RE: Preparation of 2020 Personal Income Tax Returns

Dear Tax Client:

Happy New Year, and wishing you God's blessings in 2021. To those clients who are returning to us once again for tax preparation, we sincerely thank you for your past patronage and ask that you spread the word to your friends and family of our tax preparation services. To our new clients, we thank you in advance for your business and pledge to serve you with quality and professional customer service. Remember, we're here to help you!

The cutoff to file your 2020 personal income tax return is Thursday, April 15, 2021. Please contact our office for preparation of your 2020 tax return at your earliest convenience, after you have received all necessary supporting documentation to prepare your return.

Note that all federal and state tax returns prepared by our company will be electronically filed to the federal and state governments. Your returns will be prepared solely on the basis of information submitted to us by you, the tax client.

Important Tax Law Changes

1.) Recovery Rebate Credit

Eligible individuals can claim the Recovery Rebate Credit on their 2020 Form 1040 or 1040-SR. These forms can also be used by people who are not normally required to file tax returns but are eligible for the credit. The Recovery Rebate Credit is authorized by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act. Any eligible individual who did not receive the full amount of the recovery rebate as an advance payment, also known as an Economic Impact Payment, can claim the Recovery Rebate Credit on a 2020 Form 1040 or Form 1040-SR.

Generally, this credit will increase the amount of your tax refund or lower the amount of the tax you owe. You do not need to complete any information about the Recovery Rebate Credit on your 2020 Form 1040 or 1040-SR if your Economic Impact Payment in 2020 was $1,200 ($2,400 if married filing jointly for 2020) plus $500 for each qualifying child you had in 2020. You received all your recovery rebate in 2020.

See special instructions below on information to provide me during your tax preparation process to determine the status of any additional recovery rebate credit you may be entitled to receive.

2.) Unemployment Compensation

Many individuals received unemployment compensation in 2020 due to Covid-19. Note that unemployment is taxable for federal income tax. Regarding state income taxes, each state is different. For example,

(a) Unemployment is NOT taxable for the State of New Jersey

(b) Unemployment is taxable for the State of New York

Unemployment benefits received are reported on a 1099-G form that are issued by the state in question. This includes any "normal" unemployment paid by the state, as well as the special $600 unemployment received in 2020 due to Covid (i.e., the "CARES Act"). Unfortunately the states generally do NOT mail the 1099-G to the recipient of unemployment. Recipients generally need to log into their state's department of labor website to print it out the 1099-G form that is needed for income tax preparation.

3.) Charitable Contributions

Beginning in 2020, if you don't itemize deductions on Schedule A (Form 1040), you (or you and your spouse if filing jointly) may be able to take a charitable deduction for cash contributions made in 2020. The deduction is limited to $300 if single, head of household, qualifying widow(er) or married filing jointly, or $150 if married filing separately. The contributions must be made to organizations that are religious, charitable, educational, scientific, or literary in purpose.

- Review to determine what forms and information is required to be provided.
- Effective 2019, the IRS no longer mandated for individuals to carry health insurance. As such, the "Shared Responsibility Payment" no longer applies for your federal return and you don't need an exemption in order to avoid the penalty. However, if you have received forms 1095-A, 1095-B and/or 1095-C, please include these forms with your documents for income tax preparation. They are also needed for the reconciliation of any Premium Tax Credit received on your federal return.
- The following states, however, DO have a health insurance mandate, thus requiring residents to maintain health insurance unless you qualify for an exemption:

New Jersey
Massachusetts
Vermont
California
Rhode Island
District of Columbia (Washington, DC)

ALL clients in these states are required to complete these forms for all members of your "tax family", defined as individuals for whom you are claiming a personal exemption on your tax return (generally you, your spouse with whom you are filing a joint return, and your dependents). Residents of these states must maintain minimum essential health coverage or pay a penalty.

CTC/ACTC/ODC (Child Tax Credit, Additional Child Tax Credit & Other Dependent Credit)

EITC (Earned Income Tax Credit)

AOTC (American Opportunity Tax Credit)

- IRS continues to significantly increase the responsibility of tax preparers to ensure that information being provided by the taxpayer to calculate these credits is complete and correct. As such, we will interview all clients who claim these credits to provide our office with adequate information to comply with this IRS mandate.
