Bailey
- ✚ Isaiah poetically and beautifully describes us as servants of the Lord chosen and accepted by Him. No need to fear or be dismayed, because the presence of God is pronounced and personal. – Boyd Bailey
- ✚ God strengthens and helps His children by His Spirit and upholds those He loves by His totally trustworthy right hand. – Boyd Bailey
- ✚ Jesus died and committed His spirit to His Father so He might fulfill the promises of God—salvation for all who believe and the sufficiency of His grace to name two. – Boyd Bailey
- ✚ Faith unfolds by leaving everything in God's hands and by beholding His hands in all things. – Boyd Bailey
- ✚ Place your fear in the hands of the One whose hand calmed the sea, and He will calm your heart. – Boyd Bailey
- ✚ Leave your hurt in the hands of the One whose hand gave sight to the the blind, and He will heal your wounded heart. – Boyd Bailey
- ✚ Put your financial desires in the hands of the One who owns everything, and He will give you peace and security. – Boyd Bailey
- ✚ Put your personal view in the hands of the One whose perspective is perfect and He will give you clarity. – Boyd Bailey
- ✚ The joy of leaving everything in the Lord's hands is seeing the Lord's hand in everything. An answer of "no" today, becomes God's better answer of "yes" tomorrow. – Boyd Bailey

- ✚ By faith, leave everything and everyone in the Lord's hands and begin to look for His hand at work through everything and everyone. – Boyd Bailey
- ✚ Heavenly Father, help me leave everything in Your hands so I can see in everything the work of Your hand. – Boyd Bailey
- ✚ There's hope, and it starts with God's Word. When you're weary, stressed, and burdened by life ... Jesus invites you to find rest in Him. – Jennifer McIntosh
- ✚ God isn't just concerned with the "big" struggles. Or what we might perceive as "more important" needs. God has a plan for the stress and worry in our everyday lives. – Jennifer McIntosh
- ✚ God desires more than anything for your heart to be whole – and at peace – in Him. God's plan is to set you free from the unrest you feel and find peaceful rest in Him. –Jennifer McIntosh
- ✚ If you want to find peace in times of stress, come to the Lord and find the rest you're looking for in Him. God's hope and healing are available to you right now. – Jennifer McIntosh
- ✚ Hell never ends. It's one of Satan's biggest lies. – Anthony Wynn
- ✚ Moses knew that the pleasures of sin are "fleeting." They are temporary. They do not last. Even if this is for a lifetime, when it is over, all pleasure is gone forever. Think of it! Eternity without one second of enjoyment. – Orthodox Presbyterian Church
- ✚ I just wanna speak the name of Jesus over every heart and every mind.
'Cause I know there is peace within Your presence I speak Jesus.
'Til every dark addiction starts to break, declaring there is hope & there is freedom.
I speak Jesus.

- ✚ There are 2 judgments we read about in the New Testament. There is a judgment of unbelievers at the Great White Throne spoken of in Revelation and another of believers at the Bema Seat of Christ, to which 2 Corinthians 5 and Romans 14 refer... - Richard Caldwell

- ✚ ...Unbelievers will be judged regarding their sins. Their sin debt is still there before God, and without Christ, it will result in their damnation... - Richard Caldwell

- ✚ ...Believers will not be judged for their sins. Our sins were judged on the tree, in Christ's own body, and paid for in full. But we will be judged regarding our works in every realm of life. We will be judged by what passes the test of Christ's gaze... - Richard Caldwell

- ✚ ...The nature of the believers' judgment is positive. It isn't so much about what we lose but what we gain, what will be rewardable on that day... - Richard Caldwell

- ✚ ...What we do here as Christians, how we handle the responsibilities God gives us, how we use our time and resources and how we live out our lives really does matter, and one day we will have to give an accounting for it. - Richard Caldwell

- ✚ Prayer is important because God wants you to communicate with Him. He wants to know your heart's desires, your pains, stresses, sicknesses, family issues, or miseries. – Mount Olive Tribune

- ✚ Prayer is important because God wants you to communicate with Him. He wants to know where and what he can mend, and in what areas He can bless you. – Mount Olive Tribune

- ✚ Why pray? For one thing, prayer is a form of serving God (Luke 2:36-38) and obeying Him. We pray because God commands us to pray (Philippians 4:6-7). – Gotquestions

- ✚ Why pray? Prayer is exemplified for us by Christ and the early church (Mark 1:35; Acts 1:14; 2:42; 3:1; 4:23-31; 6:4; 13:1-3). If Jesus thought it was worthwhile to pray, we should also. – Gotquestions
- ✚ For situations in which we do not know God's will specifically, prayer is a means of discerning His will – Gotquestions
- ✚ Prayers un-prayed will be prayers unanswered. We will never see the results of answered prayer unless we pray. – Gotquestions
- ✚ A lack of prayer demonstrates a lack of faith & a lack of trust in God's Word. We pray to demonstrate our faith in God, that He will do as He has promised in His Word & bless our lives abundantly more than we could ask or hope for. – Gotquestions
- ✚ When we will die is not a matter of accident or chance; the Bible makes it clear that our lives are in God's hands. He knows the time of our death & He has even appointed it. – Billy Graham

- ✚ As God's Word, the Bible serves as the primary source of guidance and assurance on what happens to our loved ones after they pass away. It offers valuable insights that provide important glimpses of the divine plan for believers in heaven. - Crosswalk
- ✚ The Bible offers a profound promise of eternal life in heaven for those who have faith in Jesus Christ. – Crosswalk
- ✚ All the people we're grieving who have put their trust in Jesus for salvation have the promise of eternal life. This foundational belief also gives us hope as fellow believers for reuniting with our loved ones in heaven when our own earthly lives have concluded. - Crosswalk
- ✚ "We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord" (2 Cor 5:8). This verse suggests that when believers die, we are immediately in the presence of Jesus. It gives us confidence that our loved ones' absence from this world means they are with God in heaven. - Crosswalk
- ✚ Many people who haven't trusted Jesus don't have any hope of a good future after their earthly lives are over. But those of us who do trust Jesus do truly have the hope of heaven to look forward to one day. – Crosswalk
- ✚ The Bible's position on you and I is that we are by nature sinners. We were born that way, inherited from the first man and woman in what theologians call "the fall of man" in Genesis 3. – Sandy Mason
- ✚ The Bible is also really clear that you and I cannot clean ourselves up, cannot perform enough righteous deeds to outweigh the bad, or do enough religious ceremonies to put us in right standing with God. – Sandy Mason
- ✚ We need to be rescued. We are completely lost and bankrupt before a holy God. We cannot save ourselves, much to the chagrin of the modern mind. – Sandy Mason

- ✚ Until we believe that we are really lost and living under the judgement of a holy and righteous God, until we are ready to cry out and say, “have mercy on me, a sinner,” we will not really believe we need a Savior. – Sandy Mason
- ✚ The Bible teaches the resurrection of believers, which is the hope that one day, both the living and the deceased will be raised to new life in Christ. - Crosswalk
- ✚ The Bible provides numerous insights and promises about loved ones in heaven, offering profound comfort and hope to us when we’re grieving. - Crosswalk
- ✚ As we reflect on what the Bible says about loved ones in heaven, we find a rich tapestry of biblical teachings that affirm the reality of heaven as a place of unity, celebration, and everlasting communion with God and our loved ones. - Crosswalk
- ✚ Biblical truths provide comfort and assurance after our beloved family and friends pass away. It reminds us of the profound hope that awaits us in the presence of our Creator. - Crosswalk
- ✚ Heaven is not just a distant and mysterious realm, but a real place where we can enjoy reunion and eternal communion with both God and our loved ones. – Crosswalk
- ✚ Courageous faith is forged in difficult situations. The bigger the problem, the greater the miracle. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ Do you have a problem today? Your problem is an opportunity for God to work a miracle. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ God is at work even when you don’t see Him working. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ Courageous faith is energized by prayer and fasting. – Jeff Schreve
- ✚ Prayerlessness is the inevitable result of pride or a lack of faith—usually both. You fail to pray, instinctively, either because you are too proud to realize you need God or too unbelieving to grasp his willingness to help. – JD Greear
- ✚ If you are not praying, then you are quietly confident that time, money, and talent are all you need in life. But if, like Jesus, you realize you can’t do life on your own, then no matter how busy, no matter how tired you are, you will find the time to pray. – Paul Miller
- ✚ Pray like a kid. Which is to say, stop self-analyzing and just talk with your Dad. Jesus tells us to pray like children. – JD Greear
- ✚ Being with God is more important than reading him a laundry lists of requests. He already knows them anyway. And Jesus made it very clear that we gain nothing by puffing up our prayers to be longer. – JD Greear
- ✚ God uses our prayers to change things, but the right prayers come just from being with him. One prayer rightly prayed is worth far more than millions of words that don’t come from fellowship with him. – JD Greear

- ✚ Worry is faith in fear. - John Hagee
- ✚ Americans worry, and worry is a sin. It is neither insignificant, nor inconsequential. And for the Christian, it is absolutely contrary to faith in Christ. – John MacArthur
- ✚ Jesus categorically prohibited worry in a familiar portion of the Sermon on the Mount—Matthew 6:25-34. Three times in that short passage He commanded, "Do not worry!" – John MacArthur
- ✚ If you worry, what kind of faith do you manifest? "Little faith," according to Jesus (Matthew 6:30). – John MacArthur
- ✚ Now if you are a child of God, by definition you have a Heavenly Father. To act like you don't—nervously asking, "What shall I eat? What shall I drink? With what shall I clothe myself?"—is to act like an unbeliever in God's eyes (vv. 31-32). – John MacArthur
- ✚ Christians who worry believe God can redeem them, break Satan's shackles, take them from hell to heaven, & give them eternal life, but just don't think He can get them thru the next couple of days. That is pretty ridiculous. – John MacArthur
- ✚ Someone might say, "Why make a big deal out of worry? It's just a trivial sin." No, it is not. – John MacArthur
- ✚ I suspect a majority of mental illnesses & some physical illnesses are directly related to worry. Many cases of drunkenness & drug addiction are symptomatic of worry. And because of worry, many make foolish life decisions, incurring painful consequences. – John MacArthur
- ✚ Worry is devastating. But more important than what worry does to you is what you are communicating about God. When you worry you are saying in effect, "God, I just don't think I can trust You." Worry strikes a blow at the person and character of God. – John MacArthur
- ✚ The worrier disbelieves scripture. It is incongruous to say how much you believe the Bible and then worry about God fulfilling what He says in it. – John MacArthur
- ✚ When you worry, you are choosing to be mastered by your circumstances instead of by the truth of God. – John MacArthur
- ✚ The vicissitudes and trials of life pale in comparison to the greatness of salvation. – John MacArthur
- ✚ Jesus wants you to realize it doesn't make sense to believe God can save you from eternal hell, but not help you in the practical matters of life. – John MacArthur
- ✚ When you catch yourself worrying, go back to Scripture and let God open your eyes again. – John MacArthur
- ✚ When you worry, you are not trusting your Heavenly Father. That means you don't know Him well enough. – John MacArthur

- ✚ Study the Word of God to find out who He really is and how He has supplied the needs of His people in the past. That will build confidence for the future. – John MacArthur
- ✚ Stay fresh in the Word every day so that God is in your mind. Otherwise Satan is apt to move into the vacuum and tempt you to worry about something. – John MacArthur
- ✚ Let God's track record in Scripture assure you that worry is needless because of God's bounty & is senseless because of God's promise. – John MacArthur
- ✚ Worry is useless because of its impotence to do anything productive, and faithless because it is characteristic of unbelievers. – John MacArthur
- ✚ Jesus says, "Don't worry about the future. Even though it will have its share of problems, they have a way of working themselves out at the time. Just deal with them as they come, for there's no way to solve them in advance." – John MacArthur
- ✚ Worrying paralyzes you, making you too upset to accomplish anything productive. It will seek to do that to you by taking you mentally into tomorrow until you find something to worry about. – John MacArthur
- ✚ The Lord says you have enough to deal with today. Apply today's resources to today's needs or you will lose today's joy. – John MacArthur
- ✚ Today is all you really have, for God permits none of us to live in tomorrow until it turns into today. – John MacArthur
- ✚ God gives you strength one day at a time. He gives you what you need when you need it and doesn't encumber you with excess baggage. – John MacArthur
- ✚ God gives us His grace in the hour we need it. – John MacArthur
- ✚ Satan uses fear and doubt to negatively influence us. His goal is to instill fear and make us doubt God. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ To win battles you need to know your enemy, but more importantly, you need to know your enemy's tactics. This is especially true in a spiritual battle. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ Because he wants to steal souls from the Lord, Satan uses our weaknesses against us in order to cause us to sin, in hopes that we will stray from God and continue to live in sin. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ The Bible reveals to us the tactics that Satan uses and it also tells us exactly how to resist him so he will flee from us - and the good news is we are victorious in Christ! – Amy Blossom
- ✚ One of the tactics that Satan uses in his battle against us is fear and doubt. – Amy Blossom

- ✚ Fear is the anticipation of danger, evil, or pain that may be real or imaginary. It can be crippling and/or controlling and this is why fear is one of the tactics Satan uses to grab hold of us. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ Satan knows the weaknesses of our minds and uses these weaknesses to influence fear over us. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ Fear diminishes our courage and causes us to retreat, affects our ability to do the things we need to do, and steals our peace of mind. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ If you feel anything other than power, love or a sound mind in any situation, it's not coming from the Lord and goes against what the scriptures say about God's promises. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ Most of our fear is conjured up in our own minds. Most of what we are fearful of isn't a real threat or will never happen anyway. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ When we are faced with the unknown, we go through every "what if" scenario and usually end up landing on the worst case scenario as what we think the outcome will be. It's a crazy cycle but we allow ourselves to go through it. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ Satan wants us paralyzed by fear. Fear causes weakness and weakness will break us down. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ The devil uses fear to attack us & our relationship with God. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ Satan wants to stop or slow our spiritual growth, decrease our faith in God, confuse us in our calling, control us and keep us bound. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ Satan has been using doubt as a weapon since the Garden of Eden. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ Stand firm on the Word of God when doubts creep in. Be honest about your doubts, face them, commit your doubts to the Lord, & fill your heart and mind with God's Word. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ Satan uses doubt in order to move us away from God. He uses several tactics to do this, but with doubt, he makes it personal - he uses it in our relationship with God. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ Satan wants us to doubt God's love, grace and mercy towards us, our salvation, and the Word of God. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ It's God's love, grace and mercy that led Him to send Jesus Christ to the earth to lay down His life for us. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ When you accept the gift of salvation you begin to understand and accept all that the Word of God says and realize the TRUTH of His Word. – Amy Blossom
- ✚ It is up to us to seek the truth in the Word of God and stand up against the devil when he tries to use doubt against us. – Amy Blossom

- ✦ We need to learn to stop doubt in its tracks before it takes root. Remember that God's Word is TRUTH. And the truth is that Satan cannot touch you unless you let him. The cure for both fear and doubt is FAITH! – Amy Blossom
- ✦ Affirming God's Word will help to overcome any fears or doubts that may arise. – Amy Blossom
- ✦ I believe in the Name of Jesus Christ, therefore I am a child of God. (John 1:12)
- ✦ I am born again so the wicked one cannot touch me. (1 John 5:18)
- ✦ God in me is greater than he who is in the world. (1 John 4:4)
- ✦ I have authority from Christ Jesus to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing by any means can hurt me. (Luke 10:19)
- ✦ God is with me wherever I go, so I will not be afraid. (Isaiah 41:10)
- ✦ Fear and doubt do not come from the Lord. They are weapons used against us by the enemy to try to get us to turn away from God. – Amy Blossom
- ✦ To grow in our faith, we need to make it a point to get with God daily in prayer and keep our focus on Him at all times and in every situation. – Amy Blossom
- ✦ We need to read and study the Word of God in order to implant it on our hearts. And we need to give thanks and praise to the Lord for all He does for us. – Amy Blossom
- ✦ The awareness of God in all things will change the way you look at life. – Amy Blossom
- ✦ Do not put off until later what GOD has called you to do today. – Amy Blossom
- ✦ God sees you. Hold on and don't give up. God is working behind the scenes. You may not see it, feel it, or believe it. But He is. Trust Him. – Brother Dave

- ✚ Prayer is our connection to God and is how we build a relationship with Him. He is the branch, and we are the vines. We need to be connected to Him to bear His fruit. – Sue Miley
- ✚ God is the one in control, and through prayer, we acknowledge our dependence on Him, as it should be. – Sue Miley
- ✚ When we pray about our business, we acknowledge that God is the Lord of our whole lives. God cares about our business, too, and we trust Him with all of our lives. – Sue Miley
- ✚ Trusting God means always taking the high road and doing what is right, even if it isn't the most financially rewarding decision. Trusting Him means focusing on what is right, not the outcome. – Sue Miley
- ✚ Praying about our business direction helps us to align our vision with God's will for our business, not just what we want. – Sue Miley
- ✚ As Christians, we should trust and want God's will. He is God, so He is the obvious one to trust. – Sue Miley
- ✚ Aligning with God through prayer also guides our definition of business success to align with His view of success rather than the world's. There are more factors to business success than just revenues and profits.- Sue Miley

- ✚ Everyone has an inner voice that talks to them. All too often, that voice is obnoxious and negative. Be careful with your daily thoughts. You must teach yourself not to go negative. – Melinda Emerson

- ✚ We must always be mindful of our power source; it is not man. Our power comes from the one true living God. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ All that you have needed, His hand has provided. He is in the way-making business. The secret of confidence is the consciousness of the nearness of God. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ If God is a real refuge, strength, and help to His people, then there is no logical reason to fear, even in the biggest crisis. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ God has prepared good works for every believer to do. God will complete His good work in believers, and He works in them to act in accordance with His good purpose. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ God has promised to bless all those who fear Him and walk in His ways. One's physical or financial condition does not determine happiness but rather one's spiritual relationship with Him. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ Prayer is powerful. It will help you set your intention for your day. Make daily prayer a habit; the day's chaos will roll off you like water off a duck's back. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ It is never a good idea to waste time thinking about getting back at people. Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for Him; do not fret when men prosper in their wicked schemes. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ We should all look to God for help in difficult times. God Himself is a place of refuge. God is the strength for His people; God alone is our refuge and strength. – Melinda Emerson
- ✚ When we are weak, we need strength to get by. God is our strength. Prayer is the key. – Melinda Emerson

- ✚ Lord, thank you so much for my business. I know, just like everything else, even my business comes from You. Help me to follow Your ways in my work so that I can honor You and glorify You. – Sue Miley
- ✚ I pray I will not be overcome by fear and worry. I pray that I will stay the course and trust that the vision I have for my business is Your vision. – Sue Miley
- ✚ Fear comes in all different ways. It is the number one way the enemy comes to destabilize and undermine. – Graceandconfidence
- ✚ Get your eyes off your own performance and ability. It is about you obeying God, doing your best and letting God take care of the rest. – Graceandconfidence

- ✚ Fear only takes root and has a place when you start looking around at circumstances and yourself. Faith rises up when you hear what God has to say on the matter and you say 'yes Lord, I believe, all things are possible'. – Graceandconfidence
- ✚ Remind yourself what the bible says. The God who created the heavens and earth wants you to prosper and do well. He is with you, He has made you an overcomer. – Graceandconfidence
- ✚ When you fix your mind on faith and doing business supernaturally, you are going to overcome the challenge of fear and confidence. – Graceandconfidence
- ✚ Your confidence will come from walking with God, even in the times when it feels like you're alone. How? Because you've chosen to live by the word of God and you know He never leaves you. – Graceandconfidence
- ✚ You have a choice. You can try to deal with the reality of the fear and lack of confidence that arises, or you choose to live by the word of God. To not be of a doubtful mind. – Graceandconfidence
- ✚ To become what God has designed you to be is the goal. For that you need to learn to live by the word of God and build up your faith muscles in all circumstances. – Graceandconfidence
- ✚ You do yourself, and God, a huge disservice by comparing yourself to other people. Love yourself as God loves you. He knew you from the foundation of the world. You are beautifully and fearfully made. Your parts are known by him. – Graceandconfidence
- ✚ Be selective with who you spend time. Remove or reduce your time with people that gossip, pick faults in others, talk unbelief and negatively all the time. – Graceandconfidence
- ✚ Prayer is not about being religious but yielding and connecting with God. The Holy Spirit gets involved when you pray, Jesus hears and intercedes for you and God the Father makes everything start to happen. – Graceandconfidence
- ✚ Awareness is your key 2 breakthru. The more u r able 2 recognize what is happening & stand with authority, the more the overcomer in u will shine thru. Learn 2 trust God thru successes & mistakes. Not everything u do will work, nor is it the failure u think it is. -Graceandconfidence

- ✚ The Bible emphasizes the importance of patience, prudence, and painstaking preparation as the path to lasting success, rather than a mentality of reckless haste or greed. – Daniel Niranjan
- ✚ Integrity and trustworthiness in the small, everyday matters of business are essential prerequisites for being entrusted with greater responsibilities and "true riches." – Daniel Niranjan
- ✚ The Bible warns that a lack of faithfulness and honesty in handling material resources will disqualify us from receiving greater opportunities for influence and success. – Daniel Niranjan
- ✚ The Bible encourages us to view our businesses as a sacred trust from God, to be managed with the same level of care and accountability that we would apply to our spiritual lives. – Daniel Niranjan

- ✚ This Bible promises that the person who makes God's Word the foundation of their life and business will experience true and lasting prosperity. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ The key to business prosperity is an unwavering delight in and meditation upon Scripture. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ When we orient our professional endeavors around the wisdom and principles found in God's law, we can expect to "prosper in all that we do" – experiencing the multifaceted blessings of success, productivity, and divine favor. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ The Bible depicts the "love of money" as a corrupting root that gives rise to "all kinds of evils" – including the potential for believers to stray from their faith and experience profound spiritual and emotional anguish. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ The Bible reminds us of the vital importance of maintaining a healthy, balanced perspective on the role of finances and possessions. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ The Bible encourages us to guard our hearts against the seductive lure of greed, and to instead pursue our business endeavors with a primary motivation of honoring God and serving others, rather than mere self-enrichment. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ The Bible promises that when we offer the "firstfruits" or best portions of our income and productivity – God will abundantly bless us with overflowing provision. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ The Bible emphasizes the importance of maintaining an attitude of gratitude, humility, and God-centered stewardship in our financial and commercial affairs. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ The Bible reminds us that true, lasting prosperity comes not from selfish accumulation, but from a posture of honoring the Lord as the source and provider of all our wealth and success. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ The Bible encourages us to view financial blessing not as an end in itself, but as a means to further the work of God's kingdom. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ Practice generosity and help those in need. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ Invest and steward resources wisely. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ Avoid greed and be content. – Daniel Niranjana

- ✚ Experience a deeper sense of purpose and fulfillment in your work. – Daniel Niranjan
- ✚ I had no idea that by stepping out in faith, I would receive the greatest blessing. – Tracie Miles
- ✚ There are countless stories in the Bible of God calling people out of their comfort zones. And with each one, the stretching brought blessings they'd never imagined. – Tracie Miles
- ✚ Abraham trusted God for the child he was promised, despite his and his wife's advanced age. His faith-stretching ended with a little baby in his arms named Isaac. – Tracie Miles

- ✚ Jesus' disciples feared for their lives when a violent storm threatened to sink their boat. But Peter's faith to step out of the boat at Jesus' invitation resulted in Peter's human feet miraculously walking on water. – Tracie Miles
- ✚ Jesus told a crippled man, with muscles weak and atrophied, to get up and walk. The man stretched his faith as he stretched out his legs and walked for the very first time. – Tracie Miles
- ✚ A blind man who had faith to believe Jesus could heal, saw Jesus' face with those very eyes. Joshua might have felt ridiculous circling the walls of Jericho seven times, but eventually the walls came crumbling down. – Tracie Miles
- ✚ Joseph spent more than 10 years in a dark dungeon, but it was his unwavering faith which eventually landed him on the throne. – Tracie Miles
- ✚ God calls us all to do some faith stretching now and then. Whether we are called to leave our comfort zones to obey and act, or to rest and trust God during a difficult season of life, He always rewards great faith with wonderful blessings. – Tracie Miles
- ✚ Keep in mind that although it may seem impossible, God will never stretch us beyond what we are capable of in His strength — not ours. And when we are willing to be stretched, blessings begin to flow. – Tracie Miles
- ✚ Lord, help me fully trust You with my life and develop a faith that is willing to stretch for Your sake, and mine. Show me how You can use my life for Your good. In Jesus' Name, Amen. – Tracie Miles
- ✚ A rubber band isn't much use unless it is stretched. Similarly, we will not achieve the peak of our potential unless we are stretched by God. – Dean Deppe
- ✚ Paul sees himself stretched by God so that he can achieve his full potential. It's the same with us. – Dean Deppe
- ✚ We have to be willing to go beyond our comfort zones. We must forget what is behind and strain toward what is ahead. We must relinquish our fears and focus on what we can be if we allow God to stretch us. – Dean Deppe
- ✚ Stretching means trusting God in moments of surrender. Stretching means walking into our fears and coming out as people of faith. Stretching means believing in God when we don't see him working. Stretching means trusting God in all circumstances. – Dean Deppe
- ✚ Leaving Comfort Zones = Growing in God – Nadine Stohler
- ✚ It's time to change the pictures within. The old, stale, unpleasant and outdated pictures in your soul (or your subconscious for that matter.) You see, the Lord sees you as someone "that is capable". He sees you as fit to embrace this next step of your journey. – Nadine Stohler

- ✚ So don't waste time trying to change the way you feel. Instead, begin to change the pictures in your mind. Ask Him for a revelation and to show you clearly who you are and who He made you to be. – Nadine Stohler
- ✚ Ask God to show you clearly who you are and who He made you to be. Gaze on that image. Meditate on it continuously and don't allow anything else to fill your mind. – Nadine Stohler
- ✚ We may not always know which of our efforts will bear the greatest fruit, so the wisest course is to faithfully do the work without holding back. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ The Bible reminds us to be hardworking and persevering, trusting that God will grant prosperity to our endeavors in His perfect timing. – Daniel Niranjana
- ✚ Satan tries to distract us with thinking about our problems. No problem is too big for God. We should cast our concern about the problem over on God and just keep our eyes on Jesus, the Word. - Andrew Wommack
- ✚ Where does fear come from? Second Timothy 1:7 says, "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power and of love, and of a sound mind." It doesn't come from God. - Andrew Wommack
- ✚ The way that fear is able to come upon us is that we take our attention off of Jesus and put it on our situation. - Andrew Wommack
- ✚ Remember, nothing catches God by surprise. He's aware of every problem. God is aware of your personal situation. He knows what you're going through. That's why Jesus said, "Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me" (John 14:1) - Andrew Wommack
- ✚ You have to use your faith. Faith releases the power of God. Faith is just taking what God has said in His Word and exalting it above every other voice, every other feeling—not just outside voices, but your own voice. - Andrew Wommack
- ✚ Be used by God where you are. God will see you through your dry spell. - Pastor Jonathan Steele
- ✚ Some Christian believers have no idea that God cares about their our emotional lives. Others think that they are on their own when it comes to trying to keep their hearts under control. Both seem to have their emotional lives driven by circumstance. – Grant Hawley
- ✚ Rely on the Holy Spirit to teach you peace when your heart feels troubled. – Tamara Chamberlain
- ✚ Actively remind yourself 2 not be troubled. When worry seems 2 suffocate u, it's in that moment that u need 2 be reminded that your heart should not be troubled & God will care for u. We need the truth of Jesus 2 interject & break through the fear & trouble. – Tamara Chamberlain
- ✚ Prayer is a time to pour out your fears to Jesus. Don't hold back about the things worrying you, even though you know they shouldn't. He already knows what you're thinking, and wants you to lay your burdens at His feet and actually share them. – Tamara Chamberlain

- ✚ Pray as often as you need to wherever you are. It doesn't matter how big or small your worry is. Give it to him in prayer. – Tamara Chamberlain
- ✚ Use scripture to remind your heart of God's promises. We shouldn't know only the general truths of Scripture, such as "God will care and provide for you." We should actually know how he promises to care for us and provide for us. – Tamara Chamberlain
- ✚ The word of God has power. For that power to be active in our lives, we have to actually know the Word. Try memorizing a few verses & speaking them aloud. In those moments of trouble & worry, you'll be ready to renew your heart by speaking Scripture to yourself. – Tamara Chamberlain
- ✚ Jesus never intended for our hearts to be worried and troubled. Is it part of life? Yes. But it's not a place we have to live. You and I can look to Jesus for a present peace in the midst of trouble. – Tamara Chamberlain
- ✚ Trust that God will provide what you need. Trust that His timing is perfect. – Sue Miley
- ✚ Pray to the Holy Spirit to guide you through hard times. Ask God to work through the skills and experience He has given you. – Sue Miley
- ✚ When you go through hard times, use the wisdom and discernment that comes from our Creator to make the best decisions possible to navigate the uncertain waters. – Sue Miley
- ✚ When things start to go wrong, we need to seek Him, do the things we know to do, and then trust that the Lord will carry us through. – Sue Miley
- ✚ Anxiety is from Satan. GOD wants you to have PEACE – reddit
- ✚ The Devil attacks us in our minds, and will attack the minds of those around us, in a cowardly attempt to separate us from God and His will. By constantly calling on God in prayer, and armoring ourselves with His Word, Satan's attacks become easy to identify and deflect. - reddit
- ✚ God gives us the ability to grow and improve, we should use this ability to glorify God. – reddit
- ✚ The root of worry is fear. And fear doesn't come from God. Thus, at the heart of worry is the devil. And Scripture is clear – the devil is a liar. – Louie Giglio
- ✚ Worry isn't just a bad habit. Worry is a tactic of the Enemy – a strategy built on lies that are designed to rob you of peace and tear invade your mind. – Louie Giglio
- ✚ It is crucial that you are able to spot the lies worry tells you and take back control of your thoughts. – Louie Giglio

✚ THE FOUR LIES OF WORRY – Louie Giglio

Lie 1: Something really bad is going to happen.

Lie 2: The more you worry about it, the better your odds of avoiding it.

Lie 3: I have no choice—I'm a born worrier.

Lie 4: I can control the outcome by worrying.

✚ It's in stillness, not busyness, that we tune our spiritual ears to hear the voice of God. The Lord always speaks to us in that "STILL, small voice" (1 Kings 19:12, emphasis mine), but often it's drowned out amid all the turmoil of our daily lives. – Andrew Wommack

✚ Pray that whoever is placed in authority will pursue Godly wisdom and righteousness. If they have not been saved, pray that they will place their faith in Jesus. - Christian Money Solutions

✚ Pray that you don't place your ultimate hope in a president. While you should have preferences, we must remember that all leaders are flawed. Our ultimate hope should rest in God, who alone can address our nation's deep needs. – Christian Money Solutions

✚ Everyone who trusts in Jesus Christ as Savior will be treated to eternity in heaven with our Lord. – Robert Jeffress

✚ The rewards we receive in heaven will be determined by our faithfulness to God in this life. – Robert Jeffress

✚ At the judgment seat of Christ, God will test the quality of our works with fire to reveal what they're made of. – Robert Jeffress

✚ God will judge our actions and motives. To God, why we do something is as important as what we do. – Robert Jeffress

✚ When God reviews your life, what will He see? It's not too late to begin pursuing God's agenda instead of your own so you'll hear the Lord say, "Well done, good and faithful servant" (Matthew 25:23 KJV). That's a reward worth working for! – Robert Jeffress

✚ God provides all that we need and so much more. The next time you forget this simple truth, thank God for all that you have and let His presence fill you with His contentment. – Marilyn Hickey

✚ A thankful heart focuses on His abundance of provision instead of coveting what we don't have. A thankful heart is full of and content. – Marilyn Hickey

You will never get past this emotion, event, etc.

God's truth:

"He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler."—Psalm 91:4

✚ Satan's lie:
You will never get past this emotion, event, etc.

God's truth:
You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that walk in the darkness, nor the destruction that lays waste at noonday."—Psalm 91:5-6

✚ Satan's lie:
You will never get past this emotion, event, etc.

God's truth:
"But may the God of all grace, who called us to His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you."—1 Peter 5:10

✚ Satan's lie:
God doesn't care about your emotions.

God's truth:
"Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls."—Matthew 11:28-29

✚ Satan's lie:
God doesn't care about your emotions.

God's truth:
"Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time, casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you."—1 Peter 5:6-7

✚ Satan's lie:
God can't be good. He caused this confusion and emotional trauma you experienced.

God's truth:
"For God is not the author of confusion but of peace..."—1 Corinthians 14:33

✚ Satan's lie:
God can't be good. He caused this confusion and emotional trauma you experienced.

God's truth:
"You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the savings of many lives."—Genesis 50:20

✚ Satan's lie:
The trauma you experience is your fault, and you will forever live with it.

God's truth:
"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new."—1 Corinthians 5:17

✚ Satan's lie:

The trauma you experience is your fault, and you will forever live with it.

God's truth:

"I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake; and I will not remember your sins."—Isaiah 43:25

✚ Answer fear with faith. When fear knocks at your door, send faith to answer, and no one will be there, because fear will scatter at sight of your faith. – John Hagee

✚ Worry is faith in fear and not in God! – John Hagee

✚ Prayer changes everything. Excessively worrying about a situation will not change it; only by taking your concerns to the Lord in prayer and leaving them at the altar can your outcome be different. – John Hagee

✚ God has a wonderful and exciting plan for your life. Place your trust in him. – John Hagee

✚ Fear attacks your emotions, trying to drive you to destroy yourself. Fear not. God is with you. If God be for you, who can be against you? – John Hagee

✚ The spirit of fear will break your spirit and destroy your defenses. It will disarm you in the day of battle and bring terror to you on your deathbed. Have no fear! God is with you! – John Hagee

✚ When I put God first, God takes care of me and energizes me to do what really needs to be done. – David Jeremiah
