Volume 49 – April 15, 2017

- Faith is being at peace, knowing that as a child of God all things are in His care.
- Give the Lord your anxieties. Refuse to listen to the lies of the devil.
- You are a child of God when you accept the Lord Jesus Christ.
- The Lord looks at your heart.
- The law of God was fulfilled in Jesus Christ.
- Know what the Word of God says, so you can defeat the lies of Satan.
- Yes, the devil is real and he will try to twist the word of God into a lie.
- We are here for a short time. Use that time to glorify the Lord.
- God formed you from the womb, and He knows every part of you.
- God knows the baby in the womb.
- Put all the cards on the table, and run to the One who can heal you.
- The Lord will give you perfect peace.
- Do not panic. Lies come from the devil.
- As you get closer and closer to God the devil will attack you more and more.

- The devil's motive is to get you to run away from God, to believe that God's ways do not work.
- Remember, the devil is a liar.
- Don't forget to pray to the Lord for your daily bread. He will provide it.
- Do not be anxious. Roll your cares on the Lord.
- When you feel like your life is falling apart, remember that your breakthrough is right around the corner.
- Jesus gives you strength for the day. His grace is perfect.
- When you don't understand how everything is adding up, rest in the knowledge that as a believer God is in control of your life.
- In trials you are tested and strengthened by the Lord to build concrete in the foundation of your faith.
- I've learned how to trust God for today.
- Did you know that God knows exactly where you are?
- I know that my God is supplying my needs. In the natural I do not see how this will work, but God is SUPER natural and there are NO limits to His power!
- God formed the entire universe by speaking it into existence. How can your problems be too difficult for Him to resolve?
- Praise God for the infinite works of His Mercy!
- Any anger that you have is getting in the way of your fellowship with the Lord. Roll the battle over to Him.
- We're here on this planet for a short time. What ultimately matters is our service to the Lord.
- When was the last time you just thanked God for creating you to be of service to Him?
- Sin will war against your spirit and will not give you a moment of peace.
- Lord, forgive me for my sins.
- You can't fool God. He knows the secret things of your heart.
- Do what the Lord is telling you to do. You may just be a seed, but another agent will then water the works you have planted.

- Always follow the leading of the Lord, so that you will always be in His will.
- Everything may sound great, but wait on the Lord to give you the “ok” to proceed.
- Let the Word of God teach you. Let the Lord be your Master.
- Don’t be afraid to reach out. God can answer your prayer by giving someone else the opportunity to help you.
- Lay down your pride. It is not weakness to seek out help from someone else to accomplish the task that God is leading you to do.
- All that you have is from God. Who then is anyone to claim that he or she did it on their own?
- All that you have is a blessing from the Lord. Give Him first place in your life.
- Lord make me strong to stand up to the temptation of my flesh. Let me see the lie in it.
- I am born again. I have a relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ.
- I am being attacked by the devil, but I know by faith that nothing has changed. Jesus is my success. Jesus is my strength.
- It looks dark, but it is a lie. Jesus is the light, and when you have him your life counts.
- Don’t react out of fear, or frustration. This is exactly what the devil wants you to do. You already have the victory in the Lord!
- It doesn’t matter what is going on in your life. God has not changed. His love for you is never ending.
- Lord, please heal my body. In Jesus name, Amen.
- There is no such thing as a life out of control when you know the Lord. Jesus is in charge. He is on the throne.
- The Lord loves me!
- Don’t be afraid. God is working out all things.
- My tears for you have cleansed you.
- The Holy Spirit is welcome in my life.
- I pray that at the time of my own passing the Lord takes my hand and leads me Home.
- He will carry you through. Do not be dismayed. Your situation is not hopeless. God is Almighty.

- God will take care of you. Don't be misled by the lies of the devil. God's grace is PERFECT.
- When you worry you are not trusting God for your deliverance.
- When you worry you are not trusting God for His provision.
- Never give up on anybody. As long as a person has life the person can change.
- Be patient with others. Hasn't the Lord been patient with you?
- Forgive others. When you are in Christ, haven't you been forgiven?
- Forgive your parents for anything that occurred in your life as a child.
- If you are having a problem forgiving someone, bring it to the Lord in prayer.
- Unforgiveness is a stumbling block and turns off the power of God in your life.
- Watch your lips. Stand clear of gossip.
- Remember there is always two sides of a story.
- Those who continually have to puff themselves up by putting others down are basically weak within themselves. It is a cover-up for their own lack of self esteem.
- Let God build you up, so that you can build up others.
- Remember the foundation of your life. Treasure the things that have supported your growth.
- How wonderful God is, when He reassures me as I am go through the battles of life.
- Keep proper balance in your life, so that you can address the tasks that God wants you to do with all the strength that you need to possess.

- When family members get me upset, I remember who Jesus is, my inner peace returns and I am calmed down.
- It doesn't matter what people think of me. Jesus loves me.
- Be prepared. As you get closer and closer to the Lord you will be persecuted for your faith.
- Watch your words. I know a lot of Christians who continue to confess negative words over their condition. Remember that words have power.

- The tongue has power. Call things as though they are. Stop saying what you feel. Stop saying what you cannot do.
- Part of your problem is your continuous confession of the negative. Let the Lord direct you.
- Go where God wants you to go, and do the things that He wants you to do.
- Peace is liberating. Focus on the Lord gives you freedom.
- Pride comes out in many different ways. I believe that we don't always know when we walk in pride. It's the flesh that is talking.
- I don't care what it looks like. God has the final authority on what is and what will be.
- Remember the power of relaxation. When the body is feeling stress, it is time to relax.
- My problems are too big for me to handle. Give them to the One who can carry them for you.
- The Lord will give you hope, as you yield to His direction.
- Lay down your anger. It only zaps the strength that you need.
- Resist the condemnation that you feel. It is not of God.
- Let God be your security. He values you. He loves you.
- Don't be angry at those who are self-involved. They are lost. Pray for them.
- Anger is a trap of the devil. It will absorb your energy and render you useless.
- Your place in this time is to be a child of God.
- Resist those who operate in fear.
- Those who live in disobedience to God's will open themselves up to a constant state of fear.
- God has all the puzzle pieces to your life.
- God is good. Jesus in the Truth.
- A leader will do what he or she is called to do.
- Remember, as a Christian you will be falsely accused of bad motives and will be mocked for the name sake of Christ.
- In these end times, sin will be rampant all around us.

- Don't be afraid or moved regarding what you are feeling right now or where your walk is. Remember God is still the same, yesterday, today and forever and does not change.
- Don't be tempted to doubt your worth to God. He formed you. He loves you.
- One benefit of going through turmoil is that it gives God a stronger place in your life. You learn more of Him and His ways, and that becomes a path for advancement!
- As God has forgiven you in Jesus name for all sins you have done, how can you be unforgiving to someone else?
- Be still my soul... Devil be gone in the name of Jesus...

- God will provide for you as you are faithful to do the works He is leading you to do.
- The Lord is my steady Rock. The Lord is my bounty.
- Walk day by day, not projecting ahead. When you project you allow the devil of fear and anxiety to enter in.
- God is sufficient for the moment. Period.
- Get off the throne in your life. Let the Lord reign.
- Remember that we are but dust. The Lord formed us for His glory.
- Trust the gifts that the Lord has given you.
- The power for your life can be found in your purpose to fulfill His calling. Use the gifts He has given you.
- Don't get stuck in questioning how, why, where... Walk your life as an artist paints a picture. Dip your brush in and begin!

Volume 20 – June 18, 2013

- Believe. Imagine. Wonder. Act. Walk. Fulfill the calling in your life that God has set for you.
- Do not be afraid of the storms around you. A leader keeps his focus on where he is going.
- Don't rip or tear yourself apart. You are of value. Remember, God would not treat you like this, so why would you do it to yourself?
- If the Lord wants you promoted, no earthly reasoning will prevent it. The Lord is King, not the human race.
- Get your eyes off yourself and put them on your Creator.
- Look at how God formed you. Each of us has talents and skills that were put there to Glorify the Father. Use them. Give praise to God in them.
- Teach your children how to sing and rejoice in the power of the Lord.
- Learn how to forgive those who have wronged you. This will be the key to your own health. In this you are obedient to God.
- If you say you cannot forgive, how can you then ask God to forgive you?

- Although I do not see it, I believe it. Although I do not feel it, I believe it. Lord Jesus, I believe.
- I will resist the temptation to panic. Remember, nothing changed from yesterday. God is the same yesterday, today and forever. His promises are true.
- My God is a faithful God. He is delivering me out of the pit. He watches over me and is my provision. He is my all in all.
- Be armed and ready for the battle, strengthened in the Lord.
- When dealing with people, pray that God prepares the heart of the person who you have to deal with so that your relationship is fruitful.
- God is with you. Do not be afraid.
- Do not think that you are the only one who is encountering turmoil. Reach out and talk to someone else. You'll learn that others are feeling what you are feeling.
- Learn to pray to the Lord, that God will bless the other person who you have to speak with. Ask Him to send you someone who can help you.
- The love of my God keeps me secure, solid and serene.
- I have absolutely nothing to fear with my God beside me.
- Believe!
- Christ crucified, the hope of all glory...
- Lost your job? Don't allow the devil to shatter your self-worth. You are valuable to God. Ask Him to show you His will for your life.
- Use what you have. You have gifts and talents. Ask God to show them to you. He has not abandoned you. Resist the lies of the devil.
- You may not understand what is going on in your life. You may have just suffered a loss and are afraid, lonely and tired. God is nearby to pick you up and stabilize you.
- God will strengthen you in the midst of your trouble. He will see you through it.
- We may not understand why you are going through a valley, but rest assured that God knows and continue to trust in Him.
- I may be tempted to fear, but I know by faith that God is real. My fear is quenched in the knowledge that God is real.

- Anything that happens to me is not without God's hand allowing it, for my own good, to build me, stretch me and support me.
- I am tempted to panic. Lord, please heal my childhood fears. Let the scars of my past shape me for future service to You.
- I don't know what to do, but I pray to God to show me direction. There's much I need to know and need to learn.
- Help me Lord to reach to You in my walk throughout my life.
- Lord, please keep me strong in my Christian walk. Protect me in battle, and provide for my needs in Jesus name.
- God will produce the fruit of your labor. He will garnish you with provision for your daily bread.
- Although I am in a valley right now, I know by faith that you are my protection.
- Be an agent of mercy today for the Lord. Be a listener to someone who is struggling.
- God counts every tear that I cry. He comforts me in my pain and sorrow.
- Encourage me in Your word, oh Lord, to continue to walk on in this life. I am afraid. Help me in my unbelief.
- Lay down anger. It gets in the way of a blessing from God.
- Be like putty in the hands of God. Let Him mold you and direct you to where He wants you to be. Lay down human reasoning.
- You gave God your life. Great. Now continue on in your walk. Let Him have your whole heart.
- You won't have perfect peace until you give God all of yourself.
- Remember there is nothing secret with God.
- Don't believe the lie that says you can't change. That is a lie out of the pit of hell, orchestrated by the devil. With God all things are possible.
- Crucify your flesh. Resist temptation.
- Use what you have. Believe in yourself. You were made in the image of God!
- Resist the temptation of fear. You are a child of God. Be strong. Be brave. Conquer. Walk on.
- Put every decision in your life before the Lord in prayer. Then leave it in His hands.

- In whatever I am going through I know by faith that God is good. Period.
- The more I walk through life the more my faith in God grows. I learn what faith really is.
- What peace we experience fully knowing that God is with us in our circumstances!
- Do not be afraid. God has not left you.
- When it looks impossible, remember that nothing's too hard for our God!
- God will bring you to the place He wants you to be. He is tearing down walls in you to build you up
- in His power!
- Remember, God is NEVER late. As humans we may feel like He is late when we don't get an immediate answer to prayer, but this isn't correct.
- Be sweet to one another. Be kind. Let the love of the Lord come through in all of your dealings.
- Die to yourself. Believe that God can take care of you!
- Self focus is sinful pride, whether you believe you are better than someone else or if you believe that everyone else is better than you.
- Ask God to show you the composition of your heart. Ask Him to expose secret sin in your life.
- Self-sufficiency is pride. We are to be dependent upon God. Don't believe the lies of the devil.
- Humility is not walking around saying "I am no good. I am nothing." Humility is recognizing that you are dependent upon God.
- Rise to the destiny that the Lord has for you.
- The Lord will promote you in the pit of your life.
- Lay down the fight you are doing in your own strength. It is pride. Give it to the Lord and watch your miracle unfold.
- Get up, rejoice, and praise God!
- Ethical behavior in business starts with what you believe in for your personal life. Keep pure. God is watching.
- Stop carrying your burdens alone. Pray.
- God sees everything. Nothing is hidden from His view.

- God knows your heart better than you know it. He knows exactly what makes you tick, and knows your real motives.
- Dear Lord, please smash every part of my spirit that is not in obedience to Your Word.
- God is the ultimate Truth for your life!
- Lay down your anger and spirit of unforgiveness. It gets in the way of the blessing from God on your life.
- Plant the seed. Water it, and bless God for the fruit that He has given you.
- Open your mouth, and I will give you the words to say, says the Lord.
